WEDDING

CHRISTENSEN - RUNZER

Nazareth Lutheran Church in Standard was the location of a marriage ceremony conducted by Pastor Luther Abrahamson on Monday, May 26th at 4:00 P.M. where Caren Ellen Christensen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Christensen of Standard and Gordon James Runzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Runzer of Kelowna B.C. exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and hawthorne blossoms from the Okanagan.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a fitted A-line gown of organza over taffeta with a long train flowing from the waist, accented trim of Venice lace. From her headpiece of a small crystal and lace type tiara flowed a train length veil. Her bouquet was of tulle roses, white carnations and anemones. Besides earrings and necklace, she wore a family heirloom gold bracelet and carried a Brussels lace handkerchief which had been used by her great grandmother 112 years ago.

Matron of honor Marie Tebbutt and bridesmaid Alize Christensen, sister of the bride were attired in identical gowns of yellow linen dotted swirl with semi-fall skirts, high collars and long puffed sleeves. Each carried flower puffs of daisies and their headpieces were cascades of matching daisies.

Mother of the bride chose a blue and white flowered formal dress silver and white draped tulle and a salmon carnation corsage.

The mother of the groom's ensemble of yellow linen was also accented by a salmon carnation corsage. She wore a small yellow flowered net hat. Best man was the groom's cousin Tim Rieger of Kelowna and groomsmen was Wayne Tebbutt of Calgary. Ushers were Harvey Larsen and Nancy Runzer.

Organist Mrs. Lois Hansen accompanied the soloist Mr. Burge Larsen, uncle of the bride, as he sang "Bless This House".

The Community Hall which was beautifully decorated with orange and yellow streamers and flowers was the setting for the open reception. The head table was adorned by a magnificent 5 tiered cake baked by the bride. A short program ably M.C'd by Charlie Madsen consisted of a toast to the bride by Elmer Jensen, response by the groom who also presented a toast to both sets of parents, a toast to the bride and groom by the best man and also a few words of appreciation by both the bride's and the groom's fathers. Piano memoirs played by Keltie Lees was enjoyed by the many friends who came to extend to the young couple their best wishes. For going away the bride chose a yellow linen sleeveless coat over a yellow and orange flowered long sleeved dress.

The young couple plan to reside in Kelowna where both of them are employed as "Chefs".

ALL SCHOOLS CLOSED

The School Committee of the County of Wheatland has officially declared Friday, June 13th as Farmers' Day. All schools throughout the County will be closed that day.

CLASSROOMS TO COST $20,000

The County School Board has contracted to rent portable classrooms.

The rooms will cost approximately $4,000 per year and there will be five such rooms.

The decision has been made, to ease the crowded conditions that exist in the Strathmore Samuel Crowther School.

The portable classrooms will be located opposite the Strathmore Veterinary Clinic and arrangements for utilities to serve them have been negotiated with the Town of Strathmore.

OPERATION SUNBURN

A small but important news item was overlooked recently.

The Carleland Junior Red Cross students walked thirty-one miles from Carleland to Cheadle and back on May 10th. Of the fifty-two walkers who started out, eleven completed the march in 76 degree heat. Those who finished the thirty-one mile trek are Lynne Cool, Happy Barlow, Laurie Ostrum, Betty Third, Max Pruden, John Third, Jack and Fred Swere, Kenny Toldorf, Danny Lausen and Ken Feitz.

Many thanks are extended to all those who walked and especially the sponsors and the checkers.

Nearly $500 was realized. There were no casualties but some of the hikers got badly sunburned.

WEATHER MODIFICATION ANOTHER POINT OF VIEW

OPEN LETTER ON CLOUD SEEDING TO THE EDITOR

Recent articles which have appeared in some papers by Mr. Gerry Good and the Alberta Weather Modification Co-op, better known as the pro - Erick movement, have no doubt been written in the hope they will fall on sympathetic ears, and on the uninformative, and that by arousing public opinion in their favour, this sympathy play might reach our governing bodies. Such articles can only add more fuel to already existing fires of animosity, while most farmers have been well immunized against such poisoning of the mind on this subject, a few words of opinion from our organizations may be informative and helpful.

May we state quite clearly that our organization of rangers do not oppose the organization of scientific weather modification experiment. We fail to understand however, why the Alberta Weather Modification Co-op has no head-standers and persistent in their view, that by selecting evaluations whereby figures and statistics can be juggled and distorted, they paint a favourable picture to their own cause, and while our organizations are not opposed to weather modification experiments as we have already mentioned, we are opposed to the rather doubtful way it has been attempted. After twelve years we have nothing to show but a garble of figures called statistics.

It is not hard to understand that after twelve years of operation the opposition to the pro-Krick movement is steadily increasing.

It is our conviction that weather modification is a science and should be left to scientists. That unscientific evaluations are detrimental and can only add chaos to a complex problem.

We welcome the good news of the Alberta Research Council's experimental hail suppression project in Central Alberta in 1969.

We also welcome the Co-op's decision to discontinue their project.

We disagree with Mr. Good's statement that Westland and Kneehill counties' cancellation of their project for 1969. Plebiscites were granted for approximately five townships in Westland and eight townships in Kneehill in the same six previous years. Dates were set, plebiscites notices and ballots were printed when the announcement came from the Alberta Research Council of the Co-op's decision to discontinue their project.

The Council's decisions of Westland and Kneehill not to hold a plebiscite on weather modification remained the same as in previous years, and if this decision was not clouded from the preceding last year, how could it possibly have any effect on this year?

The decision to cancel the cloudseeding program for 1969 was solely the responsibility of the Alberta Weather Modification Co-op.

We agree with Mr. Good that the rule in having a plebiscite modification project should be decided by the electorate in the ballot box, and we agree with Mr. Good and Kneehill for their decision for holding their last plebiscites over the whole county and municipalities and leaving this right for the people to decide. This is a more democratic approach than the practice that has been exercised by the Mountainview and Rockyview counties, who have continued to letting approximately thirteen townships decide whether or not there be a cloud seeding project in the four municipalities.

In 1967 when a plebiscite was granted to the Co-op over the whole municipal district of Kneehill, out of a total electorate of 2,054, 790 voted against and 294 voted for. Even with such a decisive defeat, cloud seeding still went on in Kneehill against the democratic wishes of the majority. This was the last plebiscite in the Municipal District of Kneehill.

The last plebiscite to be held in the County of Westland, was held in 1964. This was also a vote over the whole county. Total amount of eligible voters was approximately 120,244 voted against, 358 voted for. After this defeat, Krick was still hired to seed clouds in this area. It might be appropriate to mention at this time that no more had been taken in the past by the electorate for a court injunction to ground planes or to stop any cloud seeding in previous years. When boundaries are set by the Weather Modification Co-op, great care is taken that a vote in their favour is assured. For example, we will mention only one occasion of a plebiscite in the Mountainview area in 1968. 49% voted against a project, 51% voted in favour. 82% of the eligible voters voted. Many of the 80% were small holdings of less than twenty acres. The Co-op has learned by experience that small holdings are a sure vote of support. We might also mention that none of the Mountainview Councilors were within this area.

The action that has been taken in previous years by Rockyview and Mountainview Councils is a true picture of deliberate discrimination. If weather modification is good for those chosen in approximately thirteen townships, why then is it high time they asked themselves the question - not what is wrong with the rangers, but what is wrong with the way they conduct their operations?

For twelve years the farmers who had been requested to take requested to take have never been informed by the Co-op where the project area is. It is bewildering how the project area fluctuates. In previous years the variable boundary lines were governed by the hail storms, and where the hail storms went this area was considered outside the project area.

Evaluations varied the same as the boundary lines, from P.F.A.A. payments, to Alberta Hail Insurance Records to crop yields. In 1968 when conditions seemed most favourable for an evaluation of increase in crop yield, suggested boundaries grew to two and a half million (2 1/2 m.) acres.

If the Weather Modification Co-op is so consistent in their evaluation and promotion to be unscientific about scientific project, what shall we say then? What is their motive? Is it knowledge? Is it money? Is it honour? Is it recognition? Is it power? Are they afraid of the fact that all scientific well planned and well conducted projects stand on their own merits? What is the answer then? Could we conclude that they are becoming experts in double dealing? It is beyond our comprehension how our government can entertain absurd conclusions in legislation to a pro - Krick movement regarding weather modification, which in our view, because of their unscientific way of conducting their operations is detrimental to the work being done by the Alberta Research Council and the National Research Council.

If our government is interested in doing something for the farmers, let's not have legislation that causes division, but let's have a call to unity and let's be united in supporting the Alberta Research Council. If the Calgary Council or any other governing body wish to assist the farmers in their fight against hail, we suggest they make better use of their funds by sending them to the Alberta Research Council rather than submitting them to the so-called Alberta Modification Co-op.

Inserted by Ratapayers Protective Associations and ratapayers of Kneehill, Mountain View, Rockyview and Westland.

$29.50 less that last year's Impala comparably equipped.

Now more car really does cost less.

Normally, you expect to pay more to get more. So you'd naturally expect Canada's favourite car, Impala, to cost more than a 58 Impala with the same equipment. Well... the price spiral stops right here.

Like an example? Take our Impala Custom Coupe, equipped with a 300-hp Turbo-Fire V-8, power front disc brakes, Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, head restraints, whitewalls and wheel covers. And we'll take $120.50* off last year's price.

How come? Because this year we've cut the price on the 300-hp motor, the Turbo Hydra-matic transmission and the power discs, and we've made head restraints standard equipment. So you save a bundle.

And on top of all this, Impala's a better car this year. By now you should be getting the message. More car, less money.

And your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to prove it.

*Based on manufacturer's suggested maximum retail price, including freight, taxes, license and suggested dealer delivery and handling charges.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

TO BE READ ONLY BY THOSE WHO "CARE".

Wheatland Lutheran Parish
Box 235
Standard, Alberta.

Dear Friend,

You're invited to be part of an exciting program. You've read in the papers about such things as underprivileged children, inner city problems, urban congestion and other difficulties of urban living. And you've been concerned. What's happening to people who grow up under these conditions? Particularly, what happens to the children? The statistics of a city like Calgary are not all that encouraging. Some 20,000 children and youth are entered on the police record every year in Calgary. That's partially what's happening.

We're attempting to launch a program that eventually could be province-wide and perhaps even nation-wide. We want these city kids to have something better than that. And we believe in many respects that we in the rural areas have something better to offer in clean air, lots of space, good food and good families.

Now, if there was only some way to allow these city children who so often lack the very basics we so freely enjoy. This can't be done year round, but we could at least offer them a chance to enjoy our advantages for a short period. Besides for a city child to have a chance to be on a farm, why that's pure delight. It can't be done for that my own youth.

Our parish invites you to open your home to one or more of these city children for a week during the summer. Miss Patty Mulloy of the Calgary Social Services hopes to place some 40 children in our county homes during this summer on an experimental basis. Enclosed you will find a form that we're asking you to fill out if you wish to participate in this exciting program. You have a choice of weeks, since certain times are more impracticable than others for you.

Please consider this as your contribution to building a better society and improving the opportunities for the youth of our great country. Should you have any further questions, feel free to write.

Sincerely,
Luther N. Abrahamson
Wheatland Parish, pastor

Beef Is Not Too Expensive...

Believe it or not, beef is not too expensive. Well it has jumped a little in price all of a sudden, but looking back over a period of years there have been only slight increases in the price of beef.

Meat is the most costly item in the food budget. It is also very high in nutritional value being our major source of protein and minerals. With its tempting aroma and distinctive flavour is the favorite of most Canadians. Over a five-year period (1959-63) about five out of every ten pounds of meats eaten were beef. During this period the annual consumption of beef averaged about seventy pounds per person.

The tender cuts such as steaks and overloins are the most expensive but do not have any higher food value than the tougher less expensive cuts.

About 30% of the cuts come from tender parts of the carcass and as the demand is great they are the most expensive.

People think they taste better but there is actually more flavour in the tougher cuts, if they are prepared in the most appetizing way.

Know The Cuts Of Beef:

In order to decide which method of cooking is best, we need to know the names of the various cuts of beef and what part of the animal they come from.

The most tender cuts are from the parts of the animal muscles that are used the least such as the loin and rib sections. Cuts from parts of the animal which receive the most exercise such as the neck, leg and shoulder are naturally tougher.

Cooking Methods:

Low dry heat is the rule for tender cuts. Long slow cooking with moist heat makes the tougher cuts tender and tasty. As meat is the most expensive item in the food budget, it is essential that the homemaker can recognize the different grades and cuts of meat.

She must know whether to use moist or dry heat with each cut in order to make it tender and tasty for serving her family, and in order to get the most for her money.

We have an excellent publication on BEEF & BEEF DISHES. This booklet shows the beef cuts, explains cooking methods and provides recipes. For barbecue fans, it also explains how to cook your favorite cut out-of-doors. Phone, write or drop in for your copy of "Beef and Beef Dishes".

MASTER FARM FAMILY AWARD

Change in the Alberta Master Farm Family Award program were announced today by Agriculture Minister H.A. Ruste.

Although the maximum number of awards will still be limited to five, two Master Farm Families may now be named in any one region of the province. This change is being made because there were years when more than one family qualified for the award in one region, while there were no qualifying families in another region. Mr. Ruste said that where the standards of selection are so high, he would like to see qualifying families be recognized.

In calling for nominations for the 1969 Master Farm Family Award, Mr. Ruste also said that more emphasis will be given to the business management aspects of farming in this year's award. The award program was designed to honor farm families who have achieved notable success in farming, home making and citizenship and who demonstrate the practices that bring farm and family progress and to indicate the advantages of farming and farm life.

Nominations for the Master Farm Family Award must be proposed and signed by at least three neighbors, accepted by the nominee and filed with the District Agricultural or District Home Economist by July 15. Nomination forms are available from district extension offices.

The nominees will be judged later in the summer and the winners will be awarded $1,000 cash, a suitably engraved plaque and a gate sign.

EDITORIAL

The season of Rodeos and Fair Days are upon us and now that seedling is pretty well complete, perhaps it is time to take a long hard look at ourselves over the past few months.

The feuding within the County made national headlines and it is probably not over yet! Land deals were perpetrated, which, had little to recommend them legal or not, neighbour turned against neighbour and friendships of generations were undermined.

Now is the time to gather our wits and to shake hands and join in our traditional rural events.

Every Village in the area has a "DAY" and Carleton Place has two! Let's all quit bickering and attend as many events as possible. Enjoy the Hatched and begin to regain our sense of humour.

THE HOMEMAKER

DIET AND DENTAL HEALTH - from Canadian Nutrition Notes.

We are all well aware of the relationship between the consumption of concentrated sugars and the incidence of dental decay. The form in which the sugar is served concentrated, sweet and sticky foods, the frequency of eating, and the time during which sugar is consumed, all have a direct influence on the rate of decay. Modification in diet and times of eating aid in the reduction of dental decay.

Sweet foods often called "Empty Calories" are an expensive source of calories providing little or no additional food value. Today there appears to be a much greater demand for sweet foods. The consumption of soft drinks has increased tremendously while that of fluid milk has decreased slightly since 1953.

On the average today each person consumes about 100 pounds of sugar in all forms per year. Back about 100 years ago, our ancestors ate about one tenth as much sugar as we do today. Four hundred years ago, they used no sugar at all.

Many factors have led to our increased sugar consumption should be checked, if you wish your children to have fewer cavities.

Here are a few simple rules for families with respect to sweets and tooth decay.
1. Reduce or limit the amount of sweets consumed. The child who has had few sweets does not crave them. He is also less susceptible to dental decay. The more sweets the more likely decay.

2. Reduce the frequency of eating sweet foods or beverages.
The child should have a special time set aside to eat the sweets he has saved good time is right after meals, i.e. dinner time, when the brushing of teeth immediately following can be supervised by one of his parents. It also allows the child to eat a good meal without dulling his appetite by sweets.

3. Especially reduce in-between meal snacks. When the child has snacks, help him to choose snacks good for his health. Fresh fruits and vegetables, cereals, fruits, and vegetables, juices, and milk are a few suggestions. With a little effort good snacks can be fun to make and fun to eat.
4. Have the child brush his teeth after every meal he eats. If this is not possible a rinsing with water will help.
5. Go to the dentist regularly for check-ups and needed treatment to maintain or achieve good dental health.

A delicious lunch was served by a large committee of friends, after which the numerous beautiful gifts were displayed. Carol graciously thanked everyone for this memorable occasion and the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Frey enjoyed a short holiday in the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Borge Larsen and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larsen were among the local ones who took in the Lions Convention at Kalsipall last week end.

Congratulations to Will and Harvey Cummins upon the birth of their first grandchild - a 5 lb. 8 oz. baby girl named Kristina Michelle born June 5th at Froehlich Hospital. Proud parents are Helen and Allan Shannon.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

The Village of Standard is sorry to advise that it will be impossible to supply water for spraying or any other purpose. The hot and dry condition this spring have created an exceptionally heavy demand on our system for watering the village lawns and gardens. It appears that rationing of water in the village will be necessary, therefore we are unable to supply water for other than our own use.

ALBERTA WOMENS INSTITUTE GLEICHEN REPORT

The Nightingale W.I. were the hostess branch which sponsored the 48th Annual Conference of Gleichens Constituency of Alberta Women's Institutes. It was held on May 28th in the United Church Hall with 53 signing the register. The theme of the Conference, "Building a Firm Foundation for the Future" was presented by Mrs. W.J. Henry of Quesnawton W.I. the 5th psalm followed by a poem, "To God the Rock of Ages," after which all repeated the Lord's prayer. The address of Welcome was given by Mrs. Fred Knight of Nightingale W.I. and ably responded to by Mrs. A. Bishop of Langdon. Guests were then introduced "Mrs. Allan Warrack of Edmonton, Mrs. Coates of Quesnawton, Mrs. Deal of Little Bow Const., Vulcan, Miss Nettie Ware of Vulcan, Miss Winnie Wearmouth, Calgary-Oakdale Const., Cochrane, Mrs. Franklin, Cochrane, Mrs. Irene Leavitt, District Home Economist of Calgary, Miss Young of Three Hills our D.H.E., Mrs. Norma Jean Gray of Brooks, Mrs. Johnson of Brooks, Mrs. Ruby Holland, Dis. 4, Convener of Lethbridge and Mrs. A. Brander of Langdon, who acted as secretary, in the absence of Mrs. B. Moore.

Mrs. Holland introduced Mrs. Habberfield and she gave her report, stating theme of the Conference and her financial report and read a poem - "Mother" which was greatly enjoyed. Committees were appointed as follows: Nominating - Mrs. M. Konechak of Nightingale, Mrs. E. Alborn, Langdon. Resolutions - Mrs. E. Walker - Nightingale, Mrs. W. Polow of Quesnawton, Cochrane - Mrs. G. Chadwick of Langdon, Mrs. J. Bushell - Quesnawton. Nominations committee then reported: Constituency Convener - Mrs. G.C. Habberfield by accl. Publicity - Mrs. B. Martin - by accl. Langdon. Handicraft - Mrs. A. Larsen - Nightingale. Health & Home Economics: Mrs. W.J. Henry, Quesnawton.

Resolutions: Mrs. E. Walker reported on the resolution stating that as city dwellers and people on rural routes receive their mail free, it is not fair that those who live in towns should be charged for box rent. This will be sent to Provincial conference in Edmonton. Mrs. Jesse Lahn, Quesnawton then introduced Mrs. Holland, who spoke on her work as editor of "Home & Country" and told us many interesting tales of her attendance at A.C.W.W. conference in Lethbridge, Mich. last year, where 2,000 women from 49 countries lived together for two weeks. Her roommates had been from Mississippi, Australia and England and amply portrayed the theme "Learning to Live" - their problems the same as ours in many instances and it made her very proud to be able to claim herself a Canadian. She urged us never to underestimate our position as Mother, homemaker and wife. It depends on women to develop our head power and our heart power.

For the most outstanding handicraft at the conference and winner of the Individual cup, Mrs. N. Harriman then presented Mrs. M. Peterson with her award for a Petit Point picture. Nightingale were the winners of the cup. The standings as follows: Nightingale: 3.82, Quesnawton: 3.005, Langdon: 2.880. After discussion it was decided that as many members as desire to, can enter table centers, for display. This was formerly decided to be a branch effort.

In the absence of Mrs. D. Thomas, Handicraft Convener, Mrs. N. Harriman graciously consented to help the D.H.E. in their work. There being very little business at the Representative meetings held in the autumn, it was decided that an afternoon meeting would be ample and any member who knew of a speaker was asked to send suggestions. Mrs. Habberfield urged everyone to use imagination in making reports and do not be afraid to branch out and use new methods.

As Mrs. D. Thomas and Mrs. A. Moore, are in hospital, Mrs. Martin suggested that we send to each one with names of those attending conference on reports, they would not then feel so forgotten. Constituency reports were then given, Publicity: Mrs. Martin, Agriculture and Canadian Industries - Mrs. W. Kimmett, Nightingale, United Nations - Mrs. M. Peterson, Langdon, Health and Home Economics - Mrs. J. Laid, Quesnawton, Handicraft - Mrs. G. Crilly, Langdon, Social Service - Mrs. G. Elder, Quesnawton, Education and Citizenship - Mrs. L. G. Kinney, Nightingale.

We then enjoyed Mrs. Mercer's composition and music of her song "Prairie Rose". Lunch was very much enjoyed, where we all partook of a delicious turkey dinner, served by the Namaka Unit of the Church. A short song song followed.

The Hostess branch then had placed lucky numbers under some of the chairs and Mrs. Shirley Rinehart and Mrs. Gail Knight were both lucky at this time. Mrs. D. Hilton, Langdon then introduced Mrs. Norma Jean Gray who spoke on "The Family Life" program, where she found much comforting and informative. This is a series of 6 lectures and many places throughout the province have sponsored this program which takes us from childhood to the senior citizen group. It gives much to consider. We took 10 minutes to view the indicraft which was outstanding.

After Young then spoke on handicraft and the baking. She said the handicraft displayed much more interest than in years past. She urged us not to gaze at her pastry and to display cakes right side up.

Mrs. Leavitt spoke on the handicraft she had judged commended on sewing and suitability of fabrics, threads, etc. Gave us many ideas about sewing polyesters and forreals.

A draw was then held for a lucky number prize and this was won by Mrs. J. Bushell of Quesnawton. Mrs. G. Chadwick of Langdon gave the Courtesy report which was very comprehensive and flattering to all.

As Langdon will be the hostess branch for next year's conference, Mrs. Crilly extended an invitation to all to attend as it will be a banner year. Langdon's 50th Anniversary of W.I. will be held in the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Nightingale ladies then served a delicious tea and after a pleasant time visiting we all felt we had spent a happy time together. Several of the town ladies dropped in to view the handicraft and have tea. It was indeed worthwhile.

STRATHMORE GUIDES

The last Strathmore Guide Co. held their Annual Mother's and Father's Banquet on May 31, 1969 in the basement of the Catholic Church.

A delicious cold plate prepared by the mothers was enjoyed by all. Head table guests were Mrs. L. Vanvalley, Mrs. Desmet, Mrs. M. Brown, Mrs. C. Helfrich, and Mrs. Contact. Mrs. Contact, who is a badge award as hostess child care, owners and housewife were presented and captain Mrs. Marlor awarded Young Klondike and Klondike, Betty Baudais received her 2nd class badge.

Each Patrol had decorated their table to represent a country. Much time and effort was put into decorating, making the judging difficult. The Canary Patrol won a shield knife for their table representing Spain.

The Patrol Guide shield which is an annual award to the best all around Patrol throughout the year was awarded to the Poppy Patrol with Nettie Valdez as Patrol Leader, Laura Ann Klemm, Gina Freeman and Lynn Peterson. Mrs. Desmet, President of the Local Association presented Mrs. Marlor and Mrs. Kuziv each with a gift with thanks for their work throughout the year.

The presentations were followed by a 15 minute film taken at last years camp much to everyone's delight and to wind up the evening Camp fire was held.

On April 30 the Senior Patrol from the 32nd Co. of Calgary visited our Company and held a Patrol Council presentation of the winning Patrol the Red Roses with a book about Guiding written by Lord Baden Powell.

On May 30th the Alberta Accordion Academy held a musical recital in Carleton Place sponsored by the Girl Guides. The funds earned will be used towards buying a tent for the camp.

On May 31st four Guides, Mrs. Marlor and Mrs. Kuziv joined Guides from Rockyford and Drumheller in a Pioneer Camp teaching the day at the home of Mrs. H. Koppel of Rockyford.

This year the last Strathmore Guides Company will be attending camp in the Drumheller in August. Mrs. Marlor will be the camp commander.

AGRO EQUIPMENT

Throughout the year we would not have been able to manage without help from the mothers and the Local Association. Thank you to the mothers who have given so much of their time to meet a girl for such things as Home Nurse, Homemakers, Homemakers, Writers and many other things.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GUIDE YEAR

On February 15th the Guides spent an overnight in a building at the Ray Jewells farm and the next day was spent at the camp.

Ped. 25rd. To celebrate Thinking Day for Lords and Lady Baden Powell's birthday a breakfast was held in the Anglican Hall followed by Church Parades at the Catholic and Anglican Churches. March list. The Guides took part in the Scout and Guide rally held at the Samuel Crocker School, singing the closing songs for the Camp fire. On display was a miniature campsite which the Guides had been working on throughout the year.

May 7th, Mrs. Van Wessel visited the Guides and gave a demonstration and talk about the proper care of your skin which the Guides enjoyed.

Throughout the year the Guides have been selling chocolate bars and on May 3rd was our annual Guide day. Thank you to everyone who has helped support us. Also special thanks to Mr. Norman and his staff for allowing the Guides to have a Cookie booth in the store.

ANIMALS POISONED

Two cases of suspected strychnine poisoning have occurred in pets within Strathmore town limits over the past week end.
The most likely source of this poison available to the public is in popper bait.
People selling this product have a duty to warn their customers how dangerous it is to animals and human beings. On no account should it be used within town limits.

Strychnine is highly lethal to all types of animals, including humans, and very small amounts cause hyperexcitability, convulsions and death within a short period of time.
Immediate treatment is absolutely essential in suspected cases.

Children should be impressed upon, not to pick up food laying around and pets should not be allowed to wander anywhere that is absolutely unnecessary.

SWIMMING POOL REPORT

by Gordon Prusky

The Strathmore Lions Club swimming pool will operate this year for the first time before July 1. The probable date for opening will be this week and June 21st.

Our new $16,000 dressing rooms proved a very valuable asset last year. This year we borrowed $4000 from the bank and in a new floor and are trying to fix all the cracks.

Again this year we had to use irrigation water. Lost about $500 extra with the extra algaeicide to kill the algae and the filtering material. It also takes about four days of continuous running to clean the dirty irrigation water.

As a service club the Lions feel that the pool takes quite a bit of resources both financially and make your own decisions. Here are the facts. Costs of pool help: 1964 - $924.00; 1965 - $1,024.00; 1966 - $2,187.07; 1967 - $1,800.50; 1968 - $2,444.00 and this year we are paying monthly salaries that will amount to about $3,000.00. These figures only include the salaries not the filtering materials, chlorine or natural gas and upkeep.

For the first time in as many years we have an adult staff at the pool. We are pleased to announce that Kathy Davies from Cheshire will be the head. She will be assisted by Pam and Dick Wimer from Standard. The latter two are Australian swimming coaches. All the above are fully qualified instructors. Helping us again with the life guarding will be Bruce Talbert. He has the highest life swimming award for his age group, that being a bronze medalion. Please drop around and in to the pool.

The Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten classes of Old Sun School travel into Calgary to St. George's Island by school bus on an educational

The children about 64 in number ranging in ages from 4 - 6 yrs. made the trip on 2 separate days. Half of the class went on June 5th and the rest on June 9th. The teachers Mrs. Morrison, Miss Many Heads and Miss Becker accompanied the children on the trip. The following list of mothers also went on the tour, namely Yvonne Stumason, Nurlel Many Heads, Gail Many Heads, Rachel Royal, Irene Bull Bear, Doreen Tooner, W. Henderson, Roslyn Many Guns, Marie Water Chief, Heather Wolf Ear, Miranda Black, and Sylvia Yellow - Old Woman.

Our thanks to the bus driver Mr. Raymond Hill. Everyone reported that it was a good trip.

Next week we'll report on the trip of the Blackfoot children that travelled to the West Coast.

Plans are now under way for the Blackfoot Reserve News to participate in the parades of Basenao, Gleichen, Rockyford and Strathmore. We're there Parade or bug!

COUNTY SCOUTLEADER AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

West won fame as guides and guardians of the covered wagon trails. These saddle-bred frontiersmen led caravans through the dust of the same Ft. Trail, skirting the poppy and meadow of the northwestern New Mexico where the Great Plains break like a golden wave against the Rocky Mountains.

Today, more than a century later, Scouts in ever greater numbers range this same spacious and rugged area. They are Boy Scouts who camp, hike and ride, relishing outdoor living and the zest of adventure on the 157,000 acres of Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, New Mexico.

Lying along the Same Ft. Trail and nurturing the vigorous traditions of that long abandoned track, Philmont is the largest camp of its kind in the world.

Mr. Hvenegaard was nominated by his own church, The Westland Lutheran Parish, to be the recipient of this scholarship. For the past seventeen years he has served the cause of Scouting in our county as scoutmaster, assistant Scout Commissioner and presently as District Scout Commissioner of the Wheatview District, he has worked with several hundred boys - introducing them to the challenges of Scouting.

Besides his outstanding work in Scouting, he has consistently been an active leader in his congregation. As Sunday School superintendent, church treasurer, council member, his calling and response have been tremendous.
Mr. Hvenegaard is the only Canadian to be so honored this year. The remaining 90 recipients of this award come largely from United States and Mexico. The program is designed to train leaders and pastors in relating the Church to the Scouting program. On his return, he will be encouraged to share his experience with Scout leaders and pastors across Western Canada.

This scholarship makes it possible for the entire family to participate. Mrs. Hvenegaard, who is a Cub leader in Standard, will be in a special leadership program. Bradly and Stephen, the two older boys, will be participating in a five day trail camp in the huge ranch. And for Paul and Glen, the two younger sons, there is a special week long program planned. The entire family should return more convinced Scouters than ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Hvenegaard will be leaving on July 4th with their entire family. Their plans are to camp along the way, visiting several of the scenic places of the Old West. As an expression of encouragement for the Hvenegaards to adventure the glories of western Canada, members of the Westland Parish will be presenting White Hats to the entire family.

HUSSAR COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

A special meeting of the village council of Hussar was held on Thursday, May 29th, 1969 to consider the 1969 budget and set the mill-rate. It was noted that education expenditures for the year were expected to be some nine hundred dollars greater than for the previous year. In view of this fact, council decided that an increase of 2 mills for educational purposes was required for the year 1969. All other departments and expenditures were held at the same rate as in the previous year. The mill rate structure for the year 1969 is as follows: Education 15.2 mills; Health 3.7 mills; Hospital District 2.0 mills; Municipal General 23.2 mills; Debenture 78.0 mills; Business tax mill rate - 15.0 mills. Sewer frontage tax - 25¢ per linear foot.

The budget approved by council provides some reserves for future expenditures such as street paving, sewer system servicing and other contingencies.

The project will be managed by the Blackfoot Co-operative Enterprises Limited of Cluny. The Federal Government will bear the full cost. The Blackfoot project will provide employment for several family heads on the Reserve and expand the economy of the Reserve. The initial phase of development will increase productivity and expand the acreage of pasture and fodder for 1000 head of cattle. The co-operative has operated successfully for three years and now has 320 cows and 178 calves on the Reserve lands. The HRDA-ARDA supported development project will enable the co-operative to utilize 11,000 acres of excellent grazing land which was rated 3 - 4 on the recent soil capability testing carried out by the Canada Land Inventory.

The 11,000 acres will be divided into three fields for better operation and range management by allowing rotational grazing. The project includes ten miles of fencing, two sets of handling corrals, winter feed yards, dugouts, and wells. The education and training benefits that are built into the project will enable the co-operative members to acquire the necessary management and husbandry skills to establish self-sufficient farm and ranch operations, including feedlots and community pastures.

The increased productivity from presently under-utilized lands will return funds to the co-operative as well as the members of the co-operative.

The grazing lands to be developed by the project lie within Twp. 21, Range 19, south of Cluny, Alberta. The project will be implemented under the supervision of a manager selected by the Board of Directors of the Blackfoot Co-operative, Special assistance and advice will be provided by the Fieldmen from the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Fieldmen from the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Technical surveys and pasture management recommendations are being provided by the Department of Lands and Forests and the Canada Department of Agriculture. The Blackfoot Co-operative also utilizes the consulting service of a Brooks rancher.

The long-range plans of the Blackfoot Co-operative view this project as part of a large effort to fully utilize the grazing resources of the Blackfoot Reserve by expanding the herd up to 3,000 head.

FROST DAMAGES CROPS & GARDENS

Two consecutive nights of low temperatures with up to 14 degrees of frost damaged many crops and gardens last week.

Damage was spotted in many districts with the heaviest frosts located in the North, North East and East areas of the County. Gardens were probably the hardest hit with many of them completely killed. Many of the more susceptible crops were also a total loss.

Winter rye crops in the blooming stage were most vulnerable. In many cases, the growing embryo were sufficiently damaged to make the crops fit for hay only. Crops on the high land were not damaged as badly as low lying crops.

Continued dry weather is adding to the stress caused by the frost. Many of the cereal crops showing damage will come back if we get moisture soon. They may not make it if the drought continues.

Flax can take 14 degrees of frost for a short time, without permanent damage. Rape and mustard will survive the frost if the growing point is not damaged.

Many gardens are being reseeded - provided new seed can be found. In many cases, the seeds are hard to find now.

TOUR PLANNED - JULY 30/69

The Wheatland Agr. Advisory Board made up of fourteen men and women from the Rural Area of the County, have planned a tour of the Lethbridge Research Station this summer. A chartered bus will leave Strathmore at 8:00 a.m. and arrive in Lethbridge around 10:00 a.m. The group will be divided into about three to six different sections of the work carried on by the Station in the interest of improved Agriculture.

VILLAGE OF STANDARD NOTICE TO FARMERS

The Village of Standard is sorry to advise that it will be impossible to supply water for spraying or any other purpose. The hot and dry condition this spring have created an exceptionally heavy demand on our system for watering the village lawns and gardens. It appears that rationing of water in the village will be necessary, therefore we are unable to supply water for other than our own use.

ORANGE JUICE AND PACKAGED ONION SOUP MAKES PARTY CHICKEN A GOURMET DISH

On these all-too-rare and lovely occasions when we are taken out to dine, how we all enjoy something "a little different" ... such as Duck à l'Orange or Filet Mignon! While these may be a bit beyond our budgets for everyday dining, there are many recipes that can be substituted at home with surprisingly similar results, even on a mid-budget.

On each meal, which we call "Party Chicken" but which is simple and economical enough for a family meal, needs only some bruler-fryers, a couple of oranges, a package of onion soup and a can of frozen orange juice to produce a dish not unlike those served in gourmet restaurants at "unlike" prices.

PARTY CHICKEN

2 (2 1/2 lb.) bruler-fryers, split
2 medium navel oranges, unpeeled, cut in thick slices
1 envelope Lipton Onion Soup Mix
1 (6oz.) can frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
1 cup water

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Place chicken and orange slices in large roasting pan. Blend Onion Soup Mix with orange juice concentrate and water. Spoon some of onion mixture over chicken and oranges. Bake about 1-1 1/2 hours, or until tender and glazed, basting with remaining onion mixture, turning occasionally. Serve with pan juices. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

BARBECUING TIME

Barbecuing time again. With the price of steaks today, it would be a shame to have them go up in smoke. Traditionally barbecuing is the man's domain. Vioher can handle all the preliminaries and then take a rest. So Vioher these suggestions can be passed along to the barbecuing chef.

- Line the firebox with aluminum foil and a one inch layer of gravel. This protects the fire box, and makes cleaning up easier. It provides ventilation for the fire, reflects and retains heat and saves fuel.

- To start the fire pile charcoal briquets in the center in a pyramid about 12 inches in diameter and 5-6 inches high. Use the liquid starter or an electric ring starter. Never use gasoline, paint thinner or other highly combustible fluid.

- Be sure to start the fire 30-60 minutes ahead of cooking time. In order to make a bed of hot coals 4-6 inches deep. Coals just right for cooking are ash grey by day and have a red glow after dark. No flames or smoke are visible before starting to cook.

- When coals are ready, arrange them:

For Grill Barbecuing - 1/2 - 3/4 inches apart in polka dot fashion. This gives even heat and reduces flare ups when meat fat drips.

For Spit Barbecuing - Knock the ash from the coals and bank them to the rear of the fire box. Put a drip pan under the chicken or meat on the spit.

For Kabobs - arrange the coals in parallel rows. Place kabobs on the grill between the rows of coals.

- Rub the grill with suet or salad oil to prevent meat from sticking to the bars.

- Trim off excess fat from meat to prevent flames and smoke.

- Place the meat on the grill so that pieces do not touch.

- Use long tongs to turn the meat every 10 minutes at first to prevent excessive drip.

For more information on barbecuing call our office for the booklet "Barbecue Cooking".

BOATING TIPS

To help curb boating fatalities Red Cross recommends 8 boating safety tips for boaters: 1. Buy a boat suitable for the use you want to make of it. Make sure it is large enough for the number of passengers you plan on carrying, and that it will handle the horsepower you wish to use.

2. The rules of the road apply to boats as well. The driver is just as dangerous on water as he is on land.

3. Equip your boat with government-approved safety equipment: a lifejacket for each person on board (see that each lifejacket fits the person for whom it is intended, and that it is worn at all times); two cans or paddles; bailer or manual water pump; red distress flares; horn or whistle; first aid kit; fire extinguisher; and an anchor on 50 feet of line.

4. Carry and use the correct lights at night.

5. Never smoke while refuelling.

6. Put your passengers ashore while refuelling.

7. Always wear a lifejacket in choppy waters and at night.

8. If upset call for help and hang on to the boat until help arrives.

Two unforgettable and eventful days were held on Friday and Saturday in Hussar with people gathering from far and near. The barbecue on Friday evening, attended by close to 400 people, was a luscious meal of 4-H beef and all the trimmings. A bunge tent had been erected and a capacity crowd enjoyed the evening of dancing and the beautiful casino. Jack Treacy had an interesting display of artifacts in his trailer and this was viewed by many.

On Saturday the western breakfast consisting of flapjacks and bacon was enjoyed. The mammoth street parade had many colorful, interesting, and humorous entries. Prizes were given to Shane Fandry who drove a small truck portraying the plight of grain farmers in Western Canada; to the 4-H club for their beautiful float; to the Big Horn Hunting group for their humorous float; and to Valerie Suter for the best decorated bicycle. Several ball games were played at the sports ground with Carbon winning the tournament. The horsehoe tournament was won by John Anko and Charlie Waldow from Madden with Bill Bishop and George Kaine second. Singles were won by John Anko 1st, Charles Waldow 2nd and J. Hannus 3rd. The student part of a track and field meet. The children 15 and under entered a race to catch a pig that had been thoroughly greased. Jerry Larsen was the fortunate one to catch the pig and take it home.

Drama Department TO HOLD AUDITIONS

An audition/interview procedure for prospective first year drama students at the University of Alberta, Edmonton will be inaugurated this year. The Acting Head of the Department, F.P. Buchert stated that "talent enrollment is necessarily limited and because the students in this intensive creative field involve highly specialized training, candidates will be required to satisfy the selection committee that they have the necessary ability and degree of commitment to undertake the program". The Department offers a four year Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in the areas of Acting, Directing, Design and Playwriting.

Auditions will be held in major centres in Canada and the U.S. this spring and summer.

More information may be secured by writing the Registrar of the University of Alberta, Edmonton.

1968 DROWNING STATISTICS

There were 1,186 people drowned in Canada last year, according to the latest Red Cross report. Included in this figure are 22 deaths which occurred in the Northwest Territories. Alberta's figure was 43 drownings.

While the overall figure of 1,186 shows a 5.45 per cent decrease on the previous year's total of 1,255 drownings, the Red Cross believes that a high percentage of these deaths occurred through accidents which could have been avoided. Another cause for concern is that the percentage of drownings of persons (mostly young men) in the age group of 15 to 35 years old has increased over the previous year.

In an effort to reduce the annual drowning toll, the Red Cross Water Safety Service is aimed at helping Canadians learn how to avoid the hazards of water and enjoy safe, healthy water activities. Last year, of the 654,669 people enrolled in Red Cross Water Safety programmes over 14,000 were active in leadership capacities.

The number of drownings associated with boating, swimming and falling into the water decreased by 78 in 1968. Although accidents of this kind were down 10 per cent, the total number of drownings, the Red Cross believes that the decrease is due in part to its Survival Swimming course which was introduced in 1966. This course is designed to teach the minimum skills needed to deal with emergency situations which occur when a person finds himself in trouble in the water.

ROSEBUD

and DISTRICT

By Mrs. F. Bilbow

The Annual Rosebud Sports Day, sponsored by the Lions Club of Rosebud, was held on June 13 under ideal weather conditions. Ball games highlighted the day with the Rosebud Little League being downed by Rockford 11-10. Pony League Rosebud boys managed to defeat the Standard team, while the fathers in Baseball were beaten by Delium. There were no more games coming up. Delium Falcons won the Men's Football Tournament that day. Also featured at the Rosebud Sports Day was a giant outdoor barbecue at 4:00 p.m. and a Cocktail Dance in the Rosebud Hall in the evening. The novelty number was a smash-up affair as members of the Students' Union banged an old car body to smithereens, as they say, and netted a few dollars for their budget.

Have you thought of peeking at the Rosebud and District Museum, located in the centre of town this summer? It is usually open to the public on Sunday afternoons in the warm weather. Just ask any member of the Lions Club and he will be pleased to direct you. The Museum offers splendid antiques and reminders of Alberta's past.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Feckley have with their guests their daughter, Judy of Oregon, Elva's mother, Mrs. Marie Kale and one of Elva's sisters, also from Oregon.

Some Rosebud people drove to Carbon on Sat. June 14 for the annual Rodeo in that town.

Some Rosebud folks took in the Strathmore Bingo on Wed. June 18. Congratulations to Mrs. Hilda Bendorf on winning some of the cash again!

The First Rosebud Bowline Pack, their leaders and some Rosebud Guides, as packies, bicycled to Langford Siding on Sat. June 14 earning their Bicycle Buds and having a tasty outdoor camping supper.

Mrs. Alvina Bertach has had visitors from south of the border for several days.

Noticed at the W. Watson home on Fathers' Day were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Taubert and children of Calgary.

Orientation classes for the prospective beginners of school year 1969-70 were conducted by Mrs. Helen Wilson at Severn Creek School.

Stock Car Races, sponsored by the Lions Club of Rosebud, were held at the Rosebud Race Track on Sunday, June 22 following time trials at 1 p.m. Winners of the races were as follows: Trophy Dash - Bob Lang; First Race - (1) Doug Watson (2) Bob Fraser (3) Joe Busch; Second Race - (1) Norm Anderson (2) Doug Watson (3) Bob Lang; Third Race - (1) Merle Honeyman (2) Randy Jensen (3) Craig Russell; Fourth Race (1) Bob Lang (2) Jim Hunter (3) Joe Busch; Fifth Race (1) Doug Watson (2) Norm Anderson (3) Bob Lang; Sixth Race - (1) Norm Anderson (2) Doug Watson (3) Bob Lang; Feature Race (Grand Finale) - Bob Lang.

Some of the first to start holidays are Mrs. Shirley Barr and Valerie who flew from Calgary to Toronto on June 20, 1969. From Toronto, they went by rail to Montreal, New Brunswick, where Shirley's sister, Mrs. Verboorn St. Their plane leaves from Calgary on July 12 for the Netherlands. They plan to visit relatives in Germany also.

The Mervin Wilson family leave the latter part of June to motor and camp all across Canada to points in New Brunswick and the Maritimes.

Again this summer, some folks are off to Holland for the greater part of the summer. This year Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse No who will be accompanied by Mrs. Verboorn St. Their plane leaves from Calgary on July 12 for the Netherlands. They plan to visit relatives in Germany also.

Also overheard that Mr. and Mrs. Made Jorissen are as planned in the above of Canada's Great Lakes this July and August. Their headquarters will be at the home of their daughter Cheryl (Mrs. H. Burgess) who live beside one of these lakes.

As the children rejoice over the summer holidays, the community wishes the schoolteachers a happy summer break. Most teachers will be attending their senior year various laboratories. Among these will be Mr. J. Fleet, Principal at Severn Creek who will be attending University at Los Angeles, furthering his knowledge of German.

A LETTER

The Secretary of
The Wheatland Weather Modification Association
Clutch, Alberta, Canada.

Dear Friends:

We were distressed from the standpoint of the loss that will inevitably accrue to the farming community when we learned it would be impossible to finance the rain increase and hail suppression program for 1969. It will be a difficult year economically for those people who are hit by hailstorms or who do not receive sufficient rainfall to achieve the crop yields comparable to those of the past several years having the protection of weather modification operations.

This however, will be an interesting year scientifically because it will permit people to view the changes in the rainfall and hail patterns from the previous years when the program was in operation. Perhaps these contrasts will serve to accentuate the progress that has been made and must be maintained in the future.

We regret the fact that operations will not be possible in 1969. However, in the long run the comparisons which can be made between 1969 and the years of rain increase and hail suppression operations will serve to display, in a very sharp focus for all to see, the great benefits that accrue from a well-planned and well-designed rain increase and hail suppression operation performed by experienced technicians. The unique skills acquired from the operational experience of the past decade, made possible by the farmers of Alberta, may never be duplicated by others and must not be abandoned.

This 1969 non-operational year, and its adverse impact upon the economy of the area, will help strengthen the farmers' resolve in the future to support their weather modification program. We truly wish to express our very deep gratitude to those farmers who worked so hard, long and diligently, all these years, to bring the benefits of weather modification to your area. Without their staunch support, none of these major scientific advancements would have been possible.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Irving F. Krick

After an extremely hot day on June 18th it was a great relief to have cooler, damp conditions on June 19th. The rainfall was not enough to help crops or grassland but it did cool things off a bit.

The Nygards are spending the weekend in Edmonton with daughter Ellen and the McPhes. The week and news will have to be reported in next week's column.

DALEMEAD

June 1969 marks 60 years since Harold Phillips set foot in Langdon, Alta., coming from Moss, Arizona. One of his early recollections was that the sun set at 8:00 p.m. and immediately darkness set in — there was no twilight.

The Community Club held their monthly meeting at Olive Wards on Wednesday, June 18th. Mrs. Louise Pearson demonstrated the making of glass flowers and centre piece. A most fascinating hobby but rather an expensive one.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lea attended the Olds F.W.S. and F.W.A. convention accompanied by Mrs. Bob Rudolph on Thursday June 19th. A very good number turned out. The discussion was on Blue Cross hospitalization and several resolutions which had been circulated to all locals prior to the meeting day. Much knowledge was learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chalmers motored to Sundre to attend the farm sale of one of their friends.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Queenie Goodman is now out of hospital and home again.

Congratulations to our Dalemead Soft Ball team who were the winners over Shepard on Wed. night.

STOREKEEPERS WATCH

WATCH FOR PROSPEROUS PILFERERS

A recent survey by Canadian Grocers disclosed that even the well-to-do are prone to shoplifting. The items are not usually taken by down-and-outers but by those who are light-fingered by nature. Pilferers will take 'penny near anything' as one chain store manager put it.

A prime haul from one supermarket was a $1300, a stand-out compared to the usual 'free' shopping by non-paying customers of cigarettes, razor blades, hand cream and beauty aids, flat steak and canned lobster that escape from every chain store.

Stores prosecute shoplifters in relation to the gravity of the offence, but as rule pilferers are simply asked to return their business elsewhere.

In prosecution, there is a need for 'substantial' evidence that a person intended to steal the item thus meaning an arrest can only be made after the person leaves the store to prove the shopper had 'merely' forgotten to pay.

The Strawberry Tea which was held last Sat. at Wheatland Lodge was attended by many old timers to enjoy catching with old friends. The grounds of the Lodge look very attractive with the ornamental animals and useful benches. These have been purchased with money raised from their Bingos and former teas.

The Lutheran Youth Choir entertained the Senior Citizens at the Lodge on June 14th. Their music was much enjoyed. They were enroute to sing at Standard, Hussar and Gleichen on June 15th.

Last Sat. night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen, a crowd of fellow teachers gathered to say good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. Hopper and daughters. The evening was spent in conversation comparing countries, and singing Canadian songs. The Prairie Rose was for Alberta and Walzing Matilda was for Australia. The Hopper family will motor to Eastern Canada visiting our important cities. On their return, they will fly to England before returning to Australia. Mr. Hopper thanked all for the kindnesses during their year in Strathmore and especially Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen for the lovely evening.

Raymond Verment was seriously injured in an industrial accident in Calgary last week. He underwent surgery in Holy Cross Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The Lions Swimming Pool opened this week and in our few hot days, it proved to be a popular place.

Mrs. Grace West and Mrs. Laura Stanger have just returned from a three-week visit at the lovely Storm Mountain Lodge near Banff. During this time, they enjoyed lovely weather.

The Ladies of the Royal Purple finished their year with a social evening following their meeting last Monday.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Sid Coldwell has been a victim of the Flu.

Several classes from the school have recently had field trips to Calgary visiting industrial areas, meat packers, bakeries, planetarium, and of course, the Zoo. The weather didn't always co-operate so the picnics were rather a wash-out. They really gained knowledge in their observations and enjoyed the outings.

The 13th Annual Piano Recital held last Fri. night was well attended and the pupils performed their selections well. The piano duets played by Mrs. Dougan and Mrs. Mercer, as well as Mrs. Mercer's vocal solos which included her own composition, were especially enjoyed. The sum of $78.00 was presented to the Retarded Children School in East Calgary. Their display of handicrafts were very interesting and many articles were sold. A special thanks goes to the Canadian Legion for donating the Hall and to Mr. Parran for printing the tickets.

Bob Hartell Champ at F.C.A. Rodeo

Bob Hartell won the all-round championship at the Foothills Cowboys Association rodeo held in conjunction with Saturday's race meet at High River fair grounds.

The Strathmore cowboy topped the prize money winners with $1713 placing first in barrel race riding and tying for third in steer wrestling.

Bob also had a qualifying performance in bull riding. The rodeo attracted over 100 entries in the five events and provided outstanding entertainment between races throughout the afternoon. Top placers in each event were as follows:

Saddle bronc riding - 1st, Wayne Baird of James River; 2nd, Dale Albrecht of Trochu; 3rd, Leonard Little Bear of Fort Macleod.

Barrel race riding - Bob Hartell; Gerry West of Sundre and Dale Christiansen of Carleton Place.

Bull riding - David Young of Delburne; Tom Williams of Lumberton; Dave McDonald of Dalmores; Ray Lundy of Corcoran and Dale Christiansen of Sundre.

Steer wrestling - Ralph MacDonald of Cardston; Dave McDonald; Bill Halsey of High River and Bob Hartell (tied).

Call roping - Ray Groves of Carleton Place; Tom Thorman of Lethbridge; Edgar Robinson of Innisfail; 4th, Lee Phillips of Carleton Place.

Attractive trophy buckles were presented along with prize money to the winners in each event.

Buckle donors were High River Motor Co., Little Bow (Lethbridge), Newline Service, Lyon Saddlery, W.D. Halsey and Hradley's Western Wear.

Kelso claims that Sutherland and Vancouver (who provided plenty of laughs for the spectators, Bruce Flewelling served as pitman, Mrs. Eddy as flagman, and George and Henry Northmo were timers. Such confectioner and arena director was Frankie Cooks of Strathmore.

Lee Campbell chaired the rodeo and was assisted by Art Hesse as secretary.

Recently while travelling in the area south of Rocky Mountain House, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kinney ran across this man feeding, with horses which in rather unusual these days, this may bring back memories to some of us that used to farm this way years ago.

CHOIR LEADER HONOURED

On Sunday, June 22, 1969, Strathmore United Church Senior Choir paid special tribute to Mrs. Mary Mercer for her many years of faithful service to the choir. Dr. J. W. Giffen, spokesman for the choir, spoke of Mrs. Mercer's great musical ability and her willingness to share her talents with others. Mrs. Mercer joined the choir about 1927. For many years she was a frequent soloist at special services and sang in the alto section. The community has been the beneficiary of her teaching and many have been delighted with excellent musical events as a result of her work.

In 1961, Mrs. Mercer was appointed Director and Organist of the Senior Choir and continued in that capacity until last year when ill health made it necessary for her to resign. Now Mrs. Mercer has taken her place again in the alto section and we look forward to her continued good health to serve as a member of the choir.

On behalf of the Senior Choir, Dr. Giffen presented Mrs. Mercer with a silver tray suitably inscribed. Mrs. Mercer, moved with emotion, thanked the choir and the faithful people in the congregation gathered in the church hall for lunch, at which time many people had opportunity to express their personal gratitude to Mrs. Mercer.

EDITORIAL

The Medicine Hat to Calgary Trail Rider's have had a wet and unpleasant trip so far, they arrived in Strathmore's Lambert Park last night.

The Youth Enderide race has so far proved that the youngsters can look after a horse in the true tradition of their forebears.

One horse, an entry from Manitoba suffered a very severe cut to its right hind fetlock, from a broken bottle concealed in the grass.

Yet another good reason for the heavy penalties being imposed on unclean litter bugs, the thoughtless act of some motorist has cost a horse lover and a good horse, their pleasure.

Homemaker

By Catherine Young, D.J.H.E.

There seems to be ever increasing publicity given to fat reducing diets.

Everyone is looking for the get thin quick recipes. We hope to lose five pounds in a week, then put them on again with a week end calorie surplus.

What's wrong with fat diets? Firstly, I think many of them are monotonous and unpalatable. When they lack the necessary nutrients recommended by Canada's Food Guide, some are expensive and most offer gimmicks suggesting wonder foods and combinations of food.

There are no secrets to losing weight and no miraculous foods or food combinations will cause the pounds to melt away.

If you are overweight you are simply eating more calories than you are burning. Try pushing yourself away from the table before the second serving of dessert, or say no thanks to that sound nutrition in order to have that healthy slim figure.

AFTER INSECTICIDES

Dr. G. L. Swales, 1 entomologist at the Lethbridge Research Station

The development of crops resistant to insects through plant breeding requires a more lasting effect than the use of insecticide and does not have the accompanying hazards of toxicity and pollution. We have found that some varieties of crops attacked by root maggots do have partial resistance to the maggots. This gives us hope that they might be controlled without insecticides.

Several varieties of rutabaga have been tested at the Lethbridge Research Station for resistance to the cabbage maggot. This insect, despite its name, is a major pest of rutabaga. Its extensive studies have been conducted to find the nature of this resistance.

Many of the fly that produce the cabbage maggot are laid in the soil near the plant. After hatching, the tiny maggots must make their way to the roots. Because they are small and travel beneath the soil surface, it is difficult to observe their activities and to determine the percentage that normally arrive at their destination. Maggots, however, can be reared in the laboratory without the complicating influence of the soil. From these studies we have learned several facts.

The adult fly has such a slight preference for laying eggs around rutabaga roots that this was not considered to be a major factor in causing the great differences in numbers of maggots that were found among these varieties.

No nutritional differences in the flesh of the roots were noted; the cabbage maggot did equally well on all varieties.

The size of certain varieties did seem to have some protective properties. Entry by the maggot into the roots of some varieties was inhibited in some way. We have not determined whether this phenomenon is chemical or physical.

The methods for selecting resistant plant lines are being developed and the possibilities of breeding a resistant variety remain. In the meantime, insecticides will have to be the prime method of protecting crops against the root maggot.

FARM SAFETY ESSAY WINNERS

Forty-seven County School Districts and 45,000 children received awards in the Farm Safety Essay Competition.

Approximately 2,000 school rooms and 45,000 children were involved, making this one of the largest contests of its kind anywhere. Essays were submitted to the judges by approximately 1,000 students. Four teachers from the County-School District Branches selected the best essays from the grades 1-12. The judges were: Mr. J. H. Smith, principal, and Mrs. J. H. Smith, principal, and Mrs. J. H. Smith, principal, and Mrs. J. H. Smith, principal.

This year, the County-School District Branches asked the young-sters to write an essay which might set a new trend for greater safety with farm machinery. Essays were asked to stress their personal role in changing the current very frightening trend which has seen farm accidents climb for since 1957. They were asked to apply a jar for accident prevention following the "THREE" plan: engineering; enforcement and education. In writing these essays, they were asked to show how they personally follow the three "P" plan for safety to keep their farms or homes free from hazards, mentioned in the essays, they were to include: engineering to reduce the hazard; education to avoid the hazard; enforcement of the safety rules.

In the County of Wheatland-16, Superintendent Volman, V. J. d. Strathmore, the best essay from grades five and six was written by Wendy Sanden of Husar School. In grades seven and eight the winner was Karen Selgenen of Husar School.

Following are the girls' essays:-

WHAT I CAN DO FOR FARM MACHINERY SAFETY

Harvesting is a wonderful happening on the farm. Everyone is busy. Mothers are getting meals ready for the men. The small children are begging to go out and play.

"Mother, can I go out and play?" begged Tommy Baker, who was five years old. Before Mother could answer, big brother Jim yelled from the door, "Hurry up with lunch!" Jim let Tommy go for one side with him, will you take care of him?" asked Mother. "Sure Mom."

"Oh boy," yelled Tommy. When they got down to the field, the combine was ready to unload. Tommy jumped off the truck and ran for the back of the combine. But he turned too sharp and the combine's back wheel and the combine knocked down flat by the straw spreader. Jim spun around when he heard the loud bang. He ran around to the back of the combine and there was Tommy knocked out cold. Tommy was in the hospital for two months with a fractured skull.

How could this accident have been prevented? Well, it was all Tommy's fault you say. No it wasn't all Tommy's fault. Those fault was it Tommy could never go out-side and bother the men. Shouldn't his father have been teaching him farm safety rules during a time when he was so busy? In this way, he would learn the dangers of farm machinery. His father could have helped prevent the accident also by putting a guard on the straw spreader.

If the safety measures had been taken, the accident could have been prevented. Things could have happened this way.

Well I say Tommy had been taught the dangers of farm machinery. Tommy didn't have to beg his father to go out-side, he let him go out-side every once in a while. Tommy could avoid small accident and still have fun. He had been taught that a safe tractor was better than a grain auger even though it was protected pretty well. Tommy followed all the safety rules the best he could. So which is better? I think it was mowing a piece of grass. I had left with our little gardening tractor.

Winning Essay - County of Wheatland-16
Pupil - Karen Selgenen, Grade 7
Teacher - Mrs. V. Kuchel, Husar School
County Superintendent - M. Holman, V. J. d.

WHAT I CAN DO FOR FARM MACHINERY SAFETY

Perhaps you have experienced an accident with farm machinery. I have not, but I came close to one, and that gave me fright enough to last a lifetime.

My aunt, uncle, and two cousins, Nancy and Billy, arrived on Sunday afternoon for a visit. The drive into the yard, I was mowing a piece of grass. I had left with our little gardening tractor.

of Nancy, who was only two and who I was very fond of, was toddling over calling "Karen". Right then I realized she had run in front of the tractor. I meant to stop it, but I got nervous and didn't know what to make it go faster. That was when I hit Nancy. Luckily, it was just with the side of the tractor, but the impact of the tractor still drove her over on to the lawn. Fortunately, she was just a little bruised and frightened, but I certainly never want to experience anything like that again.

Small children, especially those from towns and cities, should be strictly supervised when they come out to the farm. They are too curious for safety's sake.

WILD CONTROL

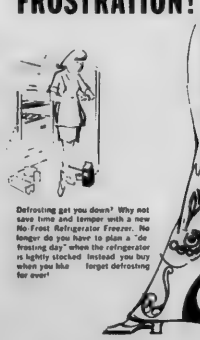

Farmers have been keen enough over the years to use good cultural and chemical practices in the control of their weeds. The easy to kill type of weeds are still with us but in reduced numbers. The harder to kill weeds however are more prevalent than ever. By reducing competition of the easy to kill weeds, the more persistent ones have increased.

Chemicals that are really effective on hard-to-kill weeds have not been found yet. And so we must still rely on cultural practices to hold the weeds in check. Some chemicals can be used to supplement the cultural practices. Understanding the habits of the weeds we are trying to kill is a big advantage. Cultivations and/or sprays can then be planned for the most vulnerable time of the plants growth.

Bulletin on the control of many of our hardest to kill weeds such as Thistles, Tied Flax, Hoar Grass etc., are available from the Extension Office. Stop in and pick them up as well as Bulletin No. 641-1 on Chemical Weed Control in Cereal Crops for 1969.

BLACKFOOT STUDENTS WHOOP IT UP IN VANCOUVER

Thirty-four students from the Blackfoot Reserve recently returned all aglow from a five-day field trip to Vancouver. Their eyes gleaming with excitement, they described the thrill of flying in a D-C 8, the giant killer-whale of Stanley Park, the swim in the salty sea and the ferry-boat ride to Vancouver Island.

Organized by the teachers at Crowfoot School and financed by a raffle, the students themselves, and the Band Council, the project proved an overwhelming success. Six chaperones, mostly Crowfoot teachers, accompanied the group: the Rev. Rayane, Edith Gavin, Maureen Temple, Joan Munro and George Perry.

Most of the children were bedecked in the beautiful, traditional Indian garb, thanks to the hard work of Sister Maria and a few Indian ladies, notably Mrs. Victoria McHugh. Photographers everywhere asked the group to pose for a snapshot. As none of the students had flown before, excitement, tension and a sprinkling of fear gripped most of them when their giant aircraft took off from McCall Airfield and headed westward.

After a warm welcome at the Vancouver Airport, their crowded five-day schedule of tours, receptions and activities began. An afternoon of bowling at Grandview Bowling Centre proved a big hit with pop and ice-cream and chocolate bars on the house, who wouldn't find it fun? The first evening was spent at the Vancouver Indian Centre where several young ladies were competing for B.C. Indian Princess. Each contestant had to deliver a short speech, and as Della McMaster, a student from Crowfoot, had placed first in the Provincial Public Speaking Contest, she was also invited to give her prize-winning speech. In the opinion of all Della took the cake. It was on this occasion that Betty White, another student from Cluny, presented a lovely Indian necklace to Rev. H. Butcher in appreciation for his trouble in finding homes for the students. Bouncers housed and provided transportation for the children during their stay. Several homes occupied by the students were plush mansions, with a swimming pool and tennis court in the back yard. "Wow! real groovy," commented one of the youngsters; "hardly like Blackfoot Reserve!"

During their visit the group would tour Vancouver and Victoria, visit Simon Fraser University and enjoy a wetter roast than a group of variety students visit the 20 million dollar luxury ocean-liner "Italia" lying in dock, and hulk for sea shells.

Fred Fairbourn who worked for many years at Crowfoot School before moving to B.C., was on hand with his wife to greet old friends and spend a day with them.

If the students were quiet on the plane, all shy-ness had vanished when the time arrived to board the train and head for home. Miss Gavin confessed that one student talked to her more on the train than she had all year in class. The chaperones were loud in their praise of the children: "The kids were just great; wonderful, lots of fun and no trouble at all." "I've never had a more courteous, well-behaved contingent of students aboard" the conductor remarked to Mr. Ryan. Originally the students had hoped to attend the Olympics in Mexico. When lack of funds ruled this out, the Vancouver trip was organized. "Where do we go next?" the students are already asking. "I missed the last trip for lack of money; I am saving my money for the next", is a commonly heard now.

The Indian students were not the only beneficiaries of the trip; many of the white people involved in the project felt their own prejudices begin to crumble. The following lines written by Rev. Butcher to the Principal of Crowfoot School, speak for themselves: "May I thank you sincerely for your initiative in sending your students to Vancouver. If they enjoyed coming, we enjoyed them. If their eyes were opened to new ideas and other people's way of life, so were ours. As I think co-operation between different branches of Christ's Church is more valuable than we shall know this side of heaven."

70th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, July 6th, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins celebrated a very special occasion by their 70th Wedding Anniversary when a host of relatives and friends gathered at the community hall to honor them.

Mr. Ray Green of Calgary M.C. presented a unique situation as he had been M.C. for their golden wedding and made the presentation at their silver wedding. Also Christensen extended the Civic Welcome and congratulated the couple.

Mr. George Nelson, former neighbour, now teaching in Edmonton, spoke a few words of his early association with this fine couple. Bob, Cheryl and Melvyn Cammatt and Susie Dankewitz sang two numbers accompanied by Miss Elder.

Tom McGowan read telegrams from the Prime Minister, Hon. Pierre Trudeau, the Premier of Alberta, Hon. Harry Strom, Lt. Gov. Hon. Grant McEwan, and the District Mgr. of the Royal Bank.

Mrs. D.A. Fletcher, made the presentation on behalf of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion. Mrs. Collins two sisters, Olive Fraser and Nina Olson both of Moosecow, were up for the occasion and were introduced as special head table guests.

Elsie Chastard presented one of her original songs especially composed for her dear friends. Mr. C.V. Madden presented a bouquet of flowers on behalf of the Ball Club in recognition of their active loyalty for so many years.

A very interesting and beautiful cake decorated by Gary Larsen encompassed the silver, golden and platinum wedding anniversary theme.

Ian Grant played a clarinet solo, accompanied by Iona Elder.

The Tribute to the couple was effectively presented by Fern Jensen.

Elmer Jensen spoke on behalf of the church. Everyone sang Happy Birthday to Grandpa Collins on the occasion of his 93rd birthday.

Friends came from the greatest distance to honour this remarkable couple. The Community Hall was a veritable sea of flowers.

Many well wishers, former neighbours and children, grandchildren and great grandchildren from many locations. A rare and memorable celebration was enjoyed by the honored couple and the entire community.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday afternoon, July 13th, Mr. and Mrs. William Ridsdon were honored on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Many of their children, grandchildren and a great grandchild, and a host of friends filled the hall of the United Church.

Mr. Loy Wheeler, a friend of many years, was M.C. He spoke highly of the tradition of Machine Shop service established by Mr. Ridsdon and of the countless hours freely given to help or promote worthwhile projects in the town and community.

Mrs. Soren Sorensen presented a gift from the U.C.W. with kind remarks and their best wishes. Mrs. Mary Mercer, accompanied by Iola Robinson, delighted the many present with several solos, including one she composed especially for the occasion. Rev. Shortt expressed the kindly feeling of loyalty of those present and gave thanks for the beautiful lunch provided. Geoffrey Ilay, a grandson, gave several selections on his Clarinet and Mrs. Jack Groves read a poem she had written for the occasion.

Harold Scheer presented a basket of flowers to Mrs. Ridsdon from the Choir and a purse of money from their many friends. Norman Scheer proposed a toast to the honored couple and complimented them on their large family and the way they had turned out to be good citizens in their various communities.

There were many cards, telegrams and phone calls. Among these were greetings from Premier Strom, Lt. Gov. Grant McEwan, Hon. Gordon Taylor and from daughter Evelyn who sent a Cablegram from Korea where she is nursing.

Following the program, an hour was spent talking with old friends and reliving happy memories of past years.

SPECIAL MEETING

The County will hold a special meeting on July 16th to determine the course of the County's School System, following the ruling by the Alberta District Court.

The plebiscite held on May 7th was contested by Mrs. James Miller of Rockford on the grounds that persons ineligible to vote had cast ballots.

Mr. Justice E.R. Taverud ruled the plebiscite void as a result of the ineligible voters.

Mr. Justice Taverud's comments on the ill famed "Strathmore Land Boom" where slices of land on a single lot were purchased for $1.00. He said "I am very suspicious about the bonafides of such transactions, but there is no evidence upon which I can find the purported sale was a sham."

The County School Board has already commenced land leveling for the purpose of siting temporary classrooms in Strathmore. These classrooms will be rented at approximately $25,000 for the first year which excludes transport and installation. The second year rental will be $23,000 and the third year, which is as far as the contract goes, will cost $21,000. These costs will be carried without Provincial Government assistance and will be directly from Municipal coffers.

DECIDE ON PLEBISCITE FOR NEW SCHOOL AT MEETING ON FRIDAY

A meeting of the Wheatland Division School Board will be held on Friday when, among other things, the question of whether or not to hold a plebiscite on the borrowing of $300,000 will be taken up. The money would be borrowed to build new schools at Strathmore and Beliseker, and would be repayable over a period of twenty years.

The matter was advertised about a month ago, and ratemakers in the Wheatland area were informed that a poll could be demanded by signatures from at least five ratemakers in the division. In the case of Wheatland, this meant that five signatures would be required from each of at least eighteen school districts, making a total of ninety signatures.

Since the advertisements appeared, demands for a poll have been received from sixty of the school districts out of ninety, and these carry about six hundred signatures. In addition a letter was received from the Municipality of Serviceberry strongly urging that the Division save the expense of a poll. This was supported by a similar verbal expression from another municipality.

The objection of the municipalities was based on the feeling that the money necessary for a poll, approximately five to six hundred dollars, would be wasted. In view of the so prevalent objection to the expense.

Most of the objection was received, it is reported from areas not centering on either Beliseker or Strathmore, where the two new units would be built. The district extends from the Bow River to within four miles of Three Hills, and within six miles of the Edmonton Highway, in places, to an irregular line a few miles east of Strathmore. Municipal districts affected are Knoehill, Mountain View, Bow Valley, Serviceberry, and Corrich, besides, of course, a number of towns and villages.

It would take approximately fifteen days to organize a poll, it is estimated, if it were decided to do so. This would include the posting of notices, and leave a week's clear time.

CHILDREN'S DENTISTRY

As yet nothing has been found to completely stop tooth decay. However, there are certain measures which will reduce it and measures which will eliminate a great deal of the inconvenience of dental decay — that is, pain and toothache.

Preventive Measures:

1. Fluoridation of the communal water supply, where necessary.
2. A topical application of fluoride to the teeth. This is a very painless operation but time consuming where a large group of children is concerned.
3. Proper diet with elimination of acid-forming foods such as sweets.
4. Proper tooth brushing methods, especially brushing after eating.

To Minimize the effects of Dental Decay:

1. A regular dental examination of the mouth and teeth beginning at least by age 4.
2. Early repair by a dentist of any defect or irregularity found during the examination. These small restorations are relatively painless and can ensure that the child will not have to suffer from toothache.

There is at present a great deal of Research being done on this problem, but since dental decay is not fatal, we are relatively low on the to-do list when Research funds are distributed. So far, no cure is available but the above measures, when used, can be helpful in reducing and minimizing the effects of dental decay.

BLOAT COULD STILL BE A PROBLEM

Livestock producers moving cattle from a dry pasture to one containing lush legume growth should be on the alert for bloat.

Although the incidence of this condition usually reaches its peak at the beginning of the grazing season, there has been very little lush growth so far this year to cause it. However, a good general rain could still precipitate conditions in legume pastures that are conducive to bloat.

A.J. Hughes, dairy cattle improvement specialist with the Alberta Dairy Branch, recommends the following herd and pasture management practices.

Above all watch cattle very closely when they are first put onto a lush pasture containing a high percentage of legume and remove any that show symptoms of bloat. Pay particular attention to animals that are known to be susceptible to this condition.

Be sure that the cattle are not hungry when they are turned out. Give them a good feed of hay or silage and put them out on a dry afternoon for short time only. Gradually lengthen the grazing period on the second and third day.

When possible keep the cattle on the pasture day and night. Inherent grazing is dangerous because if the animals get hungry while off the pasture they will revert to eat whatever is available. Have a rack of hay or straw accessible, or mow a few swaths across the pasture and let the forage cure on the ground. Use a rotating effect of coarse dry forage induces increased belching and normal rumen activity. If the cattle are taken off the pasture at night they should be given a liberal supply of good hay.

Make sure the stock have an adequate supply of salt, minerals and water. If they are deprived of salt they will eat too much when they do get it and then drink a large quantity of water which will increase the chances of bloat occurring. Pasture rotation is probably the most effective way of preventing bloat. Under this system the area available for grazing is limited which means that the stock must eat the entire plant. Consumption of this coarse material is a deterrent to bloat.

Dry feedling will almost completely eliminate bloat. However, because the forage must be made into hay or silage before being fed, this method entails a considerable amount of work. Regarding specific bloat preventative methods, there is a product called Fozolene which has been found to reduce the bloat problem. It was first tested at Kansas State University. By dispersing the foam in the rumen or by preventing it from forming, Fozolene prevented bloat. Fozolene occurring on pastures and when freshly cut legume hay has been fed to cattle on several experimental stations.

Further information on feedlot and pasture bloat, its causes, control and treatment is contained in the publication "Bloat", available from District Agriculturalists and the publications office of the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

OUTDOOR COOKING

In the holiday season many families now are taking to the open road and camping out. This of course means outdoor meals. In order for the holidays to be a break for Mother also, cooking out must be well planned and simplified.

Be sure and choose the right kind of menus, simple but hearty fare. Appetites always appear larger when eating outdoors. Your menu could include one or more dishes to be grilled, fried, stewed, barbecued or skewered on long green sticks and broiled over the coals. Pot dishes are quick and easy, everyone likes to use their imagination and prepare their own.

Now's the time to stock up on the cans (soups, meats, vegetables, fruits), the instant (tea, milk powder, rice, potatoes, puddings), and the mixes (pancakes, biscuits). Don't forget fruit juice crystals, powdered soups, seasonings, herbs and flavorings.

Bacon in slab form, natural cheddar cheese, citrus fruits and root vegetables keep well with limited refrigeration. Dried fruits such as raisins, dates and prunes are good sources of quick energy. Fruit cake, pound cake and many cookie types keep well in can time.

If you like to be well organized plan a weekly menu in advance, then place the canned and packaged goods for each day in separate paper bags. This saves rummaging through several packages before starting a meal.

For equipment search for non-breakable plastics and disposable and remember the pot holders. A string mesh bag is real handy for washing vegetables, dunking soiled dishes and cutlery for rinsing or for cooling bottled pop in the lake.

Do be careful and be sure the campfire is out before leaving. Have a happy holiday.

An excellent publication on Family Camping is available from Queen's Printer, Ottawa for 75¢.

There will be a Gynkah at the Lyalta Hall, 316 at Cluny in July 20 at 2 o'clock. 218

There will be a shower for Linda Lee Andersen at the Carleton School, Wed. evening, July 23 at 8:00 p.m. Everyone welcome. 228

The Lyalta Community Club are holding a fried chicken and strawberry shortcake supper on the lawn of the Lyalta residence on Wed. July 23 at 6:00 p.m. in the event of inclement weather, the supper will be held at the Lyalta Community Club. 238

A reception and dance were held at the Coachman Inn, Miss Sylvia Kowal of Edmonton was in charge of the guest book and Mr. Michael Smillie of Calgary acted as master of ceremonies. The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. Erwyn Blais, Edmonton, uncle of the bride. 248

For travelling, the bride chose a gold, green and white plaid suit, with white accessories and an orchid corsage. After a honeymoon in Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are residing in Edmonton where Grant is enrolled in the faculty of law. U. of A. and Sheila will be teaching with the Edmonton Public School Board. 258

WINE THE CORINNE MORTENSEN

The theme of the shower for Corinne Mortensen was "Somewhere Over The Rainbow". The shower for this popular local girl was held at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church on June 25th with Pat Rasmussen acting as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Several songs were sung, relating to the rainbow theme. A contest to find who was the closest to Corinne in many ways was won by her aunt Mrs. Joe Merkley. Mrs. Edward Vogstad marked Corinne's report card in which Corinne scored honors standing in such things as sense of humor, kindness to animals, cooking and housekeeping.

The Toast to the Bride was given by her friend Vicki Tytko and Corinne was presented with a very beautifully decorated parcel which resided at the foot of the rainbow.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL — THE BEST YET

An enrolment of more than 115 enthusiastic children contributed towards one of the best Vacation Bible School weeks ever held at Strathmore Alliance Church. In addition to this 18 officers, teachers and assistants shared the leadership needs with equal enthusiasm. Cramped into 3 hours each morning were the March-in, talismans, Bible lessons, music periods, Bible drills, recess, work book periods and handicrafts. In addition to this was keen competition amongst individuals and classes. A special attraction on the church lot were two grain bins lent by Strathmore Co-op. Their kindness helped accommodate two extra classes. Tim Geertz won the over-all individual prize for bringing the most visitors. The Junior and Intermediate classes tied in class competition. Special recognition is given to the V.B.S. committee, Mrs. D. Polson, Miss Dorothy Pawkes and Mrs. G. Buckle. The success of this week was due to their foresight in planning. The five days were wonderful and well spent. Each one, teacher and pupil alike had happy and thoughtful times they will not soon forget.

Hon. Stan Schumaker presents Mrs. Ben Reimche with the Rockyford Fair Handicrafts Trophy. Mrs. Reimche has won the Trophy for three consecutive years.

WALT JACKSON'S BARN DECAPITATED

ART FRAY'S BARN WRECKED

The winds of last Friday, July 25th caused irreparable havoc in the district, blowing over power poles and leveling barns over.
Calgary Power had emergency crews out from Calgary to assist Bill Hallett in the Langdon area, where many power poles were down.
Walt Jackson's barn lost its roof and is probably damaged beyond repair.
Art Fray had severe damage to his barn. The wind from the North collapsed the entire structure and also lifted a large grain bin, carried it up in the air, bounced it upside down on the hood of the truck and then blew the bin some thirty yards before dumping it, still upside down, by Art's pig barn.
Hail on many farms caused 100% damage and trees were snapped in half at the Kerr Farm.

How?

How did those six Sours get on our beer label? (Six) Count 'em. Six.) To say nothing of three crows. And a Humbug. And twenty-nine trees. And our House of Leithridge. How? Frankly, we don't remember. It all happened many moons ago. But one thing's certain: we'll never change our label. Or the great beer behind it. In Leithridge, we go right on brewing it the slow, natural way, for real flavour. We have spoken.

HAPPIEST DRIVERS? THE MIDS

One age brings enough problems without society adding more for no good reason.

It has long been assumed by many traffic safety officials and insurance companies as well as most laymen that advanced years brought decreased ability to drive a car. The older driver was a hazard, who seemed to be re-examined after he passed a certain age and perhaps be restricted. A massive study has demolished this myth entirely.

Sponsored by the University of Denver and the Administration on Aging of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the study was based on records of drivers in 30 states and the District of Columbia. This was not a sampling but a study of the TOTAL driver population in the 31 jurisdictions for which data was available.

It was found that:
- 7.4 per cent of all drivers in the states surveyed, they were involved in only 4.8 per cent of accidents.

- Senior drivers averaged 37 per cent fewer accidents than would exist if their proportion of accidents were in exact ratio to their proportion of the driving population.

- Senior drivers averaged lowest of all age groups in frequency of injury-causing accidents.

- 40 per cent below their proportionate share of the driving population.

- In only one category - fatality-causing accidents - was the senior driver's average just slightly lower than their proportionate total of the driving population. This is explained by the fact that older persons are less able to recover from injuries than younger ones.

But their fatal accident record was still 7 per cent less than could be statistically expected.

- In state after state, senior drivers had the lowest accident involvement record of all age groups, and the larger their share of the population, the better their record seemed to be. In Minnesota, for example, where senior drivers represented 12.2 per cent of the driving public (highest of any state surveyed), they are on

Dear Editor:

I wonder if any organization in your community is looking for an interesting speaker for its fall program? Maybe, we at the Canadian International Development Agency can help.

Because of an intensified interest in CIDA last year organized a Speakers Bureau of experts who had returned from lending their knowledge and training to developing countries all over the world.

A new group of experts are on their way home this year willing to talk about their activities in such countries as Pakistan. Some are teachers, are technical advisers - accountants, foresters, air traffic controllers; and others in a variety of professions. They will address church groups and community development. Our problem is therefore, to bring this service to the attention of club and church secretaries.

We would be pleased to put organizations in touch with speakers. Write to me, the Director of Information, Canadian International Development Agency, 75 Albert Street, Ottawa 4, Ontario, for a list of speakers in each province.

Yours sincerely,

Norman Riddough, Director,
Information Division.

record with the best accident - avoidance performance of any age group.

The senior driver is almost error-free with respect to some of the most disastrous driving errors," says Judge Sherman G. Pinesilver, who headed the study.

"Speeding, drunk driving and 'tailgating' are accident-producing causes, or errors, of which senior drivers are almost free of guilt. The AOA Commissioner William Bechill calls the study as "a breakthrough which hopefully... will lead to a cessation of arbitrary practices and attitudes directed to older drivers and ultimately create fairer, more enlightened practices in licensing and insuring of older drivers".

A number of ladies and youngsters are taking advantage of the swimming lessons which are given at the Strathmore Lions Pool. This is a wonderful opportunity for the swimmers. The instruction is excellent, the pool well looked after.

Friday afternoon this area was hit by a severe hail, rain, and wind storm. Damage was heavy, with airplanes, plums, windows, screens, buildings being upended. The trees, gardens and fields have been stripped. Harvest has come early to many this year. A large number have 100% damage to their crops. This storm proved very costly to all.

It was good to hear that Mrs. Wilson has been released from hospital and is feeling much better. She is staying with her daughter, Mary Lou, at present.

The Glen Brand family have moved to the Brand farm on the highway. We wish them well in their new home.

OUR CANADIAN LANDS CAN WE EAT FOR LESS?

Let great Canadian Lands of ours

Let us learn the right way to use them on which to carry our NATIONAL Load.

Let's fly the "fibre" with proper pride And chart our course in one swift stride.

Oh God, give guidance, as our great Ship Sails! Great literature and science strong.

Affect the hermit and the throng! The crafts, the culture, and the song All branches of learning, to us belong.

Shall we stand second in education? Who says, we aren't a stalwart Nation?

The sweep of prairie, hill and mountain Portray their stature in the fountains Which thrill the thirst of youth and age.

As they muse the mellowed printed page Of art and ancient history.

These current issues - some pose a mess - Can still inspire, burn and bless.

Let's light the fire and "stir" the pot! This day, this year, and now - A note!

What, when wordy legislations Corrupt the morals of the Nation? Act fast and tell it to God, Who hears,

Who says, "My peace" will calm your fears, "I will wipe away your tears" and quiet all alarm.

Oh Canada, cast forth yourself into My Waiting Arms!

Can You Get Vitamin D Enriched Milk in your area?

It's not, Miss Berg suggests that you ask for it at your local dairy. By using Vitamin D enriched milk, you avoid having to supplement this vitamin in the form of pills or cod liver oil. Vitamin D must be present in the diet for the body to make full use of the calcium in milk. What is the best source of Vitamin D? Vitaminized apple juice, says Miss Berg, is probably the cheapest source, in this form the daily requirement costs about 3 cents per day. Known as the anti-ink vitamin, vitamin C is necessary to keep skin, teeth, gums and blood vessels healthy.

Miss Berg is a graduate of the School of Household Economics at the University of Alberta and completed her dietetic training at the Toronto Western Hospital. In her private position, she is responsible for planning extension food and nutrition programs. She also keeps consumers informed on new trends in the food industry.

Did you know that some foods clean the teeth?

Food can be helpful in cleaning the teeth if it is a firm or fibrous type, such as firm, raw fruits and vegetables. The friction has a cleansing effect and the act of chewing a firm food stimulates the flow of a watery type of saliva which, in itself, is a cleansing and acid-neutralizing material.

After a meal ended with a sweet, sticky dessert, the teeth are not left clean. Immediate cleansing is wise on all such occasions. This will deprive the bacteria of the sweet materials for their acid-forming activities.

One to two weeks delivery!

In the Clothing and Textiles line we have publications dealing with the "New Fabrics and Finishes", "Methods for Sewing Buttonholes", "Basting Dress Zippers" and "Sewing Modest Fabrics".

In the Home Planning Section many of the publications are for loan only. Included in this group are First Home Planning, Planning for Alberta Living, Live with Colour and Improving Home Storage.

The Home Management Section is quite extensive with information on Wills and Estates, Laws of Interest to Women of Alberta and Spot and Stain Removal to name just a few.

There are many excellent publications in our bulletin cupboards. NOW HEAR THIS!

CBC radio's hugely successful comedy show, described as "a kind of updated Spring Thaw, out of the Goo Show by Laugh-In, with overtones of Playboy" makes a brief return this week on CBC Showcase on August 3. The Best of Funny You Should Say That will include sketches with Les Angeles (the English-speaking comedy troupe) and a hilarious comedy sketch about bickering point up some of the absurdities of our bilingual country; Dave Broadfoot and Mac Ferguson will be the hosts.

The material will be available soon on these CBC recordings. FY3ST comes back this fall, all set to tickle the national funnybones for another season.

Phillip Forsyth, who's been host of the roller-skating program As It Happens, is leaving the medium to go over to television. He'll be producer-director on the new Sunday night public affairs series, Executive producer Val. Chev is currently auditioning for a replacement.

Meanwhile, he's stepping into Forsyth's shoes himself and will be talking via phone, to people in and behind the scene until a new host is found.

What would you do if you were told you had three months to live? A Canadian housewife faced that prospect when told she had cancer. That was a year ago and she's still alive. She talks with remarkable frankness on the Soundings series, August 6.

Twenty-four years ago, on August 6, the first atomic bomb ever used in war was dropped on the city of Hiroshima. With a population of 343,969, over 80,000 suffered deaths from the blast and exposure to radiation. On that date, Ideas Network presents Robert Jay Lifton, professor of psychiatry at Yale and author of the book, Children of Hiroshima, talking about the effect of Hiroshima on many people - on those present at the time and those not yet born. It's one of a series of talks by Lifton, soon to be published by the CBC.

Frederick it will be another program appropriate to Hiroshima Day, on the series Conscience, Called Warzone, it's a study of society's mood during the time of the two world wars, the Japanese conflicts, comparing the mood of the people at the time of two world wars and the Korean War, as reflected in politics, advertising and popular music.

Earlier on August 6, Alex Trebek and Bruce Marsh, the two stars of Summer After Noon, chat with singer Wally Koster, currently on tour for the filming of the new CBC-TV series, Adventures in Rainbow Country in which he makes his debut as a singer/actor. Last summer, Koster was host of the radio series, Holiday. It seems there's no end to the man's talents.

FARMING HAZARDS

In the last few years the farming business has been subjected to hazards of excess water, high winds, hail, drought, frost, insects, rodents and diseases. This indicates that one must practice all preventive and protective measures possible at all times.

Today I wish to deal with the first two hazards - Wind & Water. We know that they do by the familiar term - Erosion. It's not the normal amount of wind or rain that causes problems - it's the excess.

Farmers catch cultural practices that will minimize wind and water erosion. But over the years we tend to forget and neglect the proper measures - trash farming, strip farming, contour farming, grassed waterways, underseeded with grass, grass crops, rotations etc.

Yes, most of our troubles in farming and life come from excesses and neglect. We all need to be reminded periodically to get back on the narrow road to better farming and better living. Enough said.

Hill activity dropped off sharply last week, with significant storms on only two days. On Thursday, July 24, most of the activity was north of the Hill Studies Project area, with unusually severe storms in the Peace River country. A short lived storm also gave hail up to grape size in the Calgary area.

A very early cold wave swept east across central Alberta on Friday, July 25, accompanied by widespread rain showers. The most severe storm hit Calgary with record breaking wind gusts, and hail which was heaviest just east of the city where two farmers reported stones up to golfball size. Many people in the Calgary area were good enough to collect hail samples from the various laboratories next fall. Their size, shape, and structure will be related to the radar and other data obtained on the storms.

Now of the storms last week occurred in the area north and west of Foothill set aside for experiments. However, the aircraft were able to get useful measurements on two days. On both occasions, storms which had formed over the foothills died out as they moved east over the flatter farm lands. Studying the various ways that storms develop naturally may give some clues on how to artificially achieve the same result.

Two research teams with aircraft from the United States are working with the Alberta Hill Studies Project until the end of July. The University of Wyoming Twin Beech aircraft is here for a second summer. This aircraft is used to map the draft areas of the storm, i.e. size, strength, and position of this updraft area relative to the storm are all important factors in determining whether a storm will produce hail or not. Estimates are made of the amount of air and water vapor flowing into the storm, together with the number of ice nuclei. This aircraft can also fly through smaller cumulus clouds, before they have reached the full blown storm stage. Measurements are then taken by the number of hail drops and ice crystals in the cloud at different heights, and samples are collected for later laboratory study.

The other aircraft is a B-26 from the Desert Research Institute in Reno, Nevada. It has the capability of flying at higher altitudes and into the more turbulent air in the cloud. Its on-board weather radar enables the pilot to fly near the interesting parts of the storm. This aircraft is equipped with a turbulence measuring instrument and an ice nucleus counter, enabling quantitative measurements to be made of the diffusion of the cloud seeding process. The seeding is done with pyrotechnic flares mounted on racks underneath the wings.

Both of these aircraft complement the Hill Studies weather radar and other observing facilities. Piecing together all of these observations is making a very substantial contribution to an understanding of Alberta hailstorms.

They claim they can get a lovely meal there for about .50¢ in our money - perhaps we should all move to Spain to beat the high cost of living.

There has been an average of 7 inches of rain in this district during the past month and crops are looking excellent. Everyone is certainly hoping that we don't have any of that hard precipitation that we had last year.

Thought for the day: "Some of us gobroke buying the things salesmen say will save us money."

AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE MINUTES

Minutes of the Meeting of the Agricultural Committee, held at the County Office Strathmore, Alberta, on June 22nd, 1969, at 2:00 P.M., with the following present: Chairman - M. Gregory, Vice-Chairman - J. Dendler, E. B. Bolinger, District Agric. - A. Edwards, Fieldman - D. Thomas, Advisory Com. - G.W. Tausen, P. Kahl, Secretary - W. Frederick, Albert - T. Schultz.

MINUTES: Moved, "that the minutes of the April 1st, 1969 meeting be adopted as read."

REPORT OF A.S.B. OPERATIONS: The following report was given by Fieldman D. Thomas:

1. Cattle Spraying - One thousand and seventy head of cattle were sprayed for the control of lice. Very few warbles were found on these cattle. Fourteen head were sprayed on April 22nd.

2. Tree hauling and planting - One County truck and driver and myself went to Oliver to pick up trees again for planting within the County. This system of hauling trees is working out very well as trees arrive here in good condition.

3. Change-over to a power-driven power-driven worked very well and was much faster especially on short rows.

4. Coyotes and Magpie Bait - Eight Strychnine baits have been issued since the first of the year for control of magpies. All 1080 baits have been picked up and taken to one central location and buried. Approximately 70 dead coyotes were found and reported to me. Estimated 100 killed.

5. Tree Spraying - Nine groves of trees, mostly evergreens, have been sprayed for aphids and saw fly.

6. Grass Seedling - Three days were spent seeding grass. The new road built from the office south to the feed mill and past the new stock house until the Town of Strathmore. The straightened section of road at Ardmore has also been seeded.

7. Demonstration Plots - No plots have been placed out to the present time. Arrangements have been made for a plane spraying on June 24th. This chemical is recommended for hard to kill plants such as Rose Bush. Other plots I want to place out are a Hoary Cress and Lady's Thyme using Torlon 22K.

8. Parks - Eight days were spent in parks, cleaning weeds from the grass out of the trees; all cleaning weeds were pruned. Some replacements are needed but time and weather did not permit.

9. "That we accept the report of Fieldman D. Thomas as read." Carried

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

BARLOW - YULE

Strathmore United Church was the scene of a lovely wedding, June 21st, when Miss Joan Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow was married to Mr. Allan Yule, son of Mr. George Yule and the late Mrs. Marion Yule. Rev. Short officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Noel Barlow, uncle of the bride sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You".

Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride was beautiful in a floor length gown of French satin, featuring a stand up collar of heavy lace with drop pearls. Her train was detachable at the shoulders and also featured lace inserts with drop pearls. Her veil was a Spanish lace Mantilla. The bride carried a bouquet of apricot roses.

She was attended by her sister, Maid of Honor, Dianne Barlow, Bridesmaids, Mrs. Sherry McMurray, sister of the groom and Miss Lorraine Downey. They all wore floor-length gowns of pale elegance in deep apricot and carried nosegays of white roses intertwined with apricot ribbon. Flower girl, Miss Diana Yule, cousin of the groom, looked lovely in a floor-length dress to match the bridesmaids. Mr. Kevin Yule, cousin of the groom was the ring bearer.

Best Man was Romyne Gregory and ushers were Allan Barlow, brother of the bride and Bruce McMurray, brother-in-law of the groom.

John Farris, uncle of the bride was the very able Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Rob Jackson, uncle of the bride proposed the toast to the bride, Romyne Gregory proposed the toast to the bridesmaids. A dance followed the reception. For going away, the bride chose a blue suit with matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

Following a honeymoon in Europe, the happy couple will reside on Allan's farm at Standard.

WONDERFUL WHOOPER-UPPER DAY

Strathmore's Whooper Up Day was a tremendous success and the clubs and organizations should feel justifiably proud.

The Chuckwagon Breakfast sponsored by local businesses and operated by the 'Legion' fed well over fifteen hundred with a traditional breakfast, the men from Rockyford deserve a sincere bouquet. They worked hard from 6 AM until noon, keeping breakfast and good humour flowing. The Wheatland Oldtimers also kept the crowd in a "Western Mood".

The Parade was rated by C.J.D.V. as the best of its kind in the Big Country. The entries exceeded 130 and the imagination and skill shown in the construction of the majority of floats were of a very high standard. The spectators were able to watch a wonderful Parade which took just over an hour to complete the route. Those who had the pleasure of seeing the effort made by the community and district could not help but be impressed with the atmosphere which prevailed throughout the day. At the risk of offending others, we must mention Gleichen F.U.A. float. Many floats are assembled and travel around quite a few fairs, but when Gleichen F.U.A. were at Rockyford the roses were red and white, and somebody had made thousands of rosettes for both occasions!

The Rodeo had over 2,500 spectators and they had the pleasure of seeing first class competitors.

The advantages of small town rodeo's far outweigh the city efforts, at a rodeo such as Strathmore's, you are part of the rodeo, hearing the bronc's grunt, the bulls snort, and the expressions of pride, pain, and annoyance can be seen on the face of the cowboys.

Frankie Coxak supplied the Rodeo Stock, and the quality of the bronc's and bulls was excellent. In fact only six out of sixteen cowboys made qualifying times in Bull Riding and nine out of 24 in the Bare Back Riding.

The day was topped off with a barbecue cooked by that famous Gleichen Chef 'Smilin' Ed Barlow, two dances at night and everybody agreed that a good time was had by all.

LOCAL AUTHOR

There are three local persons who have published books of either historic or of a topical nature, closely associated with our communities.

Edythe Groves of Ardenode combines a busy farm and raising a family with writing poems, her latest book "Funny Bones" is selling very well, it is a humorous book of whimsical poems.

John Martin of Rosebud wrote the "Rosebud Trail" as his first book and copies can not now be obtained having had a complete sell out, his second set of anecdotes and tales combined with folklore is entitled the Prairie Hub and that is also nearly sold out.

John Mackenzie of Rotesay Scotland consigned to the "Standard" a large number of his "Country Editor" and we have only 44 books left.

These small books will have a story to tell your children's children and help preserve our heritage.

RESOLUTION NO. 43
Village of Rockyford

RE: Exemption of Farm Homes from Assessment and Taxation

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association urge the Government of the Province of Alberta to continue this committee with a view of giving special attention to the removal from the Municipal Taxation Act the clause allowing farm homes to be exempt from assessment and taxation.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

The Legislative Assembly has established a Committee to study and bring in recommendations to the next Session on matters related to the assessment and taxation of real property and presumably the question of the exemption of farm improvements from assessment and taxation will be one of the subjects dealt with by the Committee. Representation from your Association is provided for in the composition of the Committee. Whether or not the Assessment and Taxation Procedures Study Committee should be continued, no doubt will be determined after the submission of the report of the Legislative Committee. In any event, your Association will be consulted.

RESOLUTION NO. 62
Village of Standard

RE: Daylight Savings Time

Let It Therefore Be It Resolved that the Government of the Province of Alberta be requested to institute Daylight Savings Time during the recognized period in 1969 in order to give the citizens a realistic appraisal of the problems.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

Under the provisions of The Daylight Saving Time Act, daylight saving can only be initiated by proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, after the holding of a general plebiscite of the electors of the Province, which plebiscite must be held in a majority vote of the electors voting in favour of the use and observance of daylight saving time. Such a plebiscite was held and did not result in a majority vote favourable to daylight saving time, so that it cannot, even on a trial basis now be implemented. Moreover the Government would not be prepared to host the wishes of the people as expressed in the plebiscite. We are, however, prepared to consider submitting another plebiscite at the time of the next general election.

RESOLUTION NO. 63
Village of Standard

RE: C.M.H.C. Regulations to Construction in Towns and Villages

Now Therefore Let It Be Resolved that the Federal and Provincial Governments be requested to review the policy as regards C.M.H.C. loans to applicants in the same towns and villages.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

The Province has on numerous occasions brought to the attention of the Federal authorities concerned the failure of loaning institutions to finance the construction of homes outside the larger cities and also that Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation should make more funds available for direct loan purposes to the smaller communities. Our representations have resulted in little improvement, but it is hoped that the proposed amendments to The National Housing Act resulting primarily from the recommendations of the Heilger Task Force on Housing will have a desirable effect. The Province and the Alberta Housing and Urban Renewal Corporation will bend every effort to assist in this regard.

RESOLUTION NO. 64
Village of Standard

RE: Penalties for Traffic Violations

Now Therefore Let It Be Resolved that the Provincial Government be requested to assume a "tougher" attitude in dealing with these individuals, and also to amend the legislation to allow for a suspension of the drivers license for a much greater variety of infractions.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

The Resolution requests a tougher attitude in dealing with individuals who are involved in traffic violations. I may say that this matter was discussed by the Legislative Committee that will be reporting to the Legislature at the present Session and the general attitude is to tighten our legislation in regard to this matter. I should point out, however, that much of the legislation already is much tougher than that which is being used as the Courts are not using the present provisions in the legislation to anything like their fullest extent.

RESOLUTION NO. 65
Village of Standard

RE: Equalized Assessment

Now Therefore Let It Be Resolved that legislation as applies to municipal taxation be amended to provide for adjustments in the mill rate levy when such inequalities of assessment exist.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

In proposing this resolution the sponsor was apparently not aware that there a differential in assessment exists, caused by one municipality being in a different level than another municipality the Alberta Assessment Equalization Board brings all assessments in the Province for all municipalities to a common level for assessment equalization purposes so that all municipalities contribute equally to the cost of education and hospital services through the School Foundation Programme regulation and the Hospital Co-insurance Programme regulation, respectively.

It is not necessary therefore for a differential in mill rate to apply to provide the desired degree of equity.

It might be also noted that the Special Committee established by the Legislative Assembly at the last Session will, as one of their responsibilities, study and bring in a report on "Assessment equalization practices and procedures for the purpose of regulations upon municipalities for school foundation and hospital relief."

THE HOMEMAKER

by Catherine Young, D.H.E.

FOOD FOR YOUR FREEZER

Blanching - It's home freezing time again, and many homemakers still wonder if it is necessary to blanch produce before freezing. The answer of course is yes.

The University of Minnesota tested the value of blanching by comparing samples of blanched and unblanched asparagus, green beans and sweet corn. All three unblanched vegetables developed off flavours within a week while the blanched ones remained good.

The colour of the uncoloured green beans and asparagus deteriorated, but the colour of the corn remained good regardless of treatment. The food value of the frozen vegetables is maintained if they are first blanched. Tests show that vitamin C content of all blanched vegetables is higher than the vitamin C of ones which aren't.

Alkaline Water Areas

If the water in which vegetables are blanched is highly alkaline, the product may develop an off-flavour or become soft. To remedy add a slice of tart apple or a few drops of vinegar to the boiling water.

Fast Free Not For Freezers

The use of felt pens for labelling food packages for the freezer is not recommended. Many of these pens contain kerosene or gasoline based ink that tends to penetrate the wrap and develop off flavours if the food is stored any length of time. Instead use freezer tape labels and mark the date and contents with a wax crayon or ordinary pencil.

Freeze by Freezing - is an excellent publication on freezing available from this office.

CATTLE SHIPMENT

The Canadian Cattlemen's Association is taking a look at the movement of western cattle to eastern markets to make sure the cattle arrive in the best possible condition.

During most of the year, says Ron Beattie of Stayner, Ont., President of the national producers' body, "there is no problem because the numbers moving can be handled easily and quickly at feed and water points".

"The problem, if there is one," Mr. Beattie added, "if from about October 1st to December 15th when the volume of cattle moving starts to begin to tax the accommodation and facilities of the stock yards and the railways".

The Association notes that about 45% of the annual movement of cattle and calves from the west to eastern Canada takes place between those dates. In 1968 this added up to about 276,000 head which is close to 4,000 per day.

No one suggests that the railways and stock yards are not doing a job. "With the numbers involved," Mr. Beattie said, "it is rather remarkable what a good job they do".

The problem arises from the requirement that cattle in transit must have feed, water, and rest at intervals not longer than 24 hours. To give this service at a point like Winnipeg (through which western cattle must pass) requires many stock yards pens for these "through-billed" cattle in addition to accommodation for cattle to be sold on those yards, if space is not available to off-load for feed and water it would be better for the cattle to keep on moving.

Inco-operation with the railways and stock yards CCA is studying possible means of expediting the movement of these through-billed cattle.

STRATHMORE LIONS FASTBALL CLUB WINS TROPHY DONATED BY WHEATLAND PROPANE

A good season of fastball was enjoyed by the Strathmore Lions Club with the combined efforts of six local fellows who turned out to make a team. Again this year they found themselves at the bottom of the league which consisted of Carleton Place, Cheshire, Keoma and Strathmore.

On July 27, these teams competed in a tournament held at Cheshire. The first game Carleton Place defeated Keoma. Then Strathmore came up against Cheshire with a win of 20 to 15. The last game of the day brought Carleton Place and Strathmore into an exciting ball game with Carleton leading until the end of the 6th inning when Strathmore batted in 5 runs. Final score was Strathmore 7 - Carleton 5.

On August 7 at a regular Lions meeting in Strathmore a very fine trophy was presented to the ball team by Ralph Mitchell of Wheatland Propane.

GARBAGE CONVERTED

A unique Japanese garbage disposal system which produces near-solid, asphalt-encased, two-ton cubes for sanitary landfill and the construction of retaining walls is being introduced into Canada, according to Heavy Construction News.

The system consists of a giant press which compacts non-organic garbage into cubes, wraps them in wire mesh and then transfers them into a tank of liquid asphalt. After water cooling, the asphalt casing hardens into an almost unbreakable and leak-proof covering.

A single press produces one cube every seven minutes and can process about 100 tons of garbage in an eight-hour shift.

EDITORIAL

The Paving Project has only to be approved by the Municipalities Board, and the town will have a much needed face-lift.

Then we will be faced with a true problem of sewer, for although our streets are filthy now, the fish don't have a venous of dust to make it blend with the existing gutter.

The hard top will allow inconsiderate chewing gum wrapper and cigarette and in stark relief, it is to be hoped that our business men will see fit not to sweep the sidewalk as most now do but also take over the gutter and street, council must provide enough water bags and a twice weekly garbage pick up for business premises.

We can all hope that our progressive thinkers and spenders have a policy for keeping all streets in the town clear of refuse.

Canadian Standards Association: Have you ever wondered about the C.S.A. approved label on various manufactured products?

The Canadian Standards Association was incorporated in 1919 as a non-profit, non-governmental association of technical committees to provide a national standard body in Canada. The C.S.A. is one of the most effective consumer protection agencies in existence.

The C.S.A. has a testing laboratory in a Toronto suburb. In one spot in the lab, a new stove top to be marketed is tested to see if it operates safely. In another area there are several faucets being turned on and off enough times to register a lifetime of normal wear in a home. Most consumers are familiar with the C.S.A. symbol on basic electrical plumbing and fuel burning equipment. C.S.A. approval on also found in Canadian welded products. Automatic seat belts, motor cycle helmets and automobile tires in name just a few.

Once a product has passed the rigid C.S.A. tests it is granted the C.S.A. label. Then there is regular and constant programs of inspection to see that the standard is being maintained at the factory level.

The Canadian Standards Association aims to protect the consumer by developing and publishing uniform national standards of products, processes, codes and procedures.

The wise consumer should always look for the C.S.A. symbol for reasons of safety and standards of quality.

Brooks Horticultural Show on August 22. Registration at 10:00 A.M. Visitors are asked to bring their own lunch. Coffee and cold drinks will be served at the picnic shelter.

THE MYSTERIOUS PLAGUE

by J.K.S. Head

Locusts have always been a symbol of sudden, unexplained, complete disaster. They would appear, "warping on the eastern wind" (Paradise Lost) darkening the whole air and when they settled "they covered the face of the earth -- and did eat every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees -- and there remained not any green thing in the trees or in the herbs of the field." (Exodus 10:15).

Until this century no one knew the mystery of the locusts. They came with the wind and they went with the wind. Sometimes they did not come in swarms for years, yet small numbers were seen, especially in deserts. In Arabia to this day they eat them as a delicacy, as St. John did. Why did they suddenly form these enormous swarms and from where did these numbers come?

Several types of locust are known in Asia, Africa and America, mostly living in the deserts and the nearby grasslands. Usually their numbers are small and there is no sign of the swarming variety. Now and then however the deserts have an unusual rainfall. Immediately seeds that have lain dormant for years, blown here and there by the wind, spring to life and the parched ground bursts with green leaves and brilliant flowers. Larger numbers of the locusts are able to survive and lay more eggs and they multiply rapidly, as long as their food remains. But soon the land dries again and the fertile area shrinks to ever smaller green patches. The locusts become increasingly crowded.

Now occurs the transformation which can be observed among captive locusts when they become over-crowded. They undergo a further stage of metamorphosis; they become darker, their wings grow longer and in fact they turn into the swarming type of insect. They take patch in another part of the country strip it bare, lay their eggs and depart with many thousands of miles and many countries; swarms have even settled on steamers in the middle of the Atlantic. In spite of modern science, and the resources of modern sciences, not much can be done once the plague reaches the swarming stage, an example occurred just after the last war.

JUNE STATISTICS

If everyone had worn their safety belts they at least during June, perhaps ten, or as many as twenty lives might have been saved in Alberta traffic accidents, the Alberta Safety Council believes.

A record 43 deaths in the Province's traffic, three more than the previous record for June set in 1966. However, because of a much better fatality record during the previous five months, this is still about five percent below the toll for the same date last year.

Mr. R. P. Lawrence, General Manager of the Alberta Safety Council, is concerned with the public safety which surrounds safety belts.

"Putting your safety belt on every time you get into your car is the most positive thing you can do to protect yourself from injury or death in a traffic accident. Yet we know that only about 19 percent of those Albertans with safety belts in their cars ever bother to put them on," Mr. Lawrence stated.

He quoted a study of 26,000 accidents by a leading European auto manufacturer which shows that people get killed in car accidents at speeds as low as 12 miles per hour. "This message has not yet reached the public," Mr. Lawrence stated.

During June, there were a total of 4,309 accidents compared with 3,613 last year. There were also 1,019 reported injuries in June compared with 1,012 last year. Accidents continue to run almost as high as last year.

Edmonton had five deaths in June, compared with two in June 1968. Calgary had three deaths reported. Their totals for the month of June, the six months were 13 and 12 compared with 17 and 16 by the same date last year.

QA.V.C. NOTES

Changes in courses offered in the Soils Division at the Olds College open the way for a wide choice of programs for students planning to farm and those who are looking to industry or government service for their careers. These changes have been with advice and assistance from advisory committees made up of people who are actively engaged in the areas of potential employment of graduates.

A year ago Irrigation Technology and Soil Technology were combined into Soil and Water Technology. Graduates of this course will have a wide range of employment. Other new technologies closely related to soils include Land Classification Technology, Land Resources Technology and Soil and Fertilizer Technology.

The basics of these courses will be the same. Consequently students may move from one to another or to other agriculturally oriented technologies as they wish. The length of their program. Adults (18 years of age or over) who are deficient in entrance requirements may take one or more pre-technology sessions for upgrading in English, Mathematics and Science.

GREEN ACRES

By A.E. Edwards, Dist. Agr.

IT COULD GET WORSE— Last week I was privileged to be one of 25 who went on a scheduled tour of the Columbia River Irrigation Basin in the State of Washington. We made over thirty stops looking at cattle feeding operations; irrigation systems, orchard production, mint, asparagus and red clover fields; potato processing plants and general farm management programs etc. If pictures were taken they would tell an interesting story.

Much of what we saw was not directly applicable to our area but many ideas and concepts were of use with some modifications. The soil in the Columbia River Basin tends to be sandy to silty loam. It is all desert land except for the life giving water which originates from the Grand Coulee Dam project. We saw many interesting farm practices, but were impressed most by the attitudes of the people, the availability of credit from the banks and the willingness of the farm operators to plunge and take on tremendous debts.

Operation costs were exceptionally high running in many cases in the $400.00 per acre range. With high fertilizer rates and plenty of water, crop yields were high. But still the margin of profit was only nominal. Crop failure would almost put a man out of operation.

Mechanization is high because of the cost and scarcity of labor. One half the crop of asparagus went to the labor to harvest the crops.

Farmers have sharpened their pencils in the Columbia River Basin and gambled. In most cases the shrewd management they are making good. There is no room left for the sloppy farmer. Farming is changing here in Alberta too and we are going to have to sharpen our pencils right away if we intend to stay in business.

HORTICULTURE FIELD DAY— Just a last minute reminder of the Horticulture Field Day on Friday August 22, starting at 10:00 A.M. Bring your lunch and get some ideas for landscaping, tree plantings etc. around your home.

Mark the 22 on your Calendar now.

Darrell had a lovely cake presented to him and made by Mrs. G. Stewart. It was made in a form of 21 decorated in white and pale green.

DALUM

by I. Nygaard

The hot dry weather has rapidly ripened many grain fields. Some rye has already been combined and barley fields are nearly ready for combining.

A bridal shower, in honor of Miss Beverly Miller of Drumheller, was held on Monday, Aug. 8th at the home of Mrs. Benji Poulsen. Bev. is the bride - elect of Stanley Poulsen. The rumpus room at Clara's home was decorated with cut out silhouettes of carpenter tools and the brides cake was decorated to represent a hammer and saw. The shower gifts were placed in a decorated carpenter's tool box. Readings and games were arranged by Tove Mortensen, Clara Poulsen, and Mrs. Alfred Holmen present. The devotions were conducted by Mrs. Arne Jacobsen and the Danish reading given by Mrs. Ellen Sorbø. There was little business to be discussed so the ladies enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon.

Assisting the bride to open her gifts were her mother, Mrs. Dor Mackie, and her future mother-in-law Mrs. Esther Schultz, as well as the three bridesmaids, Barbara Mackie, Kathy Orsak and Joanne Mackenzie. The gifts were passed and admired and then Bev. thanked the committee members for arranging the shower and everyone for their gifts. She invited everyone to the wedding dance at the Dalum hall on August 16th. Lunch was served to conclude a lovely evening.

At the F.U.A. meeting on Aug. 5th the main item of business was the organization of a Fire Prevention Association for Dalum. Svend Andersen and Axel Oestgaard had approached farmers and businessmen who had expressed interest in an outfit for Dalum and had received enough share capital to warrant the purchase of one tank and pump outfit. It will be stationed at a central location, probably the Joe Christensen residence and will be constructed so it can be loaded quickly to a 1/2 ton truck.

Members of the Friendship Club are reminded that their August 21st meeting will be held at the Dalum Park at 2:30. Bring a bag lunch and come as you are. Visitors are more than welcome.

The September meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Chris Ostergaard in Drumheller.

Following the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. Madsen. Tea price was won by Mrs. Alfred Holmen.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Ada Petersen last week were Mr. and Mrs. Holger Kock of Askov, Minn. U.S.A. Mr. Kock is an accomplished violinist and had brought his instrument with him to Canada. Nearly a year ago, Russian tanks rumbled into Czechoslovakia in an attempt to quell the liberalization of the Dubcek regime. On the eve of the anniversary, August 18, radio will present a special program on CBC Tuesday Night produced by John Reeves. The first part, For the Record, is based on documents dating from the time of the invasion; broadcast transmitted at the time, and subsequent interviews with eye-witnesses. Interview and general commentary is the distinguished opera singer, Jan Rubes who came to Canada from Czechoslovakia some 20 years ago. Part II comprises the reading of a poem by Reeves, Czechoslovakia. Book. It was first broadcast on the CBC-FM network last October and passages were also broadcast short-wave to Czechoslovakia by the CBC International Service in Czech and Slovak translations. The poem is dedicated to the people of Czechoslovakia in general and in particular to Jan Zatepek. Recognized as the greatest long-distance runner in history, Zatepek is a hero to his people because of his Olympic records and also for his patriotic actions during the invasion. Reeves himself holds long-distance running records; he is a writer, composer, singer and playwright as well as a producer.

CBK Saskatchewan, the CBC's pioneer station in the west, celebrated its 20th anniversary July 29. The newest station, CBNA in St. Anthony, Newfoundland, went on the air August 2, and serves approximately 26,000 people on the great Northern Peninsula.

Among the celebrities headlined at the Academy Theatre in Lindsay, Ontario, August 15 for the taping of the Country Holiday show (broadcast August 16) are Faron Young, Gary Buck, Gordie Tapp ("Cousin Clem"), Tommy Hunter, The Rhythm Fiddlers and Fiddler Al Cherry. Taking the spotlight for the first time will be the new Canadian Old Time Fiddle Champion, chosen at the Fiddlers' Contest August 9 in Shelburne, Ontario. It will be a nostalgic evening for Cherry, considered to be one of North America's finest fiddlers; he won the championship in 1960-61, and for some years has been a regular on CBC-TV's The Tommy Hunter Show.

Summer Switchboard comes from Toronto in August (Sunday at 5:30 p.m. EDT). Host is Canadian Magazine writer Sheila Keiran. The topics are Loneliness (August 17); The Working Woman (August 24); and Aging, Death and Grieving (August 31). If you have strong feelings on these subjects, call Toronto collect, 929-7171, and you may get on the air.

FOOLPROOF RADAR PHOTOGRAPHS SPEEDING

Police in Montreal are catching speeders without being bothered by the difficulty of attributing time measurement to the wrong car, according to Canadian Controls & Instrumentation magazine, in an article titled "Photo-time-radar clocks correct car at true speed." According to the article, the photo-time-radar unit ends inaccuracy of measurement due to fluctuations and interference. The unit is said to be read against radar speedometers mounted in civilian cars, and is said to end the question of error in courtrooms by providing evidence against speeders. It follows an automobile's speed photograph at the rear of the speeder's vehicle, showing its license plate, a speedometer registering the speed, a clock showing the exact time, the date, and the surrounding area.

By Mrs. E. B.

The Namaka Friendship Club sponsored a picnic at the Namaka Hall on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Thiesen and family on their departure from the Namaka District. They will move to Linderholm where Victor will be teaching this fall. We are so sorry to see this family leave, but will be looking forward to their return in the summer holidays.

A delicious pot luck supper, arranged by Florence Wheeler, Verna Williams and Bernice Wheeler and helped was enjoyed by everyone.

Jack Fawkes on behalf of the Community presented the family with a purse of money and Dorothy Maustad presented Annette with a cup and saucer from the Friendship Club. Both Verna and Annette replied and assured us they would come back. Everyone joined hands and sang "For they Are Jolly Good Fellows". A hall game ended a most lovely afternoon.

Miss Hazel Scott of Calgary spent the weekend with Mrs. Mary Boeshman and family. They are old time friends from the Shriners Hospital in Winnipeg.

Freda and Jerome Hanson and family were recent guests at the wedding of Freda's niece in Wainwright. They report a most enjoyable time as it was their first time at a Ukrainian Wedding.

Verna and Milton Williams and family and Mr. Joe Garnett motored to Cold Lake last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Garnett.

We are sorry to learn of the drowning of little 7 year old Jeff Schaefer of Hussar in the Red Deer River on August 3rd. Jeff was a nephew of Margaret Hansen. Late Hansen and numerous Hansen relatives and friends have been searching every day to so avail. They have our sympathy.

Irene Hanson has just completed another enjoyable six week season at Summer School, University of Calgary. She commuted to classes each morning.

Irene and Roland Hanson and Kevin spent the weekend in the Okanagan. Mr. Harvey Hanson joined them and they picked up Cheryl in Banff and went on to visit Dale at Cadet Camp at Vernon. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hanson celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last Thursday by having breakfast at the Husky Tower. Lynda and the Boeshmans accompanied them. Visibility from the Tower was almost unlimited that morning.

THE BEAST THAT WALKS LIKE A MAN

By J. Head

In July 1966 the papers reported that Mrs. George Owens of Monroe, Michigan and her daughter, Christine, then aged 17, were attacked in their car by a black, seven-foot, 400 pound "thing" covered with hair.

"He reached through the window and grabbed my hair," said Christine.

About fifteen people said they saw the creature, but over 1,000 citizens who searched the woods found nothing.

Stories like this are reported about once a month from various parts of North America, mostly from the western, forested mountains of B.C., Oregon and California. But similar reports come in from South America, western China, southern and eastern Russia and Tibet. Legends also mention such creatures in Europe and many other parts of the world. Is there any scientific basis for such reports?

One distinguished zoologist thinks there is. Ivan T. Sanderson, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., F.Z.S., whose specialty is the primates and whose studies have taken him extensively into their habitat, has written a thorough examination of the creature of evidence from all over the world in Abominable Snowman (London & New York, 1966) he brings this evidence before the public in simple-to-understand language. And startling evidence it is. Sanderson is one of those who deplore the quite unscientific attitude of some scholars who refuse to examine evidence honestly because it would clash with preconceived ideas. He became interested when the original ABNM was reported from the Himalayas in 1920. Strange, man-like creatures had been seen in the mountains, and tracks, crossing the snow from one patch of forest to another, had been photographed and plaster casts of them had been made. Determined that these could not be human, authorities declared they must be made of a bear or an ape. This aroused Sanderson's indignation. Any competent zoologist knows that the tracks of these creatures are entirely different; if it was like one, it could be like the other.

In this mood, during a tour of North America in search of material for a book on its ecology, Sanderson investigated reported sightings of man-like creatures and was astonished by the wealth of evidence. He learnt also that there were many reports in the Russian scientific press, and indeed from China, Sumatra and all most all remote, forested mountainous areas there was still an intruder. The witnesses were obviously describing the same creature, or rather, as it appeared, four creatures.

Sanderson concluded that at least four species of ABNM exist today, and suggests that they are creatures generally thought to be extinct, but still surviving in places where man has not destroyed their habitat.

(1) In the mountain forests of Canada, U.S., South America and China are reported seven-foot, hairy bipeds with webbed, 18-inch feet. They are timid vegetarians unless cornered; have no tools or language and possibly hibernate in caves; called Sasquatch, Oh-Mah, Gin Sung etc.

(2) In the Caucasus mountains in Russia and along the northern edge of the Tibetan plateau, doctor, engineers and similar witnesses have seen creatures of the general size and appearance of men, but covered with black hair. They seem to have some simple tools and speech. Sanderson thinks they may be headhunters who recreated up the mountains as the end of the Ice Age destroyed their habitat in Europe and Asia.

(3) Dwarfs, covered with red hair have been seen in various parts of Africa and South America. If they are active at dusk and dawn, they are not often seen, but leave tracks with a pointed heel. They seem to be human in shape.

(4) The whole length of the Himalayas in the rhododendron forest near the snowline is the scene of sightings and tracks of the Snowman himself. Footprints in the snow can not prove if the creature is a biped or not, but it has the least human tracks, nearly as broad as they are long with two big toes.

Where does all this lead us? Suppose these reports are true, and Sanderson thinks they are, what are these creatures, men, apes or what? The chief bodily difference between a man and an ape does not lie in a hairy skin or even a pointed heel, but in the lower limbs. An ape looks like a man in the upper part of his body, quadruped. Apes can stand upright and can learn to walk, but are not built to run on two legs. They are often seen (Baboons run on all fours). But these forms have found which ran on the flat of their feet like a man. Perhaps some of these may not be extinct. The Sasquatch could be such a creature.

The snowman could be an ape or even a large monkey. It certainly could not live in the snow where there is no food, any more than a snow leopard does.

The best reported of these ABNMs is the Sasquatch. If these stories are true, they throw an interesting light on the history of ancient man and run counter to theories put forward in such books as The Naked Ape, in which it is claimed that (1) the use of tools came before the change from forest to open ground and made this change possible and (2) man's character and social structure was derived from his life in an aggressive society like that of the baboons. But the Sasquatch which appears to be as fully bipedal as a man, has apparently neither tools, fire nor language, and is not aggressive by nature, preferring to bluster and flee like an ape, rather than attack like a baboon.

One final point. Is it possible for a large animal to remain hidden from science for years, even in a mountainous forest? Remember the giant panda, known to the Chinese for centuries as the white bear. After the first skin was sent to Europe, scientists hunted the region for seventy years without result. Then a woman hunter in the same district shot three. Perhaps we shall equally suddenly come face to face with the beast that walks like a man.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

GIFFEN - MURRAY

A lovely double ring ceremony was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, June 28 by Father John Palara, cousin of the groom, uniting in marriage Olive Louise Murray, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Murray of Glenora and John Wilson Giffen, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Giffen of Strathmore.

"Oh Perfect Love" was sung during the singing of the register by David, Bert and Frank Giffen, cousins of the groom.

The bride who was escorted down the aisle by her father chose a floor-length A-line gown of imported Brussels lace appliqued with white velvet roses and featuring a stand-up collar and lily point sleeves. A full-length train in matching applied lace and white roses cascaded from mid-shoulder. Her six tiered bouffant veil with scalloped seed pearl edges was held in place by a high crown tiara of seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of stephanotis, baby's breath, and miniature carnations, the center of which was a mauve threaded orchid.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Bonnie Holtsbaum, twin sister of the bride, and Mrs. Lee Haakney, identical gowns of orchid chiffon with pleated chiffon bodices. Dark orchid velvet sashes accented the empire waistline and matching mauve headpieces were worn. They carried cascading bouquets of miniature white mums and carnations.

Attending the groom were bestmen, Mr. Gary Giffen, brother of the groom, Donald and Douglas Murray, cousins of the bride, and Ronald Upm.

The mother of the bride wore a matching mauve dress and coat ensemble. White accessories with a white gardenia corsage complemented the outfit. The mother of the groom wore matching coat and dress in pale pink accented with green. She chose a matching pink hat and white accessories with a white gardenia corsage.

At the reception held in St. Mary's Church hall, Mr. Howard Warner made an able master of ceremonies. Father Palara asked the blessings. The toast was given by Mr. Richard Haakney, brother-in-law of the bride. During the reception, Bert, Frank, and David Giffen entertained with music. The bride's dress and matching coat of white cut velvet with navy accessories and a mauve orchid corsage.

Following a motor trip to California, the happy young couple will be making their home at 105 26th Ave. S.W. Calgary.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Edmonton, Toronto, Strathmore, Bassano, Arrowwood, and Calgary.

MITCHELL - KEELING

St. Michael's and All Angels Anglican Church was the scene of a lovely evening wedding June 28th when Miss Janice Keeling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Keeling was married to Mr. Bryan Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mitchell. Rev. Marlor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a radiant in a floor-length gown of white satin featuring a lace bodice and a lace train falling from the shoulders. Her headpiece bore a six tiered shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's attendants were Miss Linda Cole, Maid of Honor, Miss Wendy Postlethwaite, cousin of the bride and Miss Myrtle Wheeler. They all wore floor-length gowns of pale elegance in pale mauve and carried white mums intertwined with mauve ribbon. Flower girl, Miss Cheryl Droz, niece of the groom, looked lovely in a floor-length gown to match the bridesmaid's. She carried a basket of white mums.

Best man was Allen Selgenen and Ushers were Wayne Keeling and Wayne Mitchell. Allan Droz, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. For her father's wedding, the bride's mother chose a turquoise suit with white accessories accented by a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother selected a blue dress with a corsage of pink roses.

For going away, the bride chose a navy blue dress and coat with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The happy couple is now residing in Calgary.

STRATHMORE'S STATION

The C.P.R. Station at Strathmore is up for sale. Also, the section houses at Strathmore, Manoka, Stobart and Chedoke are to be sold. All buildings have to be moved from C.P.R. property.

The Station at Strathmore would be moved in two sections for a nominal fee, according to C.P.R. engineers.

The problem of a hall for the Scouting movement would be solved if the Town Council would allow the building to be located in the Town. The freight shed would make a reasonable small hall and would lend itself to extension and renovation. The home could be used and it is supposedly in good condition.

If Town Council were agreeable, it would be a wonderful project on a short time basis for a Service Club in the Town. How about the Elks? The hall could be rented and thereby pay the rates and the utilities on the property. The occupants of the house could either be stone deaf or go visiting on meeting nights.

THE STRATHMORE STANDARD

Second Class Mail Reg. No. 0688

SLEUTHS NEEDED

Vigilantes will be needed to curb the outbreak of theft and acts of vandalism which are beginning to occur with alarming frequency in this district.

Reports of stolen gas, batteries, spare tires, etc. are becoming more and more frequent.

The convenience of leaving a tractor, sweeper, or other self-propelled implement out in the field may well be denied the farmer unless these thieves are caught.

The policing of country roads is an impossible task, and one which can hardly be contemplated by a regular Police Force.

The rural population themselves can form a fairly good scouting service. When driving about your normal business, take note of the time and date, also color, model, make and license number of cars that seem to be out of place in any particular area. Then if you should hear of a theft which could be tied in with your observations, you could let your neighbor have the information.

The locking of fuel tanks and driving home of all machinery is nothing but a nuisance. Only the vigilance of the neighbourhood can stop this expensive vandalism and theft.

Report to your neighbour if you should suspect anything happening on his farm that you don't feel comfortable about.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO? It's something we all have to figure out. If you have problems keeping track of bills, payments and so on, come in and find out how we can help you.

We have lots of ideas to make things nice and simple for you. For instance, maybe it's having two bank accounts - a checking account for paying bills, and a savings account for the money you'll need for vacations or the occasional "big" buy.

Drop in soon. A few minutes could save you lots of time and money.

HORTICULTURAL FIELD DAY - Last week I made mention of the Horticultural Field Day on Friday, August 22nd starting 9:00 A.M. This Field Day is at the Brooks Horticulture Station. Bring your lunch and learn about landscaping and tree plantings around your home. TREE ORDERS - We received a list of the trees available to farmers for plantings in 1970, this past week. Due to frost and other problems Colorado Spruce will not be available and a few other varieties are in short supply. Order now. ALBERTA CATTLE COMMISSION TO REOPEN OPERATIONS - Alberta's cattle commission is expected to become operative late this fall when a levy will be collected on all cattle sold by auction or marketed through terminal stations.

Clarke Ferries, secretary of the provincial Agriculture Products Marketing Council, says that the commission was formed in response to requests from a number of cattle organizations. The objective is to collect funds for research into a number of aspects of the Alberta cattle industry. These include a revised grading system, more efficient cattle marketing methods and consumer needs and demands at the retail level.

The levy that has been proposed by cattlemen sponsoring the plan is 10¢ a head which could result in a fund of approximately $200,000.

The five Alberta cattlemen appointed to the commission are Frank Gatty of Consort, representing the Western Stock Growers Association; Harry Gordon of Rose Lynn, representing the Farmers Union of Alberta; William Boake of Acme, representing the Alberta Cattle Breeders Association; Ian MacDonald of Fairview, representing the Alberta Federation of Agriculture; and R. J. Bockert of North Edmonton, representing the producer's and cattle breeder's sections of the Alberta Dairyfarmers' Association.

CALGARY PACKERS TO CANADA PACKERS

To provide the most economical and efficient service to customers in Western Canada, Canada Packers Limited will produce Canada Packers "Maple Leaf" products at the company's Calgary plant. The unit will in future be called Canada Packers, Calgary, not Calgary Packers as it has been since 1955.

Calgary Packers has been a division of Canada Packers for some time and on making the announcement, Mr. W.F. McLean, President of the company, said the change will consolidate manufacturing facilities to provide the best possible service to customers and consumers in Alberta and British Columbia.

A year ago a large addition was constructed at the plant which greatly increased its cooler facilities. At present, further major expansions are underway.

Canada Packers Limited now operates three packinghouse plants in Alberta at Calgary, Lethbridge and Edmonton.

IRON IN YOUR DIET—

Iron is essential for the formation of hemoglobin in the red blood cells which carry oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body. A lack of this mineral results in iron-deficiency anemia. An inadequate iron intake may cause one to tire easily, appear pale and listless, lose weight and have a poor appetite.

Women under middle age and teenage girls require the most iron. They are the ones most apt to suffer from iron deficiency anemia, especially if they are on low caloric diets.

What foods are high in iron is a question often asked. The following foods are excellent sources of iron. By including a wide variety of these in your diet you will, of course, meet your requirements of iron will be met.

- Fruits: dried apricots and peaches, prunes and raisins.
- Vegetables: beans and peas, dried canned or fresh, spinach, chard, asparagus, beet greens.
- Cereals and breads: whole grain and enriched cereals such as oatmeal, shredded wheat products.

Many homemakers do not serve liver and other organ meats, because the family does not like their distinctive flavour. Try liver in combination with hamburger or meat loaf to disguise the distinctive flavour. Liver casseroles and steak and kidney pies are other tasty ways of preparing these iron rich meats.

For recipe ideas for liver, kidney and heart ask for our leaflet on "Variety Meats".

TOWN OF STRATHMORE Council Meeting held August 13, 1969, with the following present: Mayor Martin in the chair, and Councillors: Hallett, Snook, Westman, Kison, Councillors Kuzs and Stock were absent. Joe Thomas, Secretary, Dr. J.W. Giffen and Grete DeVille. J.W. GIFFEN - PARLAMENT: Dr. Giffen was in attendance to protest against a written demand from Council, requesting him to discontinue renting the premises located on the west twenty-two feet of Lot 35, Block 2, Plan 4810N, for use as a Residence. This property is located in a commercial zone and is being used for a residential purpose. The Doctor indicated that when the present occupant vacated these premises, he would then rent it for commercial use.

DEVILLE - IRRIGATION: Mrs. DeVille was present to ask if it was possible to get more pressure on the irrigation water servicing her property. Council assured her this would be done.

The minutes of the previous meeting held July 31, 1969, were read and adopted on a motion.

TREES - WESTMOUNT: All business arising from these minutes was discussed, with some time given to the proper care of the trees in Westmount Subdivision.

UNLAWY PARK: The unsightly condition of the Park, after Whopper-Upper Day was also discussed, and it was decided to contact the person responsible, asking them to remove all refuse.

The Financial Report for the month of July, 1969 was adopted into the minutes.

DOMESTIC WATER: The numerous failures in the domestic water supply, during the past month, causing inconvenience to residents, is of great concern to Council, and some time was given to the discussion of ways and means for an additional supply of water, storage and distribution.

COMMITTEE REPORTS: Second Avenue: Councillor Snook reported for Public Works, stating he had received several complaints with regard to the dust condition of Second Avenue, from the Strathmore Hotel, south to the Highway. No. 1 Well: Councillor Hallett reported that the Well and Sewer System. He reported No. 1 Well had been repaired by replacing the cylinder leathers.

Motors - Pressure System: The two motors on the pressure system had also burned out, but the motors were not being replaced.

He also reported that all necessary water valves are being installed, prior to the paving. He informed Council that the Royale Well is not producing, and due to the quality of the water, it does not warrant any further expenditure and will be abandoned. It was Council's decision to drill another well very soon. Hallett suggested a siren or horn be installed on the Town Truck, to be sounded to inform the residents when the domestic water would not be available. He reported that Mr. Hinber, of the "Cold-og" installation, has installed an auxiliary water storage tank in his premises, which would provide water for his machines when the Town water was shut-off. To compensate for this added expense, he requested a reduction in the rates for water presently being charged.

It was moved that the request for a reduction in rates could not be allowed to Mr. Hinber.

ALBERTA HAIL STUDIES

Hail activity fell off sharply last week, and since the last major storms in the Edmonton area on 10 August, only spotty light hail has been reported in the project area. This has given the Hail Studies staff a chance to catch up on the tabulating, logging and plotting the vast amount of data collected during the extremely active period from 1 July to 10 August. During that 41 day period it hailed somewhere within the study area on 31 days, and on 19 of these days maximum reported hail size was walnut or larger. At the same time the five Hail Studies trucks were in the field, and on thirteen of the most interesting days telephone surveys yielded another 3900 hail reports, making a total of 3600. Over 600 farmers observed hail walnut size or larger. This was the most active period since 1965, and certainly the best documented in the history of the Alberta Hail Studies Project.

POWERS OF A RIVER

On Sunday afternoon, August 3, 1969 a gay and spirited ball game at a group picnic at the camp grounds of Emerson Bridge on Highway 36 and Red Deer River, was suddenly marred by the shouts of a mother who was watching some youngsters play in the sand beach of the river. A worried mother had lost sight of her 7 year old for only moments. The little boy struggling managed to surface once after he slipped off a sand ledge into the main current and then the river which holds many secrets claimed him for nine days. He was found after hundreds of hours of searching by a relative of the family Aug. 12th, 1969.

As a witness to the sad event, I would like to say, we see and hear of similar events yet none carry the message until you see the tears of despair in faces of the parents standing helplessly gazing at the river, which has just claimed the life of their baby son.

In closing I personally would like to say that no one can say who was at fault. We as parents just do not realize the powers of a river, until we witness such a lesson. I personally would like to thank all those who helped in the search for little Jeffy Schaffer to whom we say "May he rest in Peace."

Another aircraft has joined the project for a period of two weeks. This aircraft is a T-33 jet from the National Aeronautical Establishment in Ottawa. It is equipped with a very sophisticated system for measuring winds and turbulence very accurately. The readings are recorded on magnetic tape, and then analyzed later on the ground by a computer.
The aircraft will fly periods around isolated farms at various altitudes from below cloud base up to as high as 40,000 feet, and obtain measurements of the wind flow in the immediate vicinity of the farms. At the same time the five Hail Studies trucks will be deployed on the ground in the storm area, and will record the surface wind speed and direction, and also send up small weather balloons every twenty minutes. From these observations it is hoped to learn more about the airflow into and around storm clouds, which is essential for our understanding of hailstorms.

MINUTES: Moved "That the Minutes of the July 7th and 18th, 1969, School Committee Meeting be adopted as read." Carried.
NON. CLARK MEETING: On July 24th, 1969, Hon. R.C. Clark, Minister of Education, attended at the County Office, Strathmore, Chairman Phillips and other members in attendance reported on this meeting. The Minister was asked questions on availability of debenture funds, also Department guidance on the plebiscite which has been declared void by the courts and also was asked what assistance is available for the rental of temporary portable classrooms. The Minister of Education said he would consider these items and forward a reply to the School Committee.

On July 31st, 1969, Hon. R.C. Clark, Minister of Education, advised by Mrs. L. Martin, Minister of Education, that the allocation of debenture funds for 1969 may certainly be deferred and considered as a commitment next year if building developments permit the intended project to proceed. (2) Support for purchases of portables depends on recognition of need being given by the municipalities. The Minister stated there would be less need for the Strathmore enrolment than for that envisioned in the proposed centralization. When purchase of portables is intended a statement of need should be submitted to the Buildings Board to be recognized for support.

There is no financial support for rental costs of portables, however, it is understood that if the portable schools are eventually to be purchased to be used as need, there or elsewhere, that a large part of the rental money paid may be applied to the purchase price. SCHOOL BUS PURCHASE: The Minutes of the July 31st, 1969, School Repair Committee were read. There is a shortage of 1969 school buses, equipped as requested by the County, therefore some revisions had to be made.

Moved "That the report of the Shop Repair Committee be accepted and that the County of Wheatland purchase the following school buses from Bluebird Bus Sales Ltd.: One only 1969 - 36 passenger Chev. School Bus complete with five-speed transmission and 60 Amp. Alternator. One new 1970 - 36 passenger Chev. School Bus complete with five-speed transmission, 62 Amp. Alternator, and power-steering, with the delivery of the 1969 model to be immediately and the delivery of the 1970 model to be approximately in October 1969." Carried.

BUILDING & MAINTENANCE REPORT: Moved "That the Building and Maintenance report as presented by Chairman Cammest be accepted." Carried.

HUSSAR PUBLIC MEETING: On July 30th, 1969, Hon. R.C. Clark, Minister of Education, convened a meeting at Hussar and the School Committee was asked to send representatives to the meeting. School Committee members Phillips, Bollinger, Madsen and Mrs. L. Martin, attended. The meeting was under the chairmanship of Dr. Blumell.

Moved "That the report on the July 30th, 1969, public meeting held at Hussar, be accepted." Carried.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bill Henke have returned from a six week holiday in Germany where they visited relatives. They reported lovely weather and a wonderful trip.

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, May 3rd, when Heather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Fawkes became the bride of Dale Cook, son of Mrs. Verla Cook.

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked radiant in a full length all-line satin gown. Three quarter length sleeves and a cluster of tiny white flowers and simulated pearls attached to a four tier bouffant veil completed the bridal ensemble.

Maid of Honor was Monica Fawkes, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Monica Murray and Sharon Cook.

The girls wore identical floor length, blue peau de elegance dresses accented by matching chiffon draped at the shoulder, and carried softly tinted white mums.

Darrel Cooks acted as bestman, and the ushers included Bob Hartell, Jim Hill, Mason Cooks, and Earl Lyons.

The mother of the bride wore a rose-pink suit and navy accessories with a corsage of white feathered mums. The groom's mother wore a suite of lime-green with white accessories and a white feathered Mum corsage.

Frank Cooks did a splendid job as Master of Ceremonies at the Reception held in the Memorial Hall. Darrel Cooks proposed a toast to the bride, and then Verd Watson followed with a toast to the bride.

Seated at the Head Table were grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. William Fawkes and grandmother of the groom Mrs. Helen Belts.

A large number of guests enjoyed the dance that followed.

Out of town guests were from Eureka, California, Edmonton, Calgary, Kamaka, Carlsbad, Okotoks, and Cheadle.

The happy couple spent their honeymoon touring the U.S.A. and now reside in Calgary.

Mrs. and Mrs. Geoff Scott have returned from Sydney, Australia where they have been for the first year where Geoff was on exchange with Mr. Hopper.

The Ridsen family held a picnic in Lambert Park last Sunday before Mr. William Ridsen goes to "The Lacombe Home" at Midsnap on Wednesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Art Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferguson are holidaying in the states.

GOVERNMENT OWNED POWER

(From The Nanton News)

The Alberta Union of Rural Electrification Associations plans to join forces with the Farmer's Union of Alberta requesting the provincial government to nationalize the province's private power companies. Some refer to it as socializing the power companies. They think the private companies are making too much money and that the government could run it all cheaper.

The 378 locals in the union have made themselves something like $18,000,000 while private power companies, but still claim the cost of power is too high. They turned down a proposition to have the 378 locals organized into one large co-op to operate the entire project because they thought it would be too much bureaucratic, unwieldy and impersonal service. In the same breath they ask the government to take over three private companies and the 378 locals.

Since when has anything done by governments ever been cheaper than through free enterprise or private companies. When has any government been less bureaucratic than the smaller, privately owned corporations? or governments? Never! In spite of all its socialistic tendencies, whether voluntary or forced, Alberta remains one of the strongest fortresses against socialism, in favor of free enterprise; but open your eyes and behold what is happening! Some of those who benefit the most by free enterprise are showing the loudest for socialism. Who will stem the tide?

It would appear that some people desire neither responsibilities nor the benefits that accrue from free enterprise. They want to dump everything in the lap of bureaucratic governments. Then when things don't please them (which is most of the time) they'll dump the government and put in a green bunch who'll make worse bungles and in turn have to be exchanged for another green bunch and so on. All the time the bureaucratic civil service grows and dictates to all and sundry.

Oh consistency, thou art a jewel. But where will we find that jewel?

THE HOMEMAKER

How Much Do Consumers Know About Buying Meat?

Some of you may have seen the "Deer is Beautiful" display at the Calgary Stampede. On two occasions I was in attendance at the display to answer the questions of consumers. It was evident from the interest shown in the display and the questions, that people wanted to know more about the cuts and preparation of meat.

It is estimated that in Canada $5.00 out of every $10.00 spent on consumer goods goes for meat. In 1960 the Canada and Ontario Departments of Agriculture asked 332 homemakers to name two tender cuts of beef and two tough cuts. Only 17% (60 women) were able to do so. If rural homemakers do not know how meat should be cooked (because it is tenderness that tells them), then what hope is there for the young urban bride who knows that steaks and roasts come wrapped in cellophane. One lady mentioned at the Beef is Beautiful display that when she had moved from the city to a small town she purchased meat across the counter from the butcher. Being unfamiliar with meat cuts she didn't know what to ask for so they lived on chops, steaks and roasts for several months. In Canada about 25¢ of every food dollar is spent on meat of which an estimated 25% is eventually thrown out because of poor selection, improper storing or wasteful cooking. This means that a family spending $25.00 a week on groceries actually throws away $1.50 per week or $78.00 per year.

At the Beef is Beautiful display, it was the men who appeared most interested in the bulletin on meat cuts. Often they passed them to their wives and suggested that they brush up on the different cuts. As meat is the most costly item in our Food Budget perhaps we should brush up on meat selection and butchery. If you are interested in a fall or winter program on meat, please contact the office and let me know.

by Pauline Jaaman

FWUA President

41 young people of various racial and cultural backgrounds attended the FWUA 21st Century Seminar held at the J.R. PUA Coldrey Camp, 60 miles west of Rocky Mountain House, August 3 - 9th. Fifteen of those who attended were Indian young people, one of Japanese ancestry and the remainder from a varied mixture of backgrounds and ethnic groups.

From the very beginning this multicultural development camp showed promise of individual and group growth and throughout the week proved a true intercultural community experience.

Among the learning experiences recorded from the evaluation of the seminar were the following:

1. Community life at this camp was a challenging experience.
2. Better communications with other people and knowledge of oneself.
3. That a community is everyone's responsibility.
4. Acquired more confidence and trust of others.
5. The ability to do things together regardless of racial or cultural backgrounds.
6. Programs developed by community not staff was a learning experience.
7. Discriminations and attitudes towards people have changed from the weeks experience.

GREEN ACRES

SWATHING EARLY LESSENS CHANCES OF FROST

Swathing even a few days earlier than usual could mean the difference between a normal crop and one that has been damaged by frost. Alberta's cereal and oil seed crop specialist Sherman Yelland believes that swathing at the higher moisture levels recommended by research workers could be more important than usual this year because many cereal crops, damaged by frost in June, may not completely ripen before the first fall frost. Earlier swathing also lessens the chances of losses from other natural hazards such as hail, insects and birds as well as those caused by lodging, shelling and shattering.

Research workers at Lacombe, Swift Current and elsewhere have found that full kernel size and yield potential has been attained at the 38 percent moisture level in barley and the 45 percent level in rye. Mr. Yelland points out that nothing is to be gained, in an average year, by exposing a standing crop to the elements any longer than is necessary, unless it is to be straggled combined.

Wheat kernels containing 38 percent moisture have changed from green to yellow, but can still be flattened by pressing them between the finger and thumb. A tiny bead of moisture will be observed when the wheat is in this firm dough stage. Out kernels containing 35 percent moisture are in the medium to firm dough stage. The kernels inside the hulls can be quite easily crushed, but little or no moisture should be evident on the fingers.

Barley kernels at 40 percent moisture exhibit the same characteristics as wheat when pressed between the fingers and thumb. In the case of malting barley, it is important to have the kernels plump and mature in the latest maturing part of the field, and to be careful not to crack or peel the grain during harvesting.

Rye kernels with a moisture content of 45 percent are in the late milk or early dough stage. They can be crushed by firm pressure from the fingers, but no moisture should be present. Rye is quite subject to shelling and lodging when allowed to become too ripe.

Repeatedly tested, regardless of whether or not the pods have turned to a straw color. To ensure maximum oil yield, the seeds should be brown, but excess shelling is likely to occur if swathing is left until all the pods are ripe. Since seedling is believing, Mr. Yelland suggests that farmers who are hesitant about swathing at higher moisture levels try it on part of their crop so that they can evaluate the results for themselves.

ALBERTA HAIL STUDIES

No significant hail activity was reported in Alberta last week, indicating that the 1969 hail season is rapidly drawing to a close. The frequency of hailstorms drops sharply during the last week in August and into early September. Based on past records there is an average of one severe hail storm every 20 years during this period. The Alberta Hail Studies Project will therefore keep the radar operating until the end of the month. Any hail occurring should still be reported through to the end of September. Other project activities are now being phased out. Flood photography sites near Rocky Mountain House are being dismantled, but the Meteorological Service radiosonde station will remain in operation there until 29 August. A summary is being checked over and readied for winter storage. The hail reports sent in by farmers are being double checked, plotted on maps and coded up so that they can be fed into the computer for winter analysis. Detailed tabulations are being made of all the observations made by the mobile units during the summer. Complete duplicate sets of data will be available for analysis in both Edmonton and at McGill University, Montreal during the winter. Some data will also be sent to the U.S. Research Groups which visited Alberta in July. Early in September, the 29 summer assistants with the project will return to University. The Research Council Staff will return to Edmonton, and the three researchers from McGill University will return to Montreal to begin the long job of analyzing the vast amounts of data accumulated during the summer. Tel: 886-4230 Alberta Hail Studies Myrskall Park, Alta.

The September 18th meeting will be at the home of Helen Mortensen. Roll call will be to tell which T.V. program you consider the best and which the worst. We adjourned the meeting and enjoyed our bag lunches and coffee.

SUBSCRIBER, PUBLISHER EXCHANGE VERSES

Not many subscribers take to verse to lodge complaints with publishers but a subscriber to the Tweed (Can.) News did just that. Nor to be outdone, Publisher W. C. Bell penned his reply in similar fashion.

This is how the exchange of verse went:

WHERE HAS THE PAPER GONE?

I received a letter from Tweed News And much to my surprise, The contents of your letter Brought tears into my eyes; Your subscription's almost due, it said, And it'll be any day. We would like you to renew it, Please rush without delay.

NIGHTINGALE NEWS

There will be a miscellaneous party in the Nightingale Hall, Sat., Sept. 6th at 2 P.M. for Mrs. Don Morgan (nee Judy Frederick). Everybody welcome. Ladies kindly bring a recipe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Frederick and family have just returned from a three weeks holiday in B.C.

The money isn't coming in, The letter further said, It's people like you holding back, That keeps us in the red; So I sent in my remittance To keep them up to date; But I haven't got a paper since, Just how long must I wait?

Several times I have written in To find the reason why I haven't got my paper yet, But still there's no reply; Many lunar months have gone, I'm getting worried, too, Has the paper folded up, Or flown to Timbuctoo?

By Joseph Harris

ODE IN REPLY TO JOSEPH HARRIS

Thank you for your little poem, We're all like it fine; Your money order we received On April twenty-nine.

We promptly marked your stencil up Did the other things we do, And thought the "News" each week Was getting through to you.

It makes us sad to learn, dear friend That this is not the case; And that your paper, mailed each week, Has gone some other place.

The street number in your letter, Is three six six, we see; While the number on your stencil Looks like three six five to me.

So dear friend, we've made you, A stencil that is new; And each night we'll pray to Kierans That your paper will get through.

Of a full month's papers we have gyped you, So, to straighten up the records, An extra month you'll get.

For the error on our part, that happened, Your pardon, Sir, we crave; While the bones of Keats and Shelley Roll over in their grave.

A beautiful candle light double-ring ceremony was performed in Strathmore United Church on July 19, 1969, by Reverend James Shortt, uniting in marriage Carlee Maryann Deeg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deeg of Lyalta and Joseph Garry Brigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brigan of Aldrie.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, was radiant in a floor length A-line gown of delicate lace. Her veil, trimmed with lace, was held by a headpiece of small white flowers. A long sheer train also trimmed with lace, fell from underneath the veil. She carried a bouquet of peach colored roses, feathered carnations and white satin ribbons.

Miss Joyce Deeg, Maid of Honor and sister of the bride, Mrs. Jo-Mari Storey, sister of the groom, Miss Susan Deeg, cousin of the bride and Miss Carol Stewart were the bride's attendants. All wore identical peach colored gowns and carried white daisies intertwined with white satin ribbons.

Attending the groom were Best Man Jim Brigan, brother of the groom; Ushers Randy Deeg, brother of the bride, Larry Deeg, cousin of the bride and Pete Berreth.

The mother of the bride wore a gold-beige dress and coat ensemble, accented by a corsage of rust colored roses. The groom's mother who was unable to attend the wedding because of illness, was visited the following day in hospital by her new daughter and son.

For going away, both bride and groom wore suits of avocado green. The bride chose brown leather shoes and purse as accessories. A gold orchid complemented the ensemble.

Mrs. McCarthy from Calgary is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martin.

It is to be hoped that children in the band have been playing a little to be ready for the first band rehearsal Sept. 9th in the Samuel Crowther School. New members will be welcome and should get in touch with Mrs. Grace Larsen or Bill Hallett or be at the school to see Mr. Oberhammer.

Many former residents will remember Jimmy Craddock who was born in Strathmore and received most of his education here. His death came as a shock to many this last week. His mother now Mrs. Cecil Lambert lives in Medicine Hat. Our sympathy to her.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Bill Bates and Mrs. Ken Hilliard on the death of their brother Archie Gray who had just retired as Royal Bank Manager in Devon. He joined the staff in Strathmore at the age of seventeen when Mr. Van Tighem was then manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hilton were visitors in town over the holiday.

Sorry to learn that Mrs. Gulliver has been a patient in General Hospital recently but was released last Sat.

Cheadle 4-H Raffle Winner: Due to not having all the tickets turned in, the draw was unable to be made on Whopper Upper Day. Instead, the draw was made on August 31st. The tape recorder was won by Dianne Lyons of Cheadle. Congratulations Dianne!

WE GOT A BLAST !!

Dear Mr. Subscriber listed under Brooks, We sure have had some trouble to find you in our books. Standard is the place we know in which you do reside, But there are always other points of view upon the other side.

We have sent you constant billing - your 'sub' we do desire, But your last little note could set the mails on fire. "Damn poor bookkeeping", that is your pitiful cry. We really must admit it, but we honestly do try.

Bear with us Mr. Subscriber, please do not be late. We'll fix up our mailing list and make another plate. The mix-up you have suffered, we know we are serious. We'll give three month's subscription - should well take care of this.

CAIRNHILL

EDITORIAL

The publicity given to drugs and their users seems to out weigh most other matters in the world's news media these days.

The morbid curiosity of the public at large has long been recognized but the exploitation of the unfortunate drug user in achieving nothing but notoriety which will tempt others to try the mind destroying hallucinatory drugs.

Every day we hear that doctors have made wild statements that marijuana is harmless and should be on sale to those who wish to use it.

Millions of Canadian dollars are being spent on research to determine whether "Pot" is harmful. The would-be researchers should jump on the next aeroplane to Cairo and see the effects laying in the gutters of Egypt.

The rumblings of another Arab - Israel War are heard and if President Nasser wishes to have the new conflict last a whole month, he had better enforce his new laws and ensure his pilots are not full of "Pot".

Egyptians face penalty of death for the possession of hashish in any form.

There was no money spent on drug research and its effects by Egypt. The law makers looked out on the streets. Canada should do the same, but legalization of drug using is a shameless recognition of the "Hippie Take Over".

A.C.W.

The A.C.W. held their first meeting after the summer vacation on Monday Sept. 1st in the Anglican Church Hall with eleven ladies present. The Rev. Marlor opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer and the President Mrs. Morgan led the ladies in the W. W. Prayer, Father's and United Thank Offering Prayers.

The business session followed with the minutes of the previous meeting and the Treasurer's report being adopted as read. The President read correspondence from Mrs. Wrenshaw who is resigning as President of the A.C.W. Calgary Diocese and Board to become Vice President of the Canadian Diocese and Board. We have been approached by Mrs. E.P. Smith, Treasurer of the Calgary Diocese and Board to send a small donation for a farewell gift for Mrs. Wrenshaw. This was made a motion and was passed.

The President then conveyed thanks on behalf of all the A.C.W. ladies, to Mrs. Francis Nicholls who has worked so hard on the organization for the several catering projects undertaken during the summer months.

Discussion followed on the Bake Sale and Christmas Bazaar to be held in September and December respectively.

A motion was made and accepted that new curtaining material be purchased for the Church Hall and Mrs. Francis Nicholls very kindly offered to make the curtains.

The meeting was then adjourned with a social half hour and lunch being served by Mrs. Patmore and Mrs. F. Morgan.

Millions of Canadian dollars are being spent on research to determine whether "Pot" is harmful. The would-be researchers should jump on the next aeroplane to Cairo and see the effects laying in the gutters of Egypt.

LACE LINERS
Here's how to multiply one cotton lace tablecloth into a colourful wardrobe of covers. Make several liners to go under the lace, using washable cotton fabrics in different colours. For instance, you might make a sunny yellow cotton liner to go on your Thanksgiving table.

MAKE CHILDREN'S SWEATERS LAST LONGER
Prolong the wearing life of children's sweaters with a little decorative sewing. For instance, if an otherwise good sweater has an unsightly hole or stain, cover the spot with a cotton yarn butterfly or ladybug. Use heavy yarn in a bright colour, and decorate the design with sequins or small pearls.

GREEN ACRES

WINTER PROGRAMS. - Planning is a part of every day's work. We plan the day work, our annual holiday, the days meals and practically everything else we do. Some of the planning is for the immediate future and some for the distant future.

We are already planning for the meetings, schools etc. for the farmers' homemakers in the County of Wheatland this winter. We have requests for some topics and are working on them now. If you have any burning problems that you would like some information on this winter - let us know as early as possible. Our plans have to be pretty well completed by the end of September.

FARMING IN 1970? The straight grain farmer with three or four years of grain on hand is feeling the pinch - low quotas and a rather dim outlook for the future.

When the price of feeder cattle gets too high - some feedlots go thru a season empty. But have you ever seen a grain farmer who throws in the sponge and doesn't seed an acre? Almost a swear word to even mention the fact - isn't it? Foreign to our thoughts as it may be - if the farmer has 3 to 4 years of grain on hand and cash is scarce - closing shop is not such a bad idea. He would have no operating costs - just the fixed costs of taxes, interest on investment and depreciation to face. In other words he would be cutting costs to a minimum.

If the quotas we have today will barely pay costs - then they certainly won't pay both operating and fixed costs. And sometimes this is a good choice for Management to make. I'm not saying it is a simple one to make, and would apply to all farms - but it's worth considering in some cases.

ARDENODE
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Olson and Larry attended a surprise birthday party for Walter Godfrey at the home of his parents on Sat. evening. Many friends and relatives gathered for a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kelly attended the wedding of the former's nephew at Exshaw last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Manson cared for the children during their absence.

Farmers in the district are harvesting at top speed. We wish them good weather to complete their operations. Boys and girls returned to school Tues. and we wish them all the best in this year's endeavors and also good luck to those who completed Gr. 12 and intend to go elsewhere for training in various trades.

Thought for the week - If you are the cream in someone's coffee, don't turn sour!

WINTER WHEAT
SEEDING RATESU.J. Pittman, Agronomist,
Lethbridge Research Station

Traditionally winter wheat has been seeded at a heavier rate than spring wheat. Results from recent experiments at the Lethbridge Research Station show that much seed may have been wasted in past years by this practice.

Winnata and Kharkov 22 NC winter wheat, both winter-hardy, bearded varieties recommended for western Canada were seeded at rates of two, three, four, five, and six pecks per acre. They were seeded with a semi-deep furrow hoe-drill into fallow during the first two weeks of September.

Germination and fall emergence were good in all years. There were no differences in winter survival of the seedlings between rates of seeding of either variety. There were more broadleaf weeds where the seeding rate was only two pecks per acre than where heavier rates were used.

But these were controlled successfully with herbicides. Wheat that was seeded at rates of less than four pecks per acre tillered more heavily than that seeded at higher rates. Where the six-peck seeding rate was used the straw was usually four to six inches shorter and the grain ripened four to six days earlier than where lighter seeding rates were used. Winnata yielded about three bushels per acre more than Kharkov regardless of seeding rate. However, in each variety the yields were the same for all rates of seeding from three to six pecks per acre. Yields were slightly lower where only two pecks of seed were planted.

These results show that it is unnecessary to seed more than three or four pecks of winter wheat per acre to obtain satisfactory yields. High rates of seeding are wasteful of seed, seed dressings, and time.

"Take A Green Olive To Lunch or Dinner"
To Celebrate Green Olive Week

The period from September 4 to September 13 has been proclaimed, "Green Olive Week." The brain behind this two day "week" is the Green Olive Trade Association, whose members feel that an ordinary seven day week is simply not long enough to savour truly joys of green olives.

A suitable slogan for this olive olympics might be, "Take a green olive for lunch — and take several green olives for dinner."

Few will find it easy enough to slip into the spirit of Green Olive Week. After all, green olives are one of the few things a gentleman can pick up and nibble on in pre-lunch sessions in a busy and hectic day.

And because olives are rich in food energy, containing as they do, protein, calcium, iron, Vitamin A and Phosphorus, mother and children can enjoy luncheon sandwiches of cream cheese and olives and continue on their busy schedule in a happy and healthy way.

For end-of-day entertaining, no hostess has to be reminded of the appeal of olives. But how about serving them hot as hors d'oeuvres? Simply roll half a slice of bacon around a large green olive that has been stuffed with processed cheese spread or minced meat, and broil until bacon is done.

For a still more exotic nibbler's delight, try olive tartlets — pimento-stuffed olives baked in a cream cheese pastry wrap which is delicious and very different.

Nor should olives be overlooked for main-course cookery. There's a fine recipe for SOS Casserole which has saved many a hostess from despair when unexpected guests appear on a day when the cupboard resembles Mother Hubbard's own. Using precooked rice, processed cheese, a can of salmon or tuna, and, of course, chopped, stuffed olives, a truly elegant casserole can be contrived in minutes only.

Actually, olives are as ancient and honourable lineage that they hardly need a special period reserved to celebrate their greatness. Olives were grown in Egypt in the 17th century B.C. For almost 40 centuries olives have formed an important and enjoyable part of the diet of a large section of the world. They've earned a special salute.

From the Canadian Kitchens of Coronation Olives, here are a few recipes to help you get in the spirit of Green Olive Week:

OLIVE AND CHEESE SANDWICH FILLING

1/4 - ounce package cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup Coronation Salad Olives (or 1/2 cup pimento-stuffed olives, chopped)
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 tablespoon tomato catsup

HOT OLIVE TARTS

1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
1-ounce package cream cheese, softened
1 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
36 Coronation Pimento-Stuffed Olives
Blend butter, cream cheese, flour and salt thoroughly. Roll overnight. Roll very thin and cut into 1 1/2-inch squares. Place a pimento-stuffed olive in centre of each square and bring up corners to completely cover olive. Pinch corners together. Bake in preheated 400 degree F. oven until browned, about 15 minutes. Serve hot. Note: These tarts may be stored in a plastic bag in freezer before baking. If baked frozen, increase oven heat to 425 degree F. and bake 17-18 minutes until browned. Makes 36 tarts.

1/2 cup Coronation Salad Olives (or 1/2 cup pimento-stuffed olives, chopped)
Heat oven to 350 degrees F. Cook rice as directed on label. Meanwhile in double boiler, combine milk, cheese cubes, salt and pepper. Heat, stirring occasionally until well blended and smooth. Combine rice with salmon or tuna and olives. In 1 1/2 quart casserole, alternate layers of rice mixture with cheese sauce mixture ending with sauce. Bake uncovered for 25 minutes. Makes six servings.

WINTER PROGRAMS—

It is again the time of year when community groups and organizations are re-organizing for the winter months. At this time, most groups outline a tentative program for the winter activities.

The key to success or effectiveness of an organization is good management and planning. Plan with a purpose in mind to become a more effective organization.

You can't write a plan unless you have an objective or goal. For example your goal may be to learn more about drugs, or perhaps to attract new young members as members. But if new members are your goal, remember you must have something to offer them and they must become involved in order to maintain interest.

Times are changing rapidly, how is your group changing to meet the times? Does your group need a shot in the arm, some new ideas or new methods of conducting meetings? Perhaps you could co-operate with another group or organization to sponsor a speaker or demonstration of interest to both groups.

At a Strathmore Advisory Committee Meeting one member suggested that young homemakers would like to attend meetings if they could take their children and a program was provided for their children also. This has been done successfully in the cities where once a week the women meet to do exercises, hear speakers, watch demonstrations or learn a new craft. The children are in another room and learning also. The mothers take turns looking after the children.

Many of your members will have suggestions and ideas, involve them in program planning. Have a brainstorming session at your first meeting for program ideas or new methods to then draw up your year's plan after listing all the alternatives, analysing them and making a decision.

Whatever your group plans for this year, try to avoid the major pitfalls of women's organizations which are:

- 1) Too many organizations
- 2) Lack of good leadership
- 3) Declining membership
- 4) Lack of management
- 5) Lack of definite goals and objectives
- 6) Lack of being able to make effective decisions and take action.
- 7) Not meeting the changes taking place in our society.

LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

The Lutheran Church Women met on Thursday with Anna-Bell Armstrong conducting the Bible Study.

Plans were made for the Fancake Supper for Sept. 28th at which time Miss Fady Mulloy will speak. Those who entertained city children through the vacation program are especially invited to be present at this gathering.

Instead of an October meeting, all the ladies from Wheatland Parish, together with the Dalum ladies, will be invited to hear a speaker from the Indian Reserve.

Plans are needed for the Church Sanctuary, so donations of large plants will be graciously received.

A refreshing lunch was served by Jennie Mac-Eloir and Mary Kaiser.

On Tuesday evening, Miss Carol Madsen was honored with a bridge shower in the Standard Lutheran Church Parlor. During the wedding March, played by Mrs. Esther Schultz, the bride was escorted to her place by Sonia Rasmussen.

Mrs. Leda Jensen welcomed everyone and Carol introduced the head table - her mother Mrs. C. Madsen, her sister Joyce, her aunt Anna Madsen and Elly Fandry; the groom's mother Mrs. V. Larsen, sister Janice; his grandmothers Mrs. Meta Myrby and Mrs. A. Larsen. Several other relatives were present including Mrs. Dennis Myrby, Mrs. Betty Christensen, Mrs. Kristine Myrby, Mrs. Lorine Rasmussen, all from Calgary.

Numbers on the program consisted of a song by the Clark girls; Clarinet Selection by Marcia Rasmussen accompanied by Iona Eldor; some fitting words of advice and a reading by Gerry Nielsen and a piano solo by Louise Rasmussen.

After a delicious lunch of lemon soup, coffee bread and cookies, Donna Sanden gave a very fitting tribute to the Bride and presented the miter gift - a beautiful lamp. The many gifts were opened and admired, after which Carol very graciously thanked everyone. Mrs. Madsen added her appreciation and thanks and invited everyone to Open House after the wedding.

Carol Madsen and Hilp Larsen will be married on Sunday, August 31st at Our Savior's Church, Husar.

PLEBISCITE ISSUE NOT YET DEAD

The Wheatland Citizens Committee, accompanied by many Strathmore and district parents, met with the County School Board last Monday to discuss the May 7th Plebiscite. The delegation with Mr. Ken Van Wesel as spokesman, opened the meeting with this letter of address:-

Mr. Chairman, Councillors, Members of the School Committee, Ladies and Gentlemen.

On behalf of the Wheatland Citizens Committee, I hereby request the School Committee to hold a plebiscite on their proposed Class A composite high school. Our reason being that the Courts of Alberta handed down a decision that the plebiscite held May 7, 1969 was null and void because of irregularities. Since that date the Minister of Education has indicated to you, the Board, that he will not act on Section 261 of the Alberta School Act.

The Wheatland Citizens Committee wishes to go on record as supporting the School Committee actions this Spring in calling a vote on a plebiscite to build a Class A composite high school.

With this in mind, we trust that our request will receive your immediate attention and a date for a plebiscite will be forthcoming at this meeting. Furthermore, this committee will make

M.L.A.'s LETTER READ

The County of Wheatland No. 16 had petitioners in excess of one hundred to discuss the proposed Composite A High School at Strathmore.

A spokesman for the concerned Wheatland Citizens Committee stated that "The irregularities perpetrated at the May Plebiscite had caused a ruling by a Judge that the Plebiscite of May 7th was null and void. This did not relieve the School Board of its obligation to hold a Plebiscite. Technically, no Plebiscite has been held" said the spokesman.

Another spokesman for the Wheatland Citizens Committee mentioned that the people of Strathmore would not, should another Plebiscite be held, conduct any "land speculation" or any other means which could disrupt a democratic Plebiscite.

The School Committee Chairman intimated that the Hon. Gordon Taylor, M.L.A., had written a letter to the Board on the subject of a Plebiscite, but the chairman declined to read the letter to the general meeting. After much discussion and wild speculation as to the contents of the letter, the Chairman consulted his committee and it was decided the letter be read.

This letter is reproduced here Ad Hoc. "Edmonton 6, Alberta, August 29th, 1969.

Mr. Frank Martin, Secretary-Treasurer, County of Wheatland, STRATHMORE, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to my telephone conversation this morning with Mr. Emil Gammert, the Registrar of your County, may I advise that I am making arrangements to attend a meeting of your Council and School Committee at your office in Strathmore on Friday, September 19th, commencing at 9:00 a.m.

I would like at this meeting to endeavour to present reasons why I believe it would be most undivisible to proceed with another plebiscite this year.

Thanking you for the courtesy of giving me a hearing, and with kindest personal regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Gordon E. Taylor, M.L.A.

/R"

The Wheatland Citizens Committee then asked for assurance that grants from Indian Affairs and Federal Government had not, and would not be jeopardized by delays in holding the necessary Plebiscite. The Chairman in reply said that to the best of the Committee's knowledge, funds were still available.

The new Portable Classrooms were discussed in length and the inadequacies of the Strathmore Education facilities.

It was predicted by the Board that it will be necessary to bring four or five more portable units into Strathmore for the 1971 school year.

The Wheatland Citizens Committee plan to meet with the Hon. Gordon Taylor, M.L.A., when he visits Strathmore on September 19th. Arrangements for this meeting are not yet finalized.

VOWS EXCHANGED

LARSEN - MADSEN

On the afternoon of August 31st, 1969, Phillip Larsen, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Larsen and Carol Madsen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Madsen, were united in marriage in a beautiful ceremony at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Husaar, with Pastor L. Abrahamson officiating.

During the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus played by Leda Jensen, Organist, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She looked radiant in her floor-length gown of emossed satin featuring a mandarin collar, long puffed sleeves with wide cuffs, cummerbund, and a full flowing train accented with a full and old-fashioned lace. Her veil was held in place with a Juliet crown of lace petals and enhanced with a bow. She carried an arrangement of mauve orchids and white asters placed on the white Phillip's mother, Mrs. Vernon Larsen had carried on her wedding day.

Matron of Honor, Joyce Martin and Bridesmaid Anne Robertson, wore floor-length lavender gowns of satin in Quaker styling featuring joy cushion lace and matching bonnets. They carried baskets of daisy mums. Flower girls Janice Larsen and Carmel Martin wore short lavender gowns featuring cape sleeves and cummerbunds, carrying baskets of daisy mums and carnations.

Attending the ceremony were Gordon Douglas Larsen, brother of the groom, and Groomsman, Keith Tanaka. Ushers were Kevin and Timothy Larsen, brothers of the groom.

Freeding the ceremony, the altar candles were lit by Mark, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Larsen. Mrs. Abrahamson sang Psalm 23, arr. by Joseph Gelineau and "Love Divine, All Love Excelling" was sung by the congregation during the signing of the register. Mrs. Madsen wore a turquoise ensemble with bead trim, white hat and silver shoes. The groom's mother, Mrs. Larsen, chose a dusty pink gown with French lace bodice and sleeves and matching accessories.

A reception for over one hundred and fifty guests was held at the community hall where the LCW with the 4th girls assisting, served a delicious turkey banquet. Henry Pedersen was Master of Ceremonies. The head table was centered with the traditional Wedding Cake with the gold cross on top, symbol of Christian marriage. Beside the cake stood a candle decorated with a set of entwined wedding rings, depicting eternal love, sent from Germany by Gloria Sheneman, sister of the bride. Mr. Victor Madsen gave the Toast to the Bride which was happily responded to by the groom. He then proposed a toast to the parents. The Toast to the Bridesmaids was given by Douglas Larsen. Margaret Nielsen sang "Give Us This Day".

Open House was held for family and friends at the Carl Madsen home in the evening. For going away, the bride donned a blue Porcelaine suit, hand knit cape, and white accessories. After a camping trip to Warrenton, the happy young couple will reside in Edmonton where Phillip will be in third year Agriculture and Carol will continue her training as Lab Technologist.

Out of town guests came from Athabasca, Wainwright, Edmonton, Calgary and Bremor.

EDITORIAL

The parents of Strathmore Immediate School District are quite prepared to settle for any type of school which will enable their children to receive a comparable education with other Canadian children.

The ever-growing in some grades at the Elementary level must reflect on the education these youngsters will receive. Thirty-seven children in one classroom can hardly be called conducive to modern education practices.

The teacher relationship to pupils has to be unsatisfactory with so many children to be taught. Only the pupil with natural ability can absorb mass education. The child that requires coaching and instruction has faint hope. Even the most dedicated of teachers will not be able to spend those extra minutes to obtain the little puzzles which occur in a developing mind.

The portable classrooms are serving as a stop-gap measure but taxpayers must have very strong stomachs when they are told that as many as fifteen of these units will probably be needed with no sign of any other way out of the dilemma.

Rental has long been deplored by the true Westerner and "your own place" has been the struggle for most. Hundreds of thousands of dollars paid out for rental or portable units will certainly be hard to bear. Thank Heaven the manufacturers of the portable units are Western Canadians and the money will stay in circulation in the West, but not much of it in Wheatland County!

680 MILLION BUSHEL WHEAT CROP ESTIMATED

United Grain Growers estimates prairie farmers will harvest a 680,000,000-bushel wheat crop this year on an average yield predicted at 27.8 bushels to the acre.

The forecast is 113 million bushels more than the average production during the last 10 years, but is well under the 807 million bushels of wheat harvested in 1966. The new crop will be added to a wheat carryover estimated by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics on July 31 at 846 million bushels.

U.G.G. also predicts a record barley crop of 360 million bushels and a record rye/crop of 39.6 million bushels.

FARMERS' UNION OF ALBERTA

The Farmers' Union of Alberta, deeply concerned with the "exceptionally low income position" of many of this province's farmers, met with Premier Storn and his Cabinet Wednesday, Sept. 3, to present its views on the provincial government's role in the problem.

Commodity prices, marketing, resource adjustment, policy and compulsory membership were among the topics discussed at the special conference.

The FUA emphasized that solutions to the very serious problems of the current shortage of cash and the ever-diminishing net farm income are urgently needed. To effect such solutions the following recommendations were made:

1. That every effort be made to increase returns to farmers by:
 - a. reorienting extension programs to assist producers in the field marketing;
 - b. establishing and maintaining the producer's bargaining power in the market place;
 - c. establishing floor prices for commodities which are presently being consumed within the province at drastically low prices;
 - d. providing assistance to farmers in implementing supply management.
2. That a negative income tax system be instituted to help low income families.

3. That marketing be given top priority in research programs.

4. That the Prairie Grain Advance Payments Act be amended to allow a more equitable larger advance; and that failing this, the Province provide funds which will permit farmers to continue their operations.

5. That the cream subsidy be reinstated until such time as a program is developed for providing alternate sources of income.

6. That grants and low interest loans be made available to farmers who cannot make production shifts because of low income or a lack of capital resources.

7. That ARDA funds be increased substantially for the purpose of farm consolidation and land retirement programs.

8. That, failing to place the sale of feed grains under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Wheat Board, a provincial producer feed grain marketing agency be set up.

9. That legislation be passed permitting a check-off on the sale of agricultural products for the purpose of financing a direct-membership organization which could deal with the farm income dilemma.

10. That rural development and planning programs be designed to maximize employment in rural areas.

11. That financial assistance be made available to farm organizations to promote Alberta's agricultural products in export markets through trade fairs, exhibits, etc., e.g., Expo, Japan.

COUNTY ASSESSMENT INCREASES

As many of you already know, a new assessment of all lands and improvements within the County of Wheatland No. 16, except farm buildings, has been made. The Assessment Act provides that an assessment shall not be used for more than seven years, except by special permission from the Department of Municipal Affairs. As our present assessment became effective in 1957, we have obtained special approval to use it for the years 1964 to 1969.

Another reason for undertaking the new assessment is to ensure that the ratepayers in the Wheatland County are contributing their fair share of tax money to the School Foundation Program Fund and the Hospital Benefits Fund. The amount of money that municipalities are required to contribute to these funds each year is based on the total assessed value of lands and improvements in a municipality. It is therefore, most important the assessed values are arrived at on the same basis in every municipality in Alberta.

The assessment in use at the present time was made in accordance with a Manual prepared in 1946, by the Department of Municipal Affairs. This Manual provided that the basic maximum land value to be used was $30.00 per acre. The new assessment has been conducted in accordance with the 1959 Manual, which provides that the maximum basic land value shall be $40.00 per acre. In other words, we could expect the total assessment to be increased by one-third. Industrial assessments will also be increased on the same basis. Most municipalities in Alberta have completed new general assessments on the basis of the new Manual. In the meantime, our assessment, on which the School Foundation Program regulation, and the regulation under the Hospital Benefits Act, have been based on an equalized assessment, which is established by the Alberta Assessment Equalization Board, in Edmonton.

The whole Province is divided into zones according to the type of soil, and a rate per acre is established for each, the maximum being $40.00 per acre. The basic rate for this zone is then adjusted downwards according to the following factors:

- 1) Soil Zone
- 2) Depth of Soil
- 3) Sub-soil
- 4) Texture
- 5) Topography
- 6) Stones
- 7) Miscellaneous, such as severance, coulees, roads, railways, canals, alkali and frost hazards.

For this assessment aerial photographs were obtained and these are used by the assessor for his field work, as they can apply a grid to the photo and determine the acreage of cultivated land, coulees, sloughs, farm yards, or anything else that may affect the assessment. They are very worth while. The County believes the assessment staff, which is provided by the Department of Municipal Affairs, are very conscientious and are very anxious to ensure that everyone will have an equitable assessment.

CATTLE NUMBERS CONTINUE DECLINE

The Canadian cattle and calf population continued to decline during the past year. At June 1, 1969 the cattle herd was estimated at 12,467,000 head, by the D.B.S. 15% below a year earlier and more than a half million head below the record high of 13 million at mid 1965. Eastern numbers

The field work has been completed, and assessment slips are being mailed out. At this time the assessment sheets are available at the office for anyone who wishes to determine how his assessment is arrived at, and compare it to the assessment of adjoining lands. The most important job of the assessor is to ensure that the valuation placed on any property is equitable. The assessment on some lands may appear to be high, but when compared with adjacent lands, it could be found to be in order. This is mentioned because it has been noted at times that an appeal is made on a quarter section on the ground that it is too high. When it is compared with other lands, it is found to be in order, and no change can be made.

The assessor reports the assessment on pasture lands has increased by a larger percentage than the assessment on cultivated lands. The assessment for pasture lands is based on the carrying capacity in animal units of the pasture according to grasses and condition of pasture. A schedule of values is prescribed for the different carrying capacities.

The assessment of irrigation in the County presents somewhat of a problem when one considers the use of the water and what benefits are received. In most areas the topography prevents the use of the water for crops such as potatoes or corn and permits mostly the irrigation of hay or pasture. Probably the greatest

NOTICE OF PREPARATION OF ASSESSMENT ROLL COUNTY OF WHEATLAND NO. 16

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll of the said municipality, made under the provisions of the Municipal Taxation Act, Chapter 54, R.S.A. 1967, has been prepared and will, for thirty (30) days, be open to inspection at the office of the undersigned of the municipality during business hours and that any person who desires to object to the entry of his name or that of any other person upon the said roll or to the assessed value placed upon any property must, within thirty (30) days from the date of this notice, lodge his complaint(s) in writing with the undersigned of the municipality.

DATED this 10th day of September 1969.

FRANK MARTIN

made. There are times, however, when adjustments are in order, when it is found that an error has been made, or some factor has been overlooked.

We have also noted at times that the reason for an appeal is that the taxes are too high. A Court of Revision can only deal with ASSESSMENT, and unless definite reason against the assessment is given, it is hard for the Court to deal with the appeal properly. We realize of course the two are related, as the assessment is one of the factors that determines the amount of tax to be paid. The other factor of course is the mill rate that is applied on the assessment, and is set out by the Council to raise the funds required to balance the budget.

As mentioned previously, the total assessment of the County could increase by one-third, due to the use of the new Manual. This doesn't necessarily mean that the taxes will go up by one-third, because the mill rate could be adjusted accordingly.

It is possible that on individual quarters the increase could be more than the one-third, and the taxes, therefore, would be affected accordingly. This would come about because of the change of the Assessment Manual, that deals with some of the assessment factors differently.

benefit of the system is the availability of water for farmsteads and stock. This was reflected by adding $100.00 to the assessment of each parcel that contains water rights and where irrigation is actually used for hay or pasture a further $2.00 per acre was added to the acreage irrigated. A severance factor was allowed where irrigation canals cut up the land and alkali and seepage damage was taken into consideration.

The Council hopes that this letter will help to familiarize you with some of the details regarding the new assessment. We plan to have some of the assessors available at the office between September 22 and October 3rd, so that anyone interested could discuss their assessments with them. The assessor would be willing to explain your assessed value, as arrived at according to the Manual. You are invited to attend at any time Monday to Friday, September 22 to October 3rd between 9:00 A.M. and 4:30 P.M. Come early, don't wait until late afternoon.

Trusting this information will be of some guidance to you.

COUNTY OF WHEATLAND NO. 16

were up fractionally but not enough to offset a 2% decline in the West. Numbers were down 1 to 2% in all provinces except Quebec, which recorded a 3% increase, and Ontario, where numbers were practically unchanged.

Dairy cow numbers, estimated at 2,584,000 head, were down 1% from a year ago. Eastern numbers remained almost unchanged, accounting for 80% of the national dairy herd, while Western numbers were down 7%. On the other hand dairy heifer numbers increased (3%) and Western numbers declined (7%).

The beef cow herd was estimated at 2,909,100 head at June 1, 1969, only fractionally below a year ago. Eastern numbers increased 4% as re-provinces, except Nova Scotia show gains. Western beef cow numbers declined 1% with the reduction to similar (1-2%) in each province. Beef heifer numbers gained 1% as a 5% Eastern increase more than off-set a 1% decline in the Western provinces. Calves were estimated 3,399,200 head at June 1, 1969, 1% from a year earlier with the decrease common to both Eastern and Western regions.

KITCHEN KAPERS

Now that there's a hint of frost in the air, there's not much time left to make jams, jellies and conserves. But fortunately at no time of the year is there such an array of preserving fruits - purple grapes and plums, pears, apples and late peaches. There's a fruit to suit every taste and every preserve.

What's more, the modern homemaker knows how easy it is to preserve with commercial fruit pectin. She knows she can preserve any fruit, simply by following the recipes which come with every package or bottle of pectin. There's no fear of failure - her jam or jelly will set perfectly and it will retain the colour and flavor of perfectly ripened fruit because the cooking time is so short.

PEAR AND ORANGE JAM

Yield: About 10 medium glasses (5 lbs. jam)
4-1/2 cups prepared fruit (about 2 quarts (2-1/2 lbs.) ripe pears and 2 oranges)
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
5-1/2 cups (2 lbs. 6 oz.) sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

First, prepare the fruit. Peel and core about 2 quarts (2-1/2 pounds) fully ripe pears. Grind pears and 2 whole oranges, or chop very fine. Mix well. Measure 4-1/2 cups into a very large saucepan. Add 1/2 cup chopped walnuts.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin.

PLUM NUTTY CONSERVE

Yield: About 10 medium glasses
4 cups prepared fruit (about 2 quarts (2-1/2 lbs.) fully ripe plums)
1/2 cup reconstituted frozen orange juice concentrate
1-1/2 teaspoons grated orange rind (optional)
1/2 cup finely chopped walnut
6 cups (2 pounds 10 ounces) sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Pit (do not peel) about 2 quarts plums. Cut in pieces and chop. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan. Add orange juice, orange rind, and nuts; mix well.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepan. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. Immediately add all sugar and stir. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 min., stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin.

GRAFF AND FLUM JELLY

Yield: About 8 medium glasses (4 lbs. jelly)
3-1/2 cups juice (about 1 generous quart (1-1/2 pounds) ripe grapes and about 1-1/2 quarts (2 lbs.) fully ripe plums)
4-1/2 cups sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare the juice: Stem about 1 generous quart (1 1/2 lbs.) fully ripe grapes and crush thoroughly. Crush thoroughly about 1-1/2 qts. (2 lbs.) fully ripe plums (do not peel or pit). Combine fruits. Add 3/4 c. water; bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 3-1/2 cups into a large saucepan.

To make the jelly: Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding juice over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim off foam with metal spoon. Pour quickly into glasses, cover jelly at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin.

Quickly pour into jars. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature until set (may take up to 24 hours); then store in freezer. If jelly will be used within 2 or 3 weeks, it may be stored in the refrigerator.

NOTE: For ease in extracting juice, heat grapes slightly; then crush using a potato masher or food mill.

J. P. CHRISTENSEN GOLDEN WEDDING

Jim and Elizabeth Christensen, early settlers and still residents of the Dalum district celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding on August 28, 1909.

The wedding was solemnized at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church in Streeter, Illinois in 1910, and fifty years later, Jim and Elizabeth renewed their wedding vows before the altar at St. Anthony's Church in Drumheller. Father Don O'Dwyer officiated at the Nuptial Mass in Drumheller. The best man at the wedding, Frank Neumann, brother of the bride was in attendance at the golden wedding celebration but the bridesmaid, Mae Markert was unable to be here.

ROSEBUD

"Round and round the combines are going. But where the grain will be sold nobody knows." That's about the picture of Rosebud farmers right now. Harvest weather is almost "Custom built" this year. Just think—if there was a market for wheat farm folk wouldn't have a complaint.

Have reports of some vacations that Rosebud folks took. Hope that everyone had a fairly good summer vacation period. Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Noy returned well rested after their weeks in Holland and Germany. They report a most enjoyable holiday over there. Others flying to Europe this summer were the Richard Furt's (near the No. 9 Highway) who visited Switzerland, Holland, Belgium and Germany with most of their time being spent in Germany. They were away over a month.

An oldtimer of Rosebud, Mr. Walter Jensen Sr. also travelled by jet to Europe to visit his many relations in Denmark. Mr. Jensen says he thoroughly enjoyed the plane ride—just like sitting in the living room. He had a good visit with his two sisters and brother whom he hadn't seen for over sixty years, having left Denmark at that time. Mr. Jensen spent a few years in U.S.A. before coming to Rosebud area where he has been for a good sixty years.

Turning our attention to Canadian holidays we see that Mr. and Mrs. William Watson spent ten days motoring to Alida, Sask. when they attended the funeral of Mr. Watson's sister, Mrs. May Jensen. Sympathy is extended to Mr. Watson on the loss of his sister.

CROP MARKETING

The concern of the day right now is the marketing of our crops. They say it will probably get worse too, before it gets better.

In the interest of a better understanding of the situation, I wish to report that we are well on our way with plans to hold a series of meetings on "Crop Marketing" starting Thursday, January 8th, 1970. Top speakers are being contacted to speak at the meetings to be held on eight consecutive Thursdays in January and February.

CATTLE NUMBERS CONTINUE DECLINE

The Canadian cattle and calf population continued to decline during the past year. At June 1, 1969 the cattle herd was estimated at 12,467,000 head, the D.B.S., 1% below a year earlier and more than a half million head below the record high of 13 million at mid 1965. Eastern numbers were up fractionally but not enough to offset a 2% decline in the West. Numbers were down 1 to 2% in all provinces except Quebec, which recorded a 3% increase, and Ontario, where numbers were practically unchanged.

Dairy cow numbers totalled 2,584,000 head, were down 1% from a year ago.

The beef cow herd was estimated at 2,909,100 head at June 1, 1969, only fractionally below a year ago. Eastern numbers increased 4% as all provinces, except Nova Scotia show gains. Western beef cow numbers declined 1% with the reduction quite similar (1-2%) in each province. Beef heifer numbers gained 1% as 3% Eastern increase more than offset a 1% decline in Western provinces. Calves were estimated at 3,999,900 head at June 1st, down 1% from a year earlier with the decrease common to both eastern and Western regions.

INCREASED HOG RUN COMING

If the latest Canada Dept. of Agriculture hog forecast proves accurate, then hog runs this year should be higher than a year ago. However, for the current quarter (July-September) weekly marketings are expected to average 138,800 head, a decline of 3% from marketings of the corresponding 1968 quarter. Eastern marketings are expected to be down 2%, and western output down 4%. Manitoba runs are expected to be 6% above a year ago. In the first six weeks of the present quarter, weekly runs averaged 127,580 head.

Marketings during the fourth quarter this year are expected to run 4% above the 1968 level with the increase general in both East and West. All provinces, except Alberta and British Columbia, are expected to show increased marketings compared to a year earlier. The largest percentage increases, about 10-11%, are forecast for Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

For the six months January through June of next year, a 10% increase in marketings compared to a year earlier is expected bringing average weekly marketings to 159,900 head. Eastern output for the first half of 1969 is forecast to run 9% higher with Western runs 12% above year earlier levels.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

CHRISTENSEN - BRANDT

On Sunday, August 10th at 2 P.M. Namareth Lutheran Church in Standard was the setting for a marriage conducted by Pastor Luther Abrahamson daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Alex Christensen of Standard and Lars Brandt, only son of Mrs. Mette Brandt of Lolland, Denmark, exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony. The ceremony was unique in that the bride took her vows in English and the groom took his in Danish.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress, fashioned by her mother, in the pristine French lace panel was carried through to the long flowing train. The inverted pleat at the back was accented by a bow and a long ash which flowed over the train. Her 3 tiered veil which was the back of her head was caught on either side by a tiara of pink roses and white carnations. Her bouquet was a cascade of pink roses and white carnations and she carried a handkerchief and wore a leaf gold bracelet originally used by her great - great grandmother in 1857. Matron of honor, sister of the bride, Kathleen Nelson and the two bridesmaids, friends of the bride, Linda Harris and Linda Bennett all wore identical floor length gowns, styled as the bride's, in a mauve dotted swiss over silk taffeta trimmed with white and pink daisies. The small flower girl Carol Ann Brandt carried a basket of pink and white carnations and she carried a basket of white carnations and pink roses with carnations flowerless in the center.

The groom was flanked by his two friends from Denmark, Ernst Hansen as bestman and Henning Hansen as groomsmen. The bridesmaids were Murray Nelson and Jeff Christensen. The bride wore a Mother of the bride chose a canary yellow dress trimmed with silver and white Belgian lace and a silver draped crown, wearing a salmon and silver carnelian corsage.

Organist Mrs. Lois Hansen accompanied the soloist Mr. Burge Larsen, uncle of the bride as he sang the "23rd Psalm".

The Community Hall which was the setting for the reception was decorated in the pink and white theme with flowers and silhouettes of the bridal couple. One wall of special interest consisted of pictures of the brides new home in Denmark and many of the traditional Danish telegrams. The magnificent 5 tiered cake was specially decorated for the bride by her sister Mrs. Karen Runner. The program, ably MC'd by Howard Rasmussen expressed his desires that his mother and sister from Denmark could have been in attendance and be in return presented a tribute to his mother and his newly created parents, the toast to the parents was presented by Kathleen Nelson. A saxophone solo capably played by the brides cousin Darrell Nelson, and white piano solo by a talented friend, Keltie Lees; and an enjoyable solo by Marilyn Abrahamson. A touch of humor was added when the bride presented to the father-of-the-bride a new straw hat to compensate for the inability to acquire a hat after the weddings of 3 daughters within a year. A recording was made on tape of the ceremony and program which included messages from well-wishers, friends and relatives who came from as far as Vancouver, Quebec and Denmark.

For going away the bride chose a pink ensemble of a newly made top with a green coat and had 3/4 sleeves cuffed with a double row of maribou, plus a matching hat of pink linen. The young couple will make a honeymoon trip to Denmark where they will reside at McSpellie Lolland.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white peau de soie with panel front, and lace overdress and train. Her chapel veil hung from a dainty pearl tiara. The bride's bouquet was of double-breasted roses, white gardenias and stephanotis.

The bridesmaid wore a dainty silk and lace gown in pale yellow, with matching veil and carried white roses, carnations and stephanotis. Mrs. Martin wore a pale green ensemble with white accessories. The groom wore a white tuxedo. The bride's mother a pink lace dress with matching accessories and pink rose corsage.

Following the marriage service, Mrs. Marilyn Dyck sang "O Perfect Love." The bride party left to the strains of a wedding march played by the organist.

A reception for 85 guests was held at the Crossroads Motor Hotel, in the Ball Room. Guests of honor were seated at a long table centered by a beautiful three tiered wedding cake and floral bouquets. A toast to the bride was proposed by Barbara's Uncle, George Palinkas, and responded to by the groom. Wayne Jensen proposed a toast to the bridesmaid.

A Highland pipe band of Shriners paraded through the hall, and called to the bride and groom to play a selection for the young couple and their guests, and greet the bride.

After opening the many lovely gifts dancing was enjoyed until time for the bride party to leave. Dennis and Barbara planned to drive to the west coast, and on their return stop to make their home at 1908 Matheson Drive, Mayland Hts., Calgary.

CUTTING COSTS

Right now homemakers are wondering where they can cut down on expense. September is a costly month with school books and clothes to be purchased. It may appear to many homemakers that cutting down on food costs is the only way to hold the budget in line.

There are many ways you can cut down on food costs. However, it is unwise to cut down at the expense of good nutrition. Doctors and dentist bills could cost a great deal more than the price of the food you save.

Be sure and check your newspapers for weekly specials. For large families sometimes buying canned vegetables in case lots may be a saving. Try comparison shopping. It takes a few minutes, but may save you dollars. To help you comparison shop, the Canada Department of Agriculture put out a Consumer's Cost for 50¢. This calculator is a handy guide for determining the cost per unit of items you buy.

There are many money saving menu ideas available also. "Beans" and "Thrift" meals with canned vegetables are two publications available from the District Home Economist, with a wealth of ideas for economical dishes. Stop in for a copy of these publications and have a look at the others on display and available in the D.A. Office, Strathmore.

NEXT YEAR:

How good are you at predicting the future? Just as good as I am no doubt - lucky if you can chalk up a 50% record.

CANADIAN
DROPPING

OTTAWA - The peaking of Canadians' per capita cigarette consumption in 1966 and its subsequent decline was reported by Health Minister, John Munro. Per capita annual consumption of manufactured plus hand rolled cigarettes per person 15 years of age and over decreased from 3,961 in 1966 to 3,755 in 1968, a drop of 5 per cent.

Mr. Munro pointed out that published figures frequently show only the total production or sales without relation to population changes. The figures released are related to numbers of persons in Canada 15 years of age and over as well as to the whole population. Therefore, the figures released since 1966 are most indicative of what is happening than figures of total sales. Figures per person 15 years of age and over are considered to be the most realistic since they refer to the age group in which the majority of smokers are found.

"We hope the downward trends will continue and ultimately be reflected in decreases in premature deaths from heart attacks, lung cancer and chronic bronchitis and emphysema," Mr. Munro said. "Already, however, there are many persons who are enjoying life more since they have cut down or cut out cigarettes."

POTATO STORAGE

A great many storage problems can be avoided by properly "curing" potatoes when they are first put into storage, says Dr. H. Hartman of the Alberta Plant Industry Division.

This "curing" or "skin-setting" process necessitates a relatively high temperature and a high level of humidity. A new protective skin will form on the potatoes within a week to ten days after they have been put into storage if the temperature is kept between 50 and 55 degrees F. and the relative humidity above 90 per cent. This new skin helps to protect the tubers against disease and reduces moisture losses. Potatoes will not "cork-over" in cold, dry air.

Potatoes that will be removed from storage before the middle of December should be kept at about 45 degrees F. after the "curing" period. The same temperature is alright for stock that will be held longer, providing a good airtight inhibitor has been used, there is a good flow of humidity is maintained.

If these three conditions cannot be met, the potatoes should be cooled to 40 degrees F. and held at this temperature until just before they are removed from storage. Because cold, brittle potatoes are easily injured, they should be warmed to a temperature of 45 to 50 degrees F. before being taken out of storage. The relative humidity should be kept above 90 per cent. To maintain it at this level, the storage facilities must be adequately insulated, have good air circulation and a temperature that can be accurately controlled.

A reliable ventilating system is extremely important because it is to maintain the desired temperature and humidity within the potato piles themselves. This may be achieved by circulating the air through the space between potatoes or by circulating air through a space between the potatoes and the wall of the building. Gravity ventilating systems are still used, but have three serious drawbacks. One is that a brick breeze causes several hundred times the amount of ventilation needed, which results in extra shrinkage in the potatoes. The second is the small amount of air circulating when the weather is really cold, and the third is moisture condensation on the cold walls and floor. A forced air system overcomes many of these problems but must be set up to distribute the air in such a way that all the potatoes benefit equally.

Finally, to avoid what can amount to substantial storage losses, Dr. Munro stresses that the storage facilities must be clean when the new crop is brought in. All the old potatoes and any other rubbish should be removed and the area thoroughly disinfected with a chemical recommended to kill bacterial and fungus diseases. Information on these and all other aspects of potato production is contained in the publication "Potato Production in Alberta" available from all District Agriculturists' offices.

I'll take a chance and predict a tremendous run on CLOVER SEED next year as farmers look for alternative crops to seed that will sell or hold the land out of wheat production for a few years. I may be wrong, but need acreage will tend to be culturally generally in 1970 with surpluses staring us in the face from all directions.

Some may want to vary the forage crop and develop a seed production enterprise that can be harvested with the machinery already owned. Any comments are welcome.

MAKE ALB-RTA WARBLE FREE:

A 1968 survey conducted at fifteen meat packing plants in Alberta and Saskatchewan by the Meat Packers' Council of Canada showed that damage to the carcasses and hide ranged from $2.00 to $10.00 per grub-infested animal.

The loss to the Packing Industry from Warble damage during the twenty week period of the survey in the two provinces amounted to about one-half million dollars. The U.S. Livestock Observation Incorporated estimates that producer loss is four times greater and tanner loss is 2 1/2 times greater than at the packer level. Thus the total loss from Warble Flies and Grubs exceeds in Western Canada is likely conservative at ten million dollars.

Farmers are quite familiar with the gadding or stampeding of cattle during the active heel summer season. Burrowing grubs in cattle injure various body organs, cause considerable irritation and result in reduced milk and meat yields.

In the livestock industry, modern insecticides can effectively control grubs as well as cattle lice. Systemic insecticides prove best control when applied during September, October and November. Co-ral and Ruelene can be used as a pour-on application. Label directions should be followed closely. Milking cows should not be treated with any of the systemic but Rotenone Warble Wash or Duct can be used in the spring.

To obtain full benefit of warble control, community action is necessary. One or more untreated herds of cattle can re-infest an entire district. It was demonstrated in the Forebarg area of Alberta between 1959-61 that the Warble Fly can be exterminated after three full treatments of all cattle.

Discuss the warble and lice problems with your neighbors. Organize a warble and lice free of warble free areas. Make Alb-RTA Warble free.

The Reece Kenney's have their daughter Sharon (Mr. and Mrs. Peter Morandi) and children of Calgary visiting them. The Morandis enjoyed wonderful week's holiday in B.C. this past summer. It is a pleasure to report on the extended European tour that Mrs. Luella Kenney, Redlands and two of her sisters from Edmonton took. Bud and Anne Hebbes have moved into their lovely new home and all their friends in the district wish them much happiness, which is well deserved.

CAIRNHILL

Little Kimberly Foster has been a patient in the Foothills Hospital. We are glad to hear she is much better and it is expected she will be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon McLachlin have returned home after spending holidays in B.C. Among points visited while there were Vernon and Creston, and also an enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jens Sorensen of Armstrong.

Mrs. Doreen McRae and children of Calgary spent the week-end with her sister Mrs. Irene Ridsdon and family.

CAIRNHILL LADIES' CLUB

The Cairnhill Ladies' Club held their September meeting at the home of Connie Blackley with a small attendance.

The lunch committee decided to help the surplus grain situation by serving "Barley Sandwiches". Our Secretary, Mrs. A. Now returned from her holidays so it will be back to business for an October meeting, which will be held at the home of Phyllis Groves.

CROWFOOT

Mr. and Mrs. D. Angus and Kevin from Calgary were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Woldum.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Newell and Family had Sunday supper with the latter's folks, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dunmore in Calgary.

Vienna - Switzerland where they enjoyed a much needed "vacation" - down the Rhine on a four-day cruise - back to Rotterdam - then Amsterdam and landing home in Edmonton on August 20. They took their tour to Strasbourg, Heidelberg and Cologne. Mrs. Kenney named the Strathburg Cathedral, the Rhine Cruise and the dip over the Leaning Tower as highlights of their trip. She was especially impressed with paintings and other works of art of which she saw many. In Leningrad, she considered the Great St. Palace (Peterhof Palace) magnificent. The gardens and fountains were just beautiful even though restoration after the second world war is not yet complete. The Hermitage Museum, part of the huge palace is a must on anyone's tour of Leningrad, says Mrs. Kenney. The paintings and treasures in this valuable collection are second only to those in the Vatican. It is good to see that they are being preserved and that the damaged parts are being restored. Mrs. Luella Kenney says that they are doing the repair work room by room, doing a very good job of it. She did some background reading prior to her most interesting trip but discovered that one cannot do enough such reading to really gain everything from such a tour. She really enjoyed every bit of her vacation and hopes to see Italy on a future vacation.

Mrs. Alvina Bertsch spent Labor Day week-end at the home of her sister in Calgary.

The Fred Biblow's took in the wedding dance of Mrs. Biblow's nephew, Mr. Roy McLean at Beddington Hall, Calgary on Sept. 13.

Let us have your news items please!

TRAVEL WARDROBE

There is no need to look like a wrinkled travel-weary tourist at the end of a day of sightseeing.

Whether you're travelling near or far, in Canada or abroad, the easy care fabrics are a must for wrinkle-free travelling says Mrs. Marilyn Heming, clothing specialist with the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Knit garments are the best and for knit are at the top of the list for versatility. They are machine washable, no need for ironing and are available in a large variety of styles, colors and patterns.

Mrs. Heming suggests you choose a travel wardrobe of knitted suits, dresses, pants and tops which mix and match.

WHY YOU NEED BREADS AND CEREALS

If you have become extremely irritable on your latest carbohydrate free reducing diet, Miss Alvin Berg, foods and nutrition specialist with the Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, says it could be due to lack of B vitamins. Besides being essential for the normal functioning of the nervous system, the B vitamins contained in breads and cereals are needed for growth, maintenance of normal digestion and appetite and attractive skin.

Recent research suggests carbohydrates be eaten with protein foods because carbohydrates help with digestion and absorption of the protein. This is one of the reasons you should never exclude breads and cereals when on a high protein reducing diet.

Miss Berg says breads are not as fattening as some believe. An average slice of enriched white bread has about 75 calories, no more than an average apple or small banana.

HOUSEWIFERY: TRAP OR OPPORTUNITY?

What - or who - traps the housewife? Is it the man, outmoded authoritarian, who considers her in effect a "possession," limited in what she can and cannot do? Or is the trap - real or imagined - sprung by the woman herself?

Whatever the answers, the "trapped" feeling is real for many wives, and a two-part discussion in the September Reader's Digest examines some of the most common causes of dissatisfaction, and offers pointed suggestions on how to remedy them.

The woman with young children, living in a community distant from close friends or relatives, without enough money to afford a regular babysitter, spends her day virtually isolated from the outside adult world. She may be effectively imprisoned in her own neighborhood if mass transportation isn't available and her husband uses the car for work.

Part of the discussion deals with fatigue and the causes. Is it psychological? Too much housework? Not enough sex? Poor eating habits? Boredom? For some housewives, life suddenly seems sterile. Today's young woman is educated to be competitive and independent, to use her mind and to strive for achievements. Yet when she marries, this same girl is expected to become a noncompetitive housewife and mother who derives her principal pleasures from these roles.

A housewife of four years reveals how she came to regard the life of a housewife as a great opportunity. Having succeeded by working hard at a great many things she loved, she heartily recommends the role of a housewife as a fortunate, difficult, and joyful way of life.

ACCIDENTS DO NOT JUST HAPPEN

Saturday is the most dangerous day of the week to a young child. And any late afternoon is the time when he or she is most likely to be hurt in household accidents, which kill more children than cancer, congenital deformities and pneumonia combined.

Researchers at a Boston Children's Hospital have proved that most accidents involving preschool age children can be prevented. In the July issue of Chetelaine, writer Joan Nankivell says there are about twenty common factors in child accidents, and the Boston study proves that one or more of these factors is present in all such household disasters.

For instance, the accident victim was often hungry or tired - he had missed a nap or his mealtime was delayed. Or the mother was ill, pregnant or suffering from premenstrual tension, or another member of the family was sick. Among other findings was that children in a home where the parents had separated are more accident-prone than in normal households.

"The only cure is prevention," says Mrs. Nankivell. "The best answer seems to be a balanced combination of protection and education."

HANDY HINTS

If you wish to get rid of any unpleasant odor in your refrigerator, place a small container filled with fresh coffee grounds in it.

If large trees have become a problem, you can destroy them and their roots by boring holes near the bottom and filling them with salt. This seems to enrich the soil and has been known to kill roots up to forty feet long.

1970 Pontiac. This is the way it's going to be.

Bold. Confident. Classic. For 1970, Pontiac has even outdone Pontiac. In 48 ways. And 28 of them are brand new additions to your Pontiac dealer's regular model lineup. There are the new longer-wheelbase, luxury Pontiacs—Bonnevilles, Executives and Catalinas. There's a whole new team of "intermediate" Pontiacs—LeMans Sport, LeMans and Tempest—altogether 12 trim-line newcomers to the Pontiac family. Then there are the Pontiac vehicles names you know, like 2+2, Parisienne, Laurentian, Strato-Chief and Safari. And of course, there's GTO. So great that for 1970 it's been dubbed "The Humble". And Grand Prix Pontiac's ultimate Pontiac—elegantly refined.

And rounding out your Pontiac dealer's exciting lineup is the 1970 Acadian. Here's a smaller, low-price car that gives you a beautifully-styled basic coupe or sedan and lets you tailor it to your personal taste from a long list of options.

We take the fun of driving seriously!

SCHOOL MINUTES

At this time, if it is your pleasure, we would like to discuss this with you now."

Following this Mr. Van Wezel, J. Fedorak and Rev. Marlor put forth views that the elected School Committee should fulfill their duties and obligations to the people and hold a plebiscite on the High School issue in the near future. The overextended situation of the Strathmore schools was brought out by the group and the inadequacy of the portables plus the high cost of renting the portables, was discussed. A letter from Hon. Gordon E. Taylor which was previously read to the School Committee was read again at this time. Mr. Taylor has requested a meeting with the School Committee on Sept. 19th, and Chairman Phillips indicated that the School Committee plan to receive Mr. Taylor's representatives before making any decision on a plebiscite.

MAINTENANCE APPLICATIONS: Moved "That the County of Wheatland grant the usual maintenance allowance to the following students: Bernard Gibeau - Cluny, Earl Jensen - Hussar, William Short - Strathmore, Wayne Dundas - Hussar, Wade Dundas - Hussar, Stephen Selgen - Hussar, Morris Gingsas - Cluny; and furthermore, the County of Wheatland do not grant maintenance allowances to the following students: Gordon Billow - Rosebud, Lois Stolz - Rosebud as satisfactory programs are available at the Standard School." Carried.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT: Mr. Holman, Superintendent of Schools, presented his report covering the following:

1) Education Agreements - recommended the School Committee arrange for official education agreements with outside school authorities such as St. Rita's Separate School District.

2) Teacher Aides - recommended that Mrs. Carol Meyer continue as teacher aide at Standard on the basis of four only one-half days per week. Hussar is to have a teacher aide on a part-time basis the same as last year. Strathmore has one full-time aide - J. Murray who shall continue in this capacity and furthermore, due to the high enrolment, Mr. Holman recommends the County engage one full-time teacher aide for the Strathmore Junior and Senior High School.

3) Maintenance - Edward Petersen of Chancellor found it necessary to take Mathematics 131 at Standard for College Credit and August 1969. Since he could not complete his high school education within the County he is asking the County for maintenance. Considering the past policy of the School Committee, Mr. Holman recommends that payment of maintenance do not be made to Edward Petersen.

4) Teacher Training Bursaries - recommended granting of teacher training bursaries to Shan Quan and Wendy Malmberg.

5) Teacher Librarians - Mr. Holman read a letter from the Department of Education outlining statistics on teacher librarians, government grants, and the following teachers:

- Rev. John L. Prince - Half-time - Cluny
- Mrs. E.V. Tromes
- Mrs. M. Beaudoin

7) Cluny Grade Nine Bus Arrangements - The following arrangements have been made at the Glenchen school to accommodate the Cluny Grade 9 students - Cluny Grade 9 students are dismissed at 3:20 daily at Glenchen, thereby losing 10 minutes of the study period and Cluny school dismisses at 3:40 p.m. thereby allowing time for the students to come from Glenchen.

8) Strathmore Grade Six Class - As there are 71 pupils in Grade Six at Strathmore, Mr. Holman recommends that a third teacher be engaged for this situation.

9) Blackfoot Indian Student Enrolments - Preliminary data indicate the following numbers of Blackfoot Indian students in County schools: Carlsbad - 26, Cluny - 18, Glenchen 27, Standard - 23, Strathmore - 47, Rockyford - 13. TEACHER AIDE: Moved "That the County engage a teacher aide to work in the Strathmore Junior and Senior High School." Carried.

MAINTENANCE - PETERSEN: Moved "That the County do not grant maintenance for the summer courses taken by Edward Petersen at Mount Royal Junior College." Carried.

TEACHER TRAINING BURSARIES: Moved "That the County of Wheatland grant teacher training bursaries to assist the following students in education during the 1969-70 University term: Shan Quan, Wendy Malmberg." Carried.

TEACHER ENGAGEMENTS: Moved "That the County of Wheatland engage the following teachers: Rev. John L. Prince, half-time; Mrs. E.V. Tromes, Mrs. M. Beaudoin." Carried.

STRATHMORE GRADE SIX TEACHER: Moved "That the County of Wheatland engage an extra Grade Six teacher for Strathmore Samuel Crowther School." Carried.

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT ACCEPTED: Moved that the report of Superintendent Holman be accepted as presented. Carried.

COUNTY CARE TAKERS: Moved "That the County of Wheatland engage Mrs. Georgina Cornelissen as caretaker for the Hussar School with duties to commence Sept. 1st, 1969; and engage Mrs. Doreen Smith as caretaker of the Strathmore Westmount Elementary School, with duties to commence Sept. 1st, 1969." Carried.

HUSSAR BUS CONTRACT: Moved "That the County of Wheatland award Gordon Kroon of Standard a bus contract for the 1969-1970 school year to operate a small school bus from Nakepa to Standard on the understanding that he shall purchase a new bus as soon as delivery can be arranged." Carried.

ZONE 3 A.S.T.A.: Moved "That Thurston be appointed Director to Zone 3 A.S.T.A. and representative on C.B.C. Board." Carried.

MEETING RECESS: By previous motion this meeting has been recessed to Friday, September 19th, 1969.

OCTOBER MEETING DATE: Moved "That the regular October School Committee meeting be held on Tuesday, October 14th, 1969, commencing at 9:00 a.m." Carried.

EDITORIAL

Strathmore's Faring Program seems well underway. Most of the gutters and curbs have now been laid.

On some of the streets the contractors have left as much as four feet between sidewalk and curb, as a boulevard.

These areas could be used to enhance the looks of the town and if trees were planted and grass sown they would do wonders for the looks of Strathmore.

Does the Town Council intend putting some fill of good quality top soil on these boulevards? The suggestion as we heard it, was that they would be filled with gravel.

If this is the case and gravel is used perhaps a prize for "Lack of Imagination" could be awarded to those responsible.

SOIL SAMPLING

October is almost here and so is the time for taking soil samples. We have been saying for years - If it pays to seed a crop - it pays to fertilize, and it pays to take soil samples. The fact that we are faced with surplus doesn't really change the saying either. First of all, a farmer has to make the basic decision - to seed or not to seed in 1970. Economics may dictate the final decision.

If you plan to seed then should you plan to fertilize? It pays to fertilize - but the availability of cash, or credit, or the cost of credit, or the additional cost of fertilizing, may change the picture. If you can't sell the crop produced, the cost of credit may nullify this.

If you plan to fertilize, Soil Sampling will pay. Sampling kits are available at your local Extension Office, Elevator Agent and Fertilizer distributor centres. Pick yours up soon.

KITCHEN KAPERS

MUSHROOMS COMBINE WITH FALL'S SOUTHY

Frost is on the pumpkin and that means the mellow squash and apples are now at their best. Experiment with some of the many varieties of low cost squash and apples now on the market. Our recipe combines juicy pepper, squash, ground meat, tart cooking apples and tender fresh mushrooms in a dish that guarantees raves.

Tender, fresh mushrooms know no season. Enjoy them raw, right from the refrigerator for a crisp low calorie snack. Slice them into salads, steams and casseroles. Fill the caps with eggs, tuna or chicken salad. For a delicious treat, fill one pound mushroom caps with half a recipe for the ground meat mixture below. Use the chopped stems for the mushrooms called for in the recipe. Bake in a large greased casserole 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve hot. Yield about 30 caps.

SAVORY STUFFED SQUASH

3 pepper or acorn squash about 1 pound each
1/2 pound ground chuck
1/2 pound ground lean pork
1 cup finely chopped mushrooms
1 medium cooking apple chopped
1/2 medium onion chopped
1 egg
1/3 cup rolled oats
1/3 cup catsup
1 teaspoon salt
1 pepper
1/4 teaspoon summer savory or rosemary
1/4 teaspoon onion to 350 degrees. Cut squash in half through width. Remove seeds and salt lightly. Cut points off ends to make squash sit up. Grease a shallow casserole large enough to hold squash. Combine remainder of ingredients. Stuff lightly but well. Stuff squash with meat mixture rounding off top of meat. Place in casserole. Cover with lid or foil. Bake 1 1/2 hours or until squash is tender. Place any remaining meat in a 1 quart casserole and bake 45 minutes. Yield 4 servings.

C.W.L., will hold their Fall Bazaar and Tea on Nov. 29th.

FEDERAL GRAIN LTD. CROP REPORT

THE 1969 FRAIRIE GRAIN CROP (Conditions as of September 8, 1969.)

WHEAT: A bumper crop of all wheat, estimated at 659,000 bushels is presently being harvested in Western Canada. The increase of 50,000 bushels over last year's crop occurred despite a 1% reduction in wheat acreage. About sixty per cent of the crop threshed to date is grading No. 2 Northern. This is the predominating grade required by the major importing countries and is a welcome change from the 1968 crop which was harvested under the most adverse conditions ever encountered by Prairie farmers.

BARLEY: The 1969 barley crop is estimated to yield 40.3 bushels per acre, for a total of 362,992, 700 bushels. This is a record high yield in barley production, although the 1966 crop, with 40.4 bushels per acre, is the highest yield per acre in the last ten years.

OATS: For grain: Estimates on oat production are always complicated by the fact that a significant acreage of oats is cut for hay or silage. The extent to which this is done varies from year to year and depends on the availability of normal year hay supplies. The 1969 oat crop, at 33.0 bushels per acre is a record high yield. A total of 308,895,000 bushels is the estimate for the Prairies.

RYE: Rye production is estimated at 10,170,500 bushels. It is apparent that the last spring frost resulted in less damage than had been expected. The yield of 18.8 bushels per acre was well below the 1965 and 1966 crops, which recorded yields of 22.1 and 23.4 bushels per acre, respectively.

FLAX: Almost ideal growing conditions for flax have resulted in a crop estimated to yield 12.8 bushels per acre.

bushels per acre, a new record for the past 10 years. Although the yield was slightly lower than that recorded in 1958, the 1969 production of 31,104,700 bushels represents a record for the past ten years. The sharpest increase in production was in Saskatchewan and Alberta with an increase on the Prairies of 60% over the 1968 average.

RAPESEED: As a relatively new crop rape seed will undoubtedly be establishing many new records in the future. The 1969 crop of 2 million acres and the expected production of 36,578,400 bushels are two records which few people would have dared forecast five years ago. The average yield of 18.1 bushels per acre is almost a record, surpassed only by the 1932 crop which yielded 18.5 bushels per acre.

Under normal conditions Western farmers would be more than happy with the crops they are harvesting at the present time. Conditions at present however, are far from normal. On most farms storage facilities are bulging with grain carried over from previous years and finding storage for the current crop presents a real problem.

The size of this year's crop represents a real challenge to all those involved in the handling and marketing of western Canadian grains.

YOUTH AND FIRE PREVENTION

We often hear it said that in Canada we adults do not take fire destruction seriously enough. Consequently, we have one of the worst fire loss records of any country in the world. Granted some of us realize that the direct and indirect cost of fire adds materially to the cost of living.

Remaking Clothes:
Do some of last year's clothes look a bit old-fashioned this fall? If the garment is slightly out of style but not badly worn, you may think of remodeling it or making a new garment for one of your children.

In remodeling or remaking clothes every effort should be made for them to look like new. Remaking is practical if the garment cannot be refitted or restyled with a few changes or worn by someone else in its present condition.

The type of new garment you decide on will be largely determined by the fabric. Choose only fabrics in good condition for remakes. It is unprofitable to spend a great deal of time sewing a fabric which is not going to be durable and will not stand the wear. It would also be uneconomical to remake a garment if it was necessary to buy too much new material or trimming.

To begin remodeling do all the necessary mending. If you are completely remaking the garment you must rip the old seams. Be careful and do not stretch the seams as you are separating them. Worn edges should be trimmed and the lengthwise grain marked with a basting thread.

Clean the fabric before you start working, by either home washing or professional dry cleaning. Worn edges should be marked with a basting thread.

From here on, cutting and sewing the remake is very much the same as constructing a new garment. Pattern, however, is of some concern as it must have pieces which can be cut out of old sections. The easiest style of garment to remodel has simple design lines, large fabric pieces and is made of wool.

When remodeling a garment be as careful in every detail of construction as you would if the material were new and expensive. The results will be satisfying "something for nothing". If you don't put in your best endeavours the results will be a second rate garment - a great waste of time and good material.

ROSEBUD

By Mrs. F. Biblow

To date, the threat of rain has remained just that and farmers are busy in the invigorating weather, trying to complete the harvest.

Minnesota, U.S.A. is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. A. Noy for their second vacation this season. They left Sept. 19th, planning to motor all the way.

The time for 19th activities has again rolled around and the members of Severn Creek Students' Union kicked off their 1969-70 get-togethers with a winner roast at the fourth train bridge which was followed up with a short social hour in the school gym.

The George Comstock girls spent quite a bit of time with their grandparents in Leebridge during the summer vacation. Little Vera-Lynn stayed for three weeks without getting homesick.

Folks were sorry to hear that Mrs. Valley, a former resident of Rosebud, passed away recently, having been over ninety years of age.

Happy Birthday to Karen Silvestro who celebrated her 8th birthday Wed. Sept. 17th with a birthday party.

Mrs. Kay Van Bavel had an interesting holiday during the summer. She went to Toronto to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wicks. The name of course will be familiar to readers, as he is the cartoonist that produces those single column cartoons in the "18's".

So many of the dailies, Ben Wicks used to work for the North Hill News in Calgary and now he has achieved world fame. His cartoons appear in many North America newspapers and the London Times.

Ben Wicks will have an animated cartoon series appearing on Television.

BLACKFOOT

By George Fox

This past summer Blackfoot Reserve News participated in the parades of Basanago, Gleichen, Rockyford and Strathmore. May we express our most sincere thanks for the warm welcome reception given to us.

Mr. K.R. Brown, Superintendent of the Blackfoot/Parcey/Stoney districts of the Indian Affairs was transferred to the Regina Office in Toronto. His successor Mr. E. Daggett is the new district supervisor. Mr. Daggett came to us from Clandeby district, Winnipeg. A farewell party for Mr. Brown was held at Old Sun by members of the Band Council and staff of the Indian Affairs.

Sorry to report of the sudden death of Mrs. Nina Brown. Her sympathy is extended to members of her family.

We welcome Dr. D. S. Carroll, our new doctor for the Blackfoot Hospital to the Reserve. Dr. Carroll will be at the Blackfoot Hospital every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Joey Low Horn broke his collar bone as a result of playing football. Sorry to hear of the mishap Joey.

Sister Celene is presently ill in the Basanago Hospital. We send our get-well wishes.

New construction as well as major repair work on Housing has been started and should ease the housing situation somewhat on the Reserve.

Extension of the sewage system of both the Town of Gleichen and the Reserve area adjoining to it, may start shortly as tenders have been laid by I.A.B. This project will be paid for on a cost-sharing basis by I.A.B., Department of Health and Welfare and the Town of Gleichen.

We hope to build 2 or 4 miles of new road grade on the Reserve.

Unfortunately fire broke out at the grain field of Mr. Robert Breaker. About 35 acres of swath grain was burned. May we express our heartfelt thanks to all who helped in any way to help put the fire out.

Cheer up everybody Indian Summer is coming!

the Vice President, Mrs. Alfred Reinhardt.

The roll call was to bring mental gifts. Gifts for the food hamper to be raffled Oct. 4th at the Bake Sale were also brought.

We were sorry to hear that Queenstown W.I. had decided to not carry on any longer.

The Representative meeting will be held at Langdon either Oct. 22nd or 23rd.

We are still sending clothing to the Unitarian and it can be left at the home of Mrs. Lee Kinney. The hostess raffles were won by Mrs. Arthur Kimmitt, Mrs. Chas. Mercer and Mrs. Fred Knight.

The next meeting will be held on October 15th.

NOW WATCH OUT!

Plymouth

Barracuda 70

MAKES THE SCENE!

BARRACUDA: 1970 will bring nothing new. The long low hood is new. And the short, rear deck. The snug, functional cockpit is new, along with the rifty floor-mounted gear shift, the high back bucket seats and those big, readable gauges. You ride in the lowest four seater in the industry: on the widest stance offered by any North American sporty car. You're powered by engines which roam from a 225 Six to a 426 cubic inch 8 barrel V-8. And you choose from three basic models: Barracuda, Barracuda Gran Coupe and the hot new 'Cuda.

Sport Fury 2-Door Hardtop

FURY: Two brand new high performance Furies make the scene this year. Sport Fury GT and S/23. With dual hood runners, "dribble stripes" and power plants that go as high as a 440 six barrel on the GT. Extra width between the rear wheels gives Fury a new wide stance, more stability, better traction. Other new features include fiberglass-bellied tires, an anti-theft ignition switch on the steering column, hide-away headlamps. All in all, Fury is a car to remember. A car that says you've made it. And Plymouth makes it.

Valiant Duster

VALIANT DUSTER: A brand new compact Plymouth. Duster makes performance pay off with engines from a new 198 cubic inch Six to a 340 V-8. Duster handles nimbly with a total length of 188.4 inches sitting on a 108-inch wheelbase. Duster seats five with extra room for knees, hands, elbows. In short, Duster makes it.

Sport Satellite 2-Door Hardtop

BELVEDERE: Here's a line of cars sized beautifully in between compact and full-sized! There's G.T.X. and Road Runner for those who like 'em hot. Sport Satellite and Satellite for sports car buffs with families and Belvedere for people who want the comforts of a big car with the economy of a smaller car.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 5-11, 1969 PROMPT ACTION IN THE HOME

I smell smoke.
Hundreds of times a day, this is the outcry across the country. If it happens in your home, here is how to meet the emergency:

- Don't panic.

- Alert everybody, awake or asleep. Don't let them take time to dress. Get them out. Call the Fire Department. Summon nearby aid.

- If clothing or bedding is afire, roll the victim in a rug, blanket or window drape, smothering the flame.

- If frypan grease catches fire, cover the pan completely with a lid. Don't use water, it spreads the flame. Carrying out a blazing pan may spread fire to your clothing.

- If you are in an apartment, call the Fire Department at once.

- Close all doors or fire doors behind you. Alarm the occupants through use of fire alarm. Get out. Use the staircase, not the elevator.

SILENT KILLER, CARBON MONOXIDE

Toxic gases, not burns, are the commonest cause of death by fire. This is particularly true of fatalities resulting from smouldering bedding or upholstered sofas and chairs.
When you see the fire fighter chopping open the roof of a burnt building, it is let out the carbon monoxide fumes for rescue operations.

FORMER STRATHMORE MAN APPOINTED

Local people will be interested to learn that Gary J. Wicks, formerly of Strathmore, son of Mrs. Parsons, has been appointed assistant to the Governor of Montana, U.S.A.

Mr. Wicks left Strathmore some years ago, but received his early education here. He joined the Air Force and after his discharge he studied and obtained his bachelor degree in history and political science from the University of Montana.

For the past fourteen months, he has been a Research Assistant with the U.M. Bureau of Business and Economic Research. During that time, he completed post graduate studies in finance which led to a Masters Degree in Business Administration.

The Strathmore Lions Club should take some satisfaction from this success story as they financed, many years ago, an operation for Gary Wicks. He suffered with a condition to his neck which required surgery.

ROCKYFORD BROWNIE COFFEE PARTY

The Rockyford Brownies are getting set for their winter activities and new recruits will be welcomed.

The Strathmore Pack will hold a Coffee Party for members and their mothers. This get-together is to be held on October 9th at the Rockyford Public School at 3:30 p.m.

The new recruits must be seven years of age before October 31st.

TRAILER COURT

There will be a Trailer Court in Strathmore. The site has been prepared at the North end of the Town.

The promoter of this new complex is Elmer Gray and his son Harrison.

The Trailer Court, when full to capacity, will hold forty trailers. Some of the sites will accommodate sixty foot units and the layout will be on a chevron like plan.

There does not seem to be any problem about filling the Court as families have already made application for space.

The Trailer Court should look most attractive when complete with lawns and trees.

By A.E. Bridges
Alberta Fire Commissioner

There is something new this year in fire prevention, not a magic eye to alert people in case of fire, - we have had such a device for many years; but the trouble is most of us tend to keep our eyes closed to fire; this time it is a federal law, a new law, that in effect opens new fields in fire prevention and fire destruction control.

The reference is to The Federal Hazardous Products Act which received Royal Assent June 27, 1969, in essence the Act provides a way to prohibit the importation, advertising and marketing of hazardous products. Obviously, we have to care enough about the shocking fire waste in our country to want to do something about it but I think we should use this law to the limit of its life saving potential and here is how we can do it.

When we find products that are so easy to ignite with a spark or flame and it appears there is a special danger in use or storage, they should be reported to the fire chief, the Provincial Fire Commissioner or to the Inspector of Hazardous Products appointed under the Act. Initially the Act lists certain corrosive and flammable substances but certainly the present list is far from complete. It makes no mention of such things as flammable fabrics used for upholstery, rugs or articles of clothing, many of which have fast burning and smoldering producing characteristics dangerous to life.

Perhaps we have grown accustomed to hazardous surroundings but in the area of new social goals and human resources endeavours there is a need for a revolution - a revolution against the hazardous products - a revolution against the dangerous conditions that have been gradually encroaching upon us due to our sophisticated way of life and our modern technology.

Fire is still a deadly weapon and particularly so in the hands of the extremists in the mob, the criminal and the careless. First we need a law to initiate; therefore, we need a new technology in fire control that will effect a dramatic reduction in readily available combustibles. It is to be hoped that the Hazardous Substances Act may be applied successfully to cope with our serious fire problem. We must be alert to this new opportunity for better personal fire safety.

HOW TO ESCAPE FIRE

Remember, it isn't the flame but rising smoke and gas that threaten safety in a tall building. If fire breaks out in your suite, call the Fire Department immediately. Report location. Leave and close the door behind you. Sound fire alarm in corridor. Leave floor by stairway. Don't use the elevator.

If there's a fire elsewhere, stop what you are doing, turn off all appliances. Check corridor for smoke. If clear, close door and leave by stairway. If the corridor is filled with smoke making it impossible to leave, remain in your suite. This may be the safest spot in the fire resistive building. Plug all vents and cracks around doors. Wet a towel for face protection.

Fresh air from outside attracts the spread of fire. Open the window slightly at top and bottom to signal your position. If there's a balcony, stand on it, closing the door behind you. Await rescue instructions.

FIRE, A STERN TEACHER

It only takes "a minute" for fire to kill and statistics indicate that children and elderly people are too frequent victims.

A child doesn't understand that the pretty match which lights his birthday cake or the fireplace can also burn him. If he sets himself on fire or if fire breaks out when you are away, he like the disabled elderly person, is helpless to escape.

These defenceless human beings depend on you for their well-being. Grief and guilt will bring them back if tragedy occurs.

It is a parent's responsibility to teach his child by example and instruction to respect fire. The child must understand that a match is not a toy and matches should not be left within easy reach. It is also a parent's responsibility to hire a reliable babysitter and to see that emergency telephone numbers and instructions for fire safety and escape are provided.

Section 189 of the Criminal Code of Canada states that "everyone who unlawfully abandons or exposes a child who is under the age of 10 years, so that its life or its life is likely to be endangered or its health is or is likely to be permanently injured, is guilty of an indictable offense and is liable to imprisonment for two years."

HOW FIRE-SAFE IS YOUR HOME?

Last year Canadians ran up a staggering fire loss of over 158 million dollars. Terrible as this property loss is, the waste of human life even more. Over 648 Canadians died in 1968 as a result of fire!

Three-quarters of all fires happen in the home. Be on guard all the time!

A committee of three was chosen to make up the work list and order groceries for the chicken supper which will be held on Oct. 29. The Friendship Club will be buying all the chickens again this year and would appreciate the help of local ladies with the cooking of the birds. Contact any member of the Club.

HOUSING BOOM

The lots in the Westmont Sub-division have all been spoken for and eight new homes will be constructed in the very near future.

The balance of the lots have had the deposits placed upon them by buyers and it is not yet known if any of these have been sold.

Among the people who plan to build are L. Hunter, Ken Graft, Francis Mitchell, Hans Flata, K. Titus, G. Flata, C. Elster. Two new homes near completion are those for Mr. Fatenore and Mrs. Elliott.

The sites on the east side of town are also filling up with a home moved in by Mr. A. Nichol and a new home for R. Kermack being started.

The demand for new home sites now presents a problem for the Town.

Silly Bill of Rockyford, upon hearing these facts, suggest all the $1.00 lots should now be sold!

THE HISTORY OF STRATHMORE CLIPPED FROM STRATHMORE STANDARD OF 10 YEARS AGO

The history of Strathmore is possibly similar in nature to hundreds of towns of the same size in Western Canada. Each resident of their respective towns is equally proud, and rightly so, but the Biggest Little Town in Alberta needs to take a back seat to no one as it has had its share of progress.

The little section house was built by the CPR in 1904, you wonder if they would have believed it if they were told that some day they would see Strathmore as it is today, built by means of modern utilities and transportation facilities.

Would they have believed it if they told them that some day there would be skating rinks (sandy) and curling rinks available at will by merely flipping a switch and pouring water to make ice regardless of temperature. That there would be a school in Strathmore large enough to instruct 600 students and that there would be a swimming pool for their grandchildren to pass the summer hours in, or that they could heat, light or provide water for their homes by a mere movement of the hand. Could they see a hard surface highway running through the town with six service stations within the town limit serving high-powered cars and trucks with gas and oil, travelling across this great country of ours. To them at that time, Strathmore was many miles away, not possibly if you told them that some day people would live in Strathmore and work in the city going east and forth every day by car that they would have thought you off the beam.

But those people, those wonderful pioneers had forgotten that they too, they would be no Strathmore or any town like it today. To those we owe much.

Perhaps the best authority on early Strathmore is Thos. E. (Tommy) Wright who came to Strathmore and has been in business in Strathmore since shortly after the turn of the century. He started his business in the building now known as the Strathmore Hotel, and later moved to his present location on main street. Perhaps a conversation with Tommy will reveal more personal history as he saw it grow from infancy. However here are other facts found in past pages of the Standard.

C.P.R. IRRIGATION - In the beginning, the town site was west of Eagle Lake. We have record of the first train going through Strathmore at that location in 1883. The superintendent of construction for the CPR was J. H. Ross, who named the town possibly from the Scottish Earl of Strathmore. It is taken from the Gaelic word Strath which means VALLEY and more meaning BIG. The idea possibly stemmed from the big valley located at the first location Strathmore was moved to its present site a few years later.

As a result of 10 years of drought, in 1903, the CPR installed the irrigation system through this area which was later sold in 1944 to The Western Irrigation District. This was a big project in those early days to create the artificial Chestermere Lake from the waters of the Bow River, but it did much to the district and Strathmore grew as a result of the heavy payroll of about $400,000 per year.

STRATHMORE CHURCHES - The Sacred Heart Church was founded in 1909 by Rev. Leonard Van Tighem and was built during the following year. In 1910 Rev. Jas. Rennie who resided at Gleichen served the town in the Presbyterian faith. The first resident minister was Rev. A. Boyd. The church was disbanded during the first World War and the building was sold to the Masonic Order and the money was used to erect the present Memorial which now stands on the lawn in front of the Memorial Hall.

LIMIT IN 30 MINUTES

Hans Flata shot his limit of five Canada Geese this week. He reports he and three friends shot the geese - everybody had their limit in less than thirty minutes.

PHEASANT & HUNGARIAN PARTRIDGE HUNTING SEASONS CLOSED

The Pheasant and Hungarian Partridge hunting seasons are closed throughout the Province of Alberta. The Fish and Wildlife Division wishes to advise all hunters that the Hungarian Partridge seasons previously open in Upland Bird Zones 1, 2 and 5 are now cancelled.

Seasons on both birds are now scheduled to open November 1 provided samples currently being analyzed are not found to be carrying high levels of mercury.

Other species of wildlife do not appear to be carrying dangerous levels of mercury and therefore the Grouse and Waterfowl seasons remain as originally scheduled.

STRATHMORE STANDARD CELEBRATES SIXTY YEARS

The Strathmore Standard is the mellow age of sixty this month.

The first issue of this Strathmore Standard was published on October 2nd, 1909 and except for a short period during the 1914-18 war, has gone to press regularly ever since.

"The Standard" has progressed with the rest of western Canada, and now is produced by the most up-to-date methods of newspaper reproduction in Alberta.

The old office, still located on its original site, is destined to become a party of the magnificent display of early Canadiana to be seen at Heritage Park. The time for the actual moving of the "Printing Office" has not yet been decided but when it has been relocated, there is no doubt it will be one of the most interesting of displays at Heritage Park.

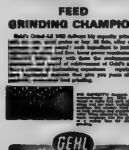

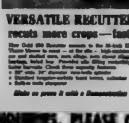

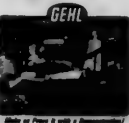

The spirits of past editors will probably move with the old building and the display will be as authentic as possible. There is a good chance that the old press will be brought out of retirement and put back to work printing a sheet for Heritage Park News.

EDITORIAL

The Strathmore Town Council has decided, upon advice from their engineers, to postpone until next year the paving of streets in Strathmore.

The proposed topping was to be of a cement and soil compound and could not be laid when frost could harm it.

The awful mess that lays around Strathmore at the moment will be cleaned up and the streets prepared for winter.

The gutters and curbs already in place should prove an obstacle course during this winter and many residents would be well advised to purchase mountain climbing boots equipped with spikes.

There is no truth in the rumour that Council will give a short course in survival on Strathmore Streets. You the public are on your own and the very best of luck. A sharp stick to be prodded into snowbanks will be useful - they may be hazardous.

PAVING POSTPONED

The Consultant Engineers to the Strathmore Town Council have advised them not to proceed with the street paving until next year.

The material to be used is of a soil and cement type and cannot tolerate frost.

The places that have been dug up to accommodate the curbs and gutters will be levelled and the debris cleared away.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Strathmore Standard,
Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Sir,

In the September 8, 1969 edition of the County of Wheatland School Committee minutes, under the heading, School Vote - Legal Costs, there appeared this motion (Quoted Moved by MacKinnon "that the County of Wheatland No. 16 pay MacKinnon, Mathews, Ford etc., legal account in the amount of $1,336.48 incurred over the scrutiny of the poll on May 7, 1969.") (Unquote.)

I think some questions should be asked regarding this matter and some explanations given.

Some of the questions that I think should be asked are as follows:

1. When Mr. G. L. Ford was successful in gaining a scrutiny of the May 7, 1969, poll, was he in the employ of the County of Wheatland School Committee or was he in the employ of Mr. James Miller?
 2. If Mr. Ford was employed by Mr. Miller, was Mr. Miller acting on behalf of any member of the School Committee?
 3. If the answer to Question 2 is No, why did the School Committee feel it necessary to pay Mr. Ford's legal fee?
 4. Why was this portion of the September 8th School Committee minutes omitted when the minutes were recorded by the Strathmore Standard?
- If anyone can give some logical answers to these questions, I would appreciate it.
- Thank you.

Yours truly

George C. Comstock
Rosebud, Alberta.

STRATHMORE LIONS

The Strathmore Lions Club held its regular meeting on October 2nd and the fall season appears to be a busy one.

INSECTS HOLDING A "BALL"

You will have to admit that we have a lot of stored grain on hand in the country. Grain storage insects just might be holding a party in your granary. Their parties are quiet though - no loud sounding electrical guitars - but other damage they can cause if they are not evicted from the premises.

If insects are present some may be found near the surface of the grain - but others may be found near the bottom. A grain sampler or probe should be used. The beetles if present can be screened out of the grain through a window screen and easily detected on light colored paper.

We have several publications on taking if grain beetles the proper measures to take if grain beetles are found. Contact your nearest Extension Office for further information.

Count the flyers on our label.

Let's see. Two in the biplane and another three on the fence posts. That's five fast flyers. All this plus a speeding express train, a racing steeplechase and a hopped-up Hummobile. What's everybody's hurry? Heaven knows. In Lethbridge we take our own sweet time. We're the beer behind that lovely label. Then we age it slowly and naturally. For a flavor that goes over great.

LANGDON
 By D.W. & S.T.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooper were recent visitors to Enderby, B.C.

Louise Peterson was a recent visitor to Aldergrove, B.C. to attend the wedding of a cousin.
 While there, she visited Jack and Sandra Reams.

We see the Bob Reban family have been on the move this past week. Their house has been moved over onto the basement so they will be busy getting it all fixed up before colder weather sets in.

A number of families attended the Circus at the Corral this past week. A very worthwhile performance was enjoyed.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Carl Anderson who is a patient in the General Hospital.
 Daughters Mrs. Black of Regina, Saskatchewan and Mrs. Weidman of White Plains, New York, U.S.A. are here visiting with the Anderson family.

Mrs. Della Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hunter of Aldridge were Sunday visitors to Ted and Pearl Albertson. Iris Silkstone of Edmonton was a recent visitor with her parents, the Albertsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Habberfield were visitors to Idaho, U.S.A. to attend a Livestock Meeting.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Buxtain with the loss of her husband Gordon. They lived for many years east of Langdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark of Great Falls, Montana, U.S.A. were recent visitors with Dave and Ethel Jesse. Ethel and Mrs. Carl are sisters.

Congratulations to Doreen and John Knight on the arrival of their third daughter on Sept. 27th.

JEAN NEGRICH and Fatsy Smart were hostesses at the October 1st W.I. meeting to sixteen members and one visitor.

Birthday Dances were won by Eugenia Brander, Kathryn Habberfield and Addie Bates.
 Roll Call of the "Dressed Vegetable" produced some startling and amusing outfits.
 Margaret Gribbin gave an interesting Union National paper of the work being done in the U.N.
 by a Canadian Nun.

The Representative Meeting will be held Oct. 16 in the Langdon W.I. Hall at 10:00 a.m. with a pot luck lunch at noon with a Workshop in the afternoon conducted by Don Freed of Calgary. Visitors to the afternoon meeting are most welcome to hear Mr. Freed speak. Afternoon tea will be served.

The Anniversary Quilt was discussed. It is asked that anyone with a suggestion, please put it on paper to help the committee with this project for our 50th year.

FIRST ROSEBUD
GUIDE COMPANYNY

The Rosebud Guides have started the ball rolling for another season. We will be meeting Monday evenings in the United Church Basement, from 8 - 9 p.m. (Weather permitting) until harvest is complete, then 7:30 - 9 p.m. for the rest of the season.

Patrol Leaders for this year will be Debra Coles, Penny Hymas and Jane Patterson. These girls will be assisted by Lorrie Clark, Faye Wallace and Gayle Comstock as "acting Seconds" with full status awarded when they complete their 2nd class requirements. The Second's special job will be that of Color Farty for all official functions.
 We are sorry to say goodbye this year to Second's Elaine Stoltz, Lola Godthjelpsen, Gertrude Van Laar, and Guida Donna Lee Georgessen. We wish you well girls and good luck for your future endeavors.

Guide Camp was held on the R.F. Hymas farm
 August 26, 27 and 28 (plus those crazy roosters!) and was a huge success with many new and interesting recruits coming from the three cook fires ably attended by the Guides and watched over hungrily by the Leaders who had to put their experience in their pockets and tie their hands behind their backs while these meals were being prepared and cooked - first rate job girls and for your pains, you will all receive your Outdoor Cooks Badge.

Guides attending this camp were Debbie Coles,
 Lola Godthjelpsen, Yvonne Comstock, Lorrie
 Clark, Penny Hymas, Faye Wallace, Jane Patterson and Bonnie Bergquist. A vote of thanks from all of these girls and their Leaders Rita Mac-Kinnon, Debra Comstock and Deen Hymas goes out to the Oscar Clarke for the use of their "Swimmin' Hole" and the most delicious cinnamon buns and kool-aid graciously provided by Margaret.

Plans for the fall season include crafts for the Christmas Tree planned for the end of November.
 We would be most grateful for any simple craft ideas that the girls can make, also any donations of bits of material, felt, sequins, beads, embroidery cotton, wool etc. Anything you think could be useful may be given to Deen Hymas or any one of the Guides.

We would be happy to welcome any girls between the ages of 10-14 years into our Company and any enquiries may be directed to Mrs. Bob Hymas 457-2357.

Yours in Guiding,
 First Rosebud Guides

HUSSAR
 By Mrs. L. Jensen

Congratulations to Jack Johansen who received fourth in the Foothills Cowboy Association for Boy's Saver Riding. The Johansen boys are very active in the Boy's Saver Riding in the rodeos around the country.

Several women met at the Lutheran Church Basement on Tuesday to sort, mend and pack clothing for Lutheran World Relief. Some of the clothing to be taken to the coin cleaners. Clothes are still needed but clothes must be clean before they can be sent away. The church women are reminded that their special "thunks offering" will be given in connection with the "Thanksgiving Service on Oct. 12.

Barbara and Ray Schoemaker, Kelowna and Ronnie and Marion Gregory came from Kelowna to attend the Dundas - Gregory wedding and visited with the Rex Gregorys.

Congratulations to Karen Dundas and Gilbert
 Gregory who were married in Calgary on Oct. 4.

Wanda Adamowicz is taking her Nurses' Training in the General Hospital in Calgary.

The Hussar Students' Union held their initiation and dance on Sept. 26 with many interesting and humorous characters in the school classes and a good attendance at the dance with the Reimer Brothers providing the music.

 Monday for Edinburgh, Scotland. Bob will be assisting in Teaching Chemistry. He has a Doctor's Degree in Science.

On Sunday evening, the Lutheran Church Women served a pancake and ham supper to the families involved in the Holiday program for neglected children of Calgary. Miss Faddy Mulloy of the Calgary Social Service led the evening of discussion and sharing the experiences of the summer program. Many are keeping in contact with the children involved and it is felt that a great deal of good has come from this program. Hopes are that the program will be carried on next summer.

Baptism service was held for Sonia Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bichler, with Gordon and Linda Schaeffer as Sponsors, and for Russell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sproule as sponsors. To fit in with the service, Pastor Adamowicz had an object lesson as a sermon comparing baptism to a western branding.

Among the guests at the John Thompson home for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoff,
 Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoff and family from Gleichen and Mrs. Thompson from Bassano.

JUBILEE LOCAL FWUA

L. Jesse M. Jensen was the hostess for the meeting on Thursday afternoon with interesting discussion on FWA membership and the importance of every farmer being a Farm Union of Alberta member.
 It was decided that the FWA canvassers would have brochures on Blue Cross with them and after the membership drive, we would form a Blue Cross Local if there was enough interest.

Once again we will collect clothing for the Unitarian Service and this clothing can be brought to the next meeting or left with members of the Executive.

Names of mental patients were to be obtained from the Mental Health Association and Christianity gifts and letters would be sent from members of the local.

Joan Madsen, L. Jesse Madsen, Marge Johansen and Loda Jensen will look after the Wheat Pool dinner on Nov. 7.

The new executive members are Joan Madsen -
 President; Marge Johansen - V. President; Ollie Hulen - Secretary; Darlene Pandry - Treasurer.
 A great deal of interest is shown for quilt making and it was felt it would be enjoyable to work on quilts at the meeting without neglecting the business at hand or the studies prepared for each month. At the meeting at the home of Marge Johansen on Nov. 6th, plans will be made for starting a quilt.

The regular meeting of the Rockyford C.W.I. was held in St. Rita's Parish Hall with twenty-two members present. The meeting was opened with the Rosary and League Prayer.

Plans for the Bazaar to be held Nov. 1st were finalized. You are reminded to bring two articles for the fish pond and also make some homemade candy which is sold at the Fairway Booth.

On behalf of the C.W.I., Mrs. Zeno Henke presented a Scholarship to Diane Stin for having achieved the highest marks in Grade 9.

Cultural Life Convener Mrs. Zeno Henke has arranged to have a series of lectures and discussions for the month of October. Mr. Gerard McKenna and Fr. J.P. Kirley of the Family Service of Calgary will attend and lead the discussions. The first series will begin October 8th at 8:00 p.m. in St. Rita's Parish Hall. DALEMEAD

By B. Bistretzan

Mr. Lloyd Lee of Carleton Place is a patient in the General Hospital and will undergo surgery. His many friends with him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ralph Coomer and Ann spent the week-end with the Marie family at Eden.

Barbara Chalmers motored back from Walla Walla, Washington and spent a week visiting her parents Bob and Julia Chalmers and relatives. Mrs. Madge Slack, an old timer of the Dalemead district, passed away at her residence in Seattle, Washington.

Several of our Grade XII Graduates are attending College in the United States. Jim Clayton is at Roseman, Montana; Brian Evans is at Brookings, South Dakota; and Corrine Dehn is at Eugene, Oregon. She reports that there are 37,000 students on that campus.

ROSEBUD

By Mrs. F. Bihlow

Many friends and neighbors of Mrs. Jepps, long-time resident and Post-Mistress at Redland, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rial Barr on the evening of Saturday, Sept. 27, for a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Jepps. Best wishes and good luck for the future go to Mrs. Jepps who will be making her new home in Vancouver.

The Rosebud Team Club enjoyed a Record Hop at the Rosebud Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 3rd. We're not too happy with the effects of DDT on pheasants out here, but we are sure happy with D.D.D. on telephones. Sure makes for phoning the modern way!

Bob and Julia Chalmers report while driving to Calgary, they almost ran over a red fox on the road by Robert Fulsons. They also report that they have seen a moose in the district recently.

Queenie Goodman has taken up residence in her new Eden Apartment House in Calgary.

Monday evening during the thunder storm, while working in the yard, Lorne Miller witnessed a ball of white light streaking through the yard about ten feet above his head. Then it disappeared into the field. This was followed by a clap of thunder. Could this have been a streak of lightning or a piece of Meteorite? We are wondering!

9 OUT OF 10 HOMES COULD BE SPARED

Every week fire strikes nearly a thousand Canadian homes.

The typical house fire averages nearly $1,000 in damages.

But the tragedy is that three-quarters of all fire deaths occur in those homes, and not only deaths, for many people are horribly burned and often permanently scarred.

Fire rarely last "happy".

Nine out of every ten fires are the result of sheer carelessness and thoughtless neglect of simple precautions.

THE HOMEMAKER

Mrs. Verna Levitt
District Home Economist

Today is a very special day for me. Today is the day I actually become your new District Home Economist taking Catherine Young's place. I suppose I should begin by introducing myself. Let me see - what would be a new way that would be fun? I know! Here goes ...

THE NEW GIRL IN TOWN

In Cardston one year Twenty-two years ago, was born a new girl called Isabelle. I suppose I should begin by introducing myself. Let me see - what would be a new way that would be fun? I know! Here goes ...

She lived in the town For most of her life. Except for two years when The farm was her epic.

Her family is small One father, one Mother, And after her came One sister, one brother.

As high school ended The future loomed tall. She decided on College And left home in the fall.

Brigham Young University Is a long way away, In far off Utah In the U.S. of A.

Four years she spent In study and learning To work in homemaking Was her special yearning.

When four years were over As pleased as could be, She had a teaching certificate And a B.Sc. degree.

Now ready for work She taught teaching she'd try, When happily a news ad For D.H.E. caught her eye.

A letter applying She hurriedly sent, Then for an interview She nervously went.

Not too long thereafter She answered a call, "Could you be in Three Hills Early this fall?"

The excitement that followed You wouldn't believe, For this opportunity Was her "cup of tea".

In case you don't realize Who this girl could be, Well, I'm pleased to inform you That girl is me!

Now that I'm here It's my wish to be, A contributing part Of your community.

But I need people Who need help in solving Those problems in homemaking That are often evolving.

Please let me help you Cause that's why I'm here, Call on me often Any time of the year!

If you would be interested in being put on the mailing list for my Newsletter which comes out four times a year please contact the office. We would be pleased to add your name.

Thurston was the lucky winner of the grocery hamper that was raffled.

Mrs. Russell Worgren returned home from hospital over the week-end. We hope you are feeling better Varge.

A few friends dropped in at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knute Larsen to help Knute celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. A.B. (Dick) Jacobs, an old-timer of the Nightingale district passed away recently at her home in Pomeroy, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs were at Nightingale for about ten years where he was a grain buyer for the A-F. Grain Inc. in 1938. Mrs. Jacobs was a very active W.I. member. She leaves one son Norman and two daughters Beryl and Lillian, Spokane, Washington. Her husband Dick passed away in 1961.

EDITORIAL

There is still time for you to get a Walkathon Card. The Strathmore Lions have them on hand, as do most of the retail outlets.

This month commemorates ten years of working and endeavour on behalf of the Strathmore Swimming Pool and the Lions still need money for this worthwhile project.

Won't you help?

RE-FOURKUED FROM OCT. 8th, 1959--

Work Starts On Swimming Pool

George Watt with the help of a number of teen agers and other committed workers have the excavation ready at the Strathmore Swimming Pool to erect a concrete block building to house the proposed new equipment for the pool. This was reported at the regular meeting of the Strathmore Lions last week.

The Swimming Pool showed a loss of $243 during the summer, $443 was realized but the expenses ran to $686.00.

Plans were discussed for the Halloween dance sponsored by the Club which will be held on Oct. 30 this year because the horror night falls on a Saturday. Prizes will be given for various costumes and if the dance follows the same pattern as past years, there should be plenty of good fun for all.

riot in Canada

Editor — Graham Smith

It came as a shock to the Canadian nation when violence broke out so suddenly in Montreal as soon as the city police went on strike. It was a night of terror which included shooting, vandalism, burning, rape, theft and assault. All that took place in peaceful Canada. The real reason to be feared from the riot is that violence and resentment is not far below the surface. Indeed it has clearly been held in check only through a police state.

Although the leaders were taking advantage of the situation, the real trouble should have been started by fast drivers objecting to a monopoly granted to one transportation company for airport transit. They had complained before without success. Clearly they had a valid grievance. No government should protect private monopolies and they should be a warning to all authorities.

● The Montreal riot also emphasized that violence forces should never be permitted to go on strike, they must be placed on the same footing as the armed forces. The strike also added evidence that municipal police forces are obsolete in this modern age.

● And where were the armed forces? They appeared too late on the scene to curb the riot. If the army is not readily available for internal security, it is not fulfilling its purpose.

Finally, the outbreak serves to remind us that it is time to set our own house in order before we get more smug and complacent in our attitude towards the States and its negro problem.

Once again harvest operations came to a standstill with more rain and heavy snow falling. Due to the heavy truckloads of pipe being brought across the muddy roads for the pipeline, many roads are in poor condition.

DOUGOUTS & DAMS

Water is a necessity of life for man, plant and animal. When we have adequate supplies of water we take it for granted. Some areas in the country are not blessed with either easy to get or adequate supplies of water. It is to people living in these areas that I wish to talk today.

Many dugouts and dams have been built throughout the country and they are doing an excellent job. F.R.A., will even assist in the payment for building dams and dugouts and supply engineering services and advice free of charge. Over the years and through experience they have perfected the plans and now require that certain standards and specifications be adhered to in construction of either the dam or the dugout.

The County of Wheatland is served by three different F.R.A. offices - Red Deer, Hanna and Port Leopold. The point dividing the three districts lies two miles East and seven North of Chancellors. Anyone south of this point should contact Port Leopold and those north east go to Hanna.

Two weeks ago Simon Jensen of Standard had Jack McCracken of Water Resources at Lethbridge up to help him find a leak in his stock watering dam. We line the likely area of the leak with plastic and use some drillers mud as a seal in the surrounding soil. This water will well whether or not we know what we were doing. A.

clay type soil is needed to seal the bottom of a dugout or dam.

Some farmers in the Rockyford, Standard and Human districts have problems with water supply. We are scheduling a "Water & Water Well Development School" in Standard on Dec. 9th. Speaker from the Water Resources Division of the Dept. of Agriculture, from the Research Council of Alberta and the Agriculture Engineering Service will be present. The whole problem of getting adequate water on the farm. The use of dugouts and dams may be the only solution. It is very reliable.

In northern parts of Alberta, some farmers have found that dugouts are the best way of supplying water to cattle in pasture. They are some distance from home. They are better than wells because they never require daily attention like wells. They are cheaper in many cases to build and drilling wells and supplying the pump and power to pump the water.

Mark Dec. 9th on your calendar if you are having problems getting water on your farm.

FARMERS' UNION OF ALBERTA

Extreme weather conditions are seriously affecting already hard pressed Alberta farmers according to Paul Babey, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Farmers in almost all of the area north of Calgary are faced with conditions as bad if not worse than those of last year.

Commenting on the continuing wet weather, Mr. Babey estimated that 90 per cent of the grain remains in the fields and is rapidly deteriorating because of wet conditions.

Mr. Babey pointed out that grain fields in many areas are little more than waterlogged, many early sown crops are green with second growth, and grain in some areas is rotting.

According to Mr. Babey the situation is extremely grave as crop losses are already large due to the deterioration of quality and quantity. It is doubtful that all of the crop will be harvested this year, he adds.

Many farmers will again require financial assistance to cover the additional expense of drying grain. Money is also needed to help cover their losses due to the long period of inclement weather and the lack of delivery opportunities for grain already in the bins, says the FUA President.

OVER 200 MARCHED

The Strathmore Lions Walkathon held Sunday, Oct. 19th was a wonderful success with over 200 people participating over the grueling 22 miles.

The route chosen over gravel and in the face of a cold wind did little to deter the spirits of the walkers.

The majority of the fund raisers for the Lions Pool would average about 12 miles a day. There was a sprinkling of adults and about 20 teenagers.

The little guys and gals made the whole distance and they were proud children indeed. Some were even as proud as their parents. The youngest to complete the distance was Vera Sidham aged 6, and the eldest was Mr. Bill James aged 76. Mr. James, dressed in business attire complete with tie, smoked a steady run of 50 cigarettes and his only comment at the end of the 22 miles was "I don't have any blisters" but this was his only problem, no fatigue!

The fastest time is in some dispute, as Mr. John Curtis otherwise known as the Galloping Gasol from the Co-op ran the distance with a very early start. The other contender for the fastest time was Herman Valckx otherwise known as the Flying Dutchman. Herman left at the nine o'clock start and finished just after 2 p.m.

The marchers were fed and watered, at various check points, the Sealey farm being one, where some walkers stopped for a ring song around the piano. The Les Campbell place situated 17 miles along the route was well patronized by tired and thirsty fund raisers. The Ron Hilton farm was the first comfort station, but everyone was fresh and rarin' to go, and after a hurried 'pop' marched on.

Congratulations to the organizers, the sponsors, the comfort stations, and the Lions on a well organized community effort, which instilled into so many children and adults a feeling of comradeship and achievement.

ROCKYFORD'S WALK-A-THON FOR ICE

The Rockyford Lions Club have been aware for a long time that the Village needs ice for the youngsters' hockey.

The intention of the Walk-a-thon is to raise enough funds for an outdoor sheet of ice for this season. Eventually, with enough funds, the Lions would make a covered hockey rink.

The need for other Lions Clubs to sponsor or walk is recognized. The distance is ten miles, and with this short distance, it is hoped the Rockyford Walk-a-thon will be more of a social hike than a test of endurance.

They need the funds and this Sunday, October 26th, in the day. Registration starts at 11:30 a.m. in the Community Hall.

CAR THIEVES

The car belonging to Mr. Bill McNeill Jr. was stolen last Saturday from the yard of their home some time in the early hours of Sunday morning.

The thieves found that the gas tank was not full, so they punctured a hole in the bulk fuel tank on the Ralph Tiede farm, filled the car and drove off leaving the gas to flow on the ground.

The car has been located in Morris, Sask. with a dead battery and a burnt out clutch. To date, there is no lead on the thieves.

LES FEUX - FOLLETS

Sallie Lyons, who is with Feux Follets (Five Fires) has local connections. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. F.M. Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rudd. Both families were pioneers of the Rockyford and Tisdale districts. Her father was raised in the Baintree district and is well known locally.

Miss Lyons will be making a tape for the 'I'd Sullivan Show' which will be shown on either Nov. 2nd or Nov. 9th. In March, the group will begin a European tour and then on to Osaka 70.

After Sallie's performance at the Jubilee Auditorium, there was a family gathering at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rudd. Her mother, Mrs. W. Lyons had flown to Calgary from Saskatoon for the performance.

Miss Lyons dances traditional and folkloric dancing. She attended the Banff School of Fine Arts and Royal Winnipeg Ballet Summer School on scholarships. She appeared in four years of appearances throughout Saskatchewan with the Saskatoon Theatre Ballet and two years with Gala Night. For two years she was director of the Brewster Park School of Dancing in Saskatoon and also taught in Bigger and Davidson.

CROWFOOT

Over Thanksgiving week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tiede and family flew to Camrose to visit Joan's sister, Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Bratland. From there they went to Sedgewick for a family reunion. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mullen on the birth of a son, Carey Lee, on October 12th. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Desmet.

Congratulations to all those who participated in the Walk-a-thon from this district. There was a good turn out and many walked the full distance.

A-THON

A-Thon will surely become a new word in the dictionaries of the world with so many varieties of the word being thought of every day.

The thought of Starve-a-thons has been produced by all those who care about the millions who starve by necessity, and also by the well fed Canadians who over-eat, probably out of boredom.

The definition of a-thon in the dictionary would present quite a conundrum to the under privileged and should probably have an alternative definition for translation in Bialfran and Hindi to name a couple of languages.

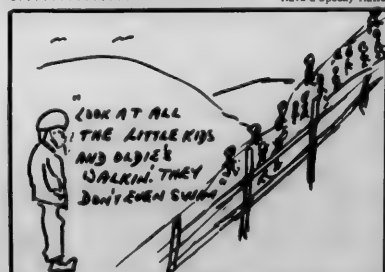

The western definition could be: -athon from the Greek Marathon; Walkathon; Starvation; action being an act of self sacrifice performed for the communal good, with no financial benefits for the performer.

The under privileged countries' definition could be: -athon from the West; meaning living like other folk have to; acts of affluent societies, who abandon automobiles, and other comforts to walk or starve without reward, all monies raised by sponsors going to a communal or international fund; defies definition by interpretation and loses its fundamental sense in translation.

The a-thons are an "in" word with this generation and the participants surely demonstrated their moral fibre with achievements of which they should be justly proud.

ALBERTA HAIL & CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION

This year, just over 16,000 Alberta farmers protected their crops under the Crop Insurance Plan. Insurance was placed on 3,500,000 acres to a total value of approximately $50 million. The County of Wheatland received $286,000 in insurance money, paid to who were "hail'd out". Loss payments went to 4,212 farmers or 27 out of every 100 insured.

This past spring the operations of the Alberta Hail Insurance Board and the Alberta Crop Insurance Corporation, both crown corporations of the province, were merged into a single organization called the "Alberta Hail and Crop Insurance Corporation". The objective of the new organization is to provide farmers with a more complete and efficient insurance service, though both hail and crop insurance are still offered separately. As a matter of interest, just over 8,000 hail policies were written this past season with a total risk of $1,270,000. 924 claims were received, resulting in indemnities of $1,100,000 being paid. It appears that a substantial premium refund will be possible again this year. Though hail losses in the province were below average again this year, they were heavier than in the past two seasons as severe storms occurred in widely scattered areas in the province.

SMALL SPOOKS!

It's getting close to the bewitching time of year when once again small spoons will be out and about. Are you ready for them?

Soon the children will be clamouring for a costume for the school party or "the" special night. Plan now and have some ideas ready. Consider first, safety. The night will be dark. Excited little ones will not be as cautious as normal. Older spoons will be up to their own tricks. Safety will be neglected.

In making your child's costume, be sure that no major part of it is light colored or luminous. Use the shiny side of foil wrap, especially in a space age costume. It gives the costume a "future" look!

Masks, too, are an essential part of the costume. Some of Mom's make-up can be used just as effectively as a store bought mask. And probably would be much safer!

Show your child you really care and are concerned for him. While he's dressing up in his very special costume, talk with him about safety.

And what about the little spoons who come to your door? Have pathways and lawns free of hidden dangers. Turn on a electric porch light or a light inside near the door. Make your yard as safe as possible for this particular night. Treats are a special part of Halloween night. Popcorn balls, puffed wheat balls, Rice Krispie squares are all treats made from cereals. Use your favorite recipe or call at the office and we'll send you one.

Something else that is a treat - and nutritious - is an apple. Fancy it up by making a candied apple on a stick. This is the time of year when apples are abundant. Remember to ask for Canadian products! Have a Spooky Halloween!

STANDARD STARV-A-THON

A Lesson in Charity

Another wrinkle in the many a-thons our country has been sponsoring, was the Starv-a-thon held this past week-end in Standard.

(A Christian youth organization for tenal) talked of ways they could assist some of the less fortunate. In the past they've collected clothes, sent money to an orphanage in Hong Kong, and expressed their concerns in other ways in the country. But the problem of world hunger gnawed at the youth. How could they do anything to help towards a solution of such a monstrous situation? And whatever was done could only be the proverbial drop in a bucket. But, "How can I expect the world to change, if I'm not willing to?" And this fortified their desire to do something constructive.

Under the direction of President Ken Hedin and Secretary Joanne Nielsen, plans were made for the Starv-a-thon. The youth proposed to fast for a period of 40 hours beginning last Friday evening. For each hour they participated, they urged sponsors to support them. Last Friday evening 29 youth and two adult leaders began the starving. The first evening caused no great pains even to the "pop and potato chips" generation. They viewed movies on world hunger, sang together and maintained a "paloma party" atmosphere. Sleeping bags were rolled out on the church floor and with some adjustment quite slowly descended over the "starving" youth.

Saturday morning was spent in doing some tasks around the church such as cleaning and clearing the flower beds. By noon the talk had moved into the area of favorite foods. On Saturday afternoon the youth were involved in some rigorous games such as football and volleyball that left their marks. Quiet time and meditation started to be accompanied by the sounds of stomach rumblings. By supper time the first of the "casualties" occurred. For this generation longed for these lovely meals and continual snacking, the duration was too much. The only visiting hours for outsiders was allowed on Saturday evening between 7 - 8:30 p.m. Anxious parents came in to check on the welfare of the "starvers". A few left with their child trembling in anticipation to discover what lovely leftovers might still be available at home. Other parents found their children with resolute jaws and gritted teeth determined to stick it out despite pains.

protestations. Saturday evening saw the ranks depleted by seven, with many of the others wailing. Advisor Harry Cummins called on all his gentle persuasiveness to remind the youth of their goals and purposes.

Sunday morning saw the departure of three more of the youth. But the remaining ones stood firm. The youth had sought permission of the church council to share with the congregation their experiences. Under the directions of Iva Nielsen and Amy Rasmussen a meal of rice and broth was prepared for the congregation. The youth invited the congregation to the tables to complete the morning service. Coming down from an atmosphere of prayer and praise, the worshippers sat at tables and were served a meal that was the equivalent of what 7/3 rds of the world's population is allowed daily. Without salt and flavoring, the broth and rice was tasteless and monotonous. While the congregation ate, some of the youth shared with the congregation what this experience had meant to them. For most it was an experience that others ought to try to gain an appreciation of what we have and to develop an awareness of what must be done for others. For Susan Mellean the whole experience was too much and she strongly advised no one to attempt it.

Together the youth raised nearly $1400 to be sent through their own Lutheran Church to assist in the War on Hunger being waged among the Palestinian refugees in Jordan and in war-torn Biafra. To the many of the community who encouraged and sponsored the youth, gratitude must be expressed. To the youth, the fitting tribute of Elmer Jensen who closed the Starv-a-thon with prayer, summarized many thoughts: "believe that you youth are even better than we adults when we were your age." And that's quite a mouthful to be said in tribute to a youthful generation that is often viewed with suspicion and fear.

BISHOP TO SPEAK AT COUNTRY RALLY

Bishop Auth O'Byrne, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Calgary, will be the guest speaker at a Reformation Rally in our county on November 2. The Rally will be held in Nazareth Lutheran Church in Standard beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Reformation Rallies have long been part of the observation of the Lutheran churches as they recalled their heritage and reminded themselves of the continual need to be renewed. Martin Luther posted 95 theses for arousing consciences on the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany on October 31, 1517.

CANPAC Building Materials

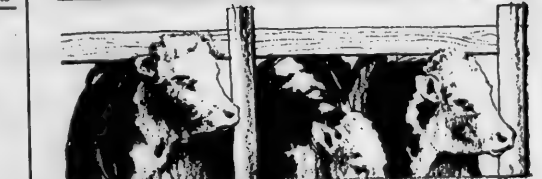

These statements ultimately led to the Reformation. About 450 years later, churches — both Catholic and Protestant, are aware that the church must always be a reforming church. The church is established not by decree or even by belief, but by the calling of Jesus Christ. When man-made obstructions occur, the church must be ready to speak the word of truth.

Today we see the phenomenon of many of the churches who once viewed each other with suspicion coming together in discussion. That such a possibility is occurring in our county is gratifying. People could find themselves on common ground in political, economic, educational and social matters, but often were separated on religious issues. With the current thrust on renewal, the churches are seeking the unity that does exist in their divine calling.

Along with the address by Bishop O'Byrne, a mass choir under the direction of Mrs. Dugan of Strathmore will sing at the service. Pastor Luther Abrahamson of Standard will serve as the liturgist with other clergy participating in the service.

Following the service, a fellowship lunch will be served. All county churches and Christian people are invited to participate in this Rally.

COSTLY GRUBS. Warble control treatment does not cost — it pays!

The Alberta Department of Agriculture's livestock specialist J.L. Kerne reports that a grub survey carried out by the Meat Packers Council of Canada in 1968 showed that the over-all loss to the packing industry in this province from warble damaged market cattle is over $400,000. Trim losses vary from $2.00 for carcasses with none to five grubs to as high as $30 for those containing 11 or more grubs. In addition to trim losses, entire carcasses may be devalued, and hide prices are markedly reduced when the hides contain warble holes.

According to Mr. Kerne, cattle producer losses from warble damage are generally believed to be higher than packer losses. Experiments in Alberta feedlots suggest that feeder cattle which have been treated for grub control gain up to half a pound per day more than grub infested animals which have not been treated.

In the survey of 270,000 cattle, carried out by the Meat Packers Council between Jan. 15 and May 31 last year, the infestation percentages were as follows:

	% of Infestation
Edmonton - Red Deer	35%
Calgary	44%
Lethbridge	25%

Losses from gadding are also considerable in milking cows, says Mr. Kerne. Many good dairy cows are lost because they injure their udders when running to escape heel flies.

To control warbles treat all cattle, except milking cows and calves under 300 pounds, between Sept. 1 and Dec. 1. Four-on and spray treatments are effective against both grubs and lice. Milking cows can be treated with back washes in the spring.

PIONEER FIRM CLOSES OUT

Established in 1924 the firm of Risdon Motors has held their "closing out sale".

The business was a machine and welding shop. Mr. Wm. Risdon, now retired, was the founder of the business. The business was carried on by his two sons George and Jim.

George well known in the district for his skill as a machinist decided to close the business owing to health and the lack of skilled help.

The Auction Sale held last Thursday was well attended, and a brisk sale by Double 'M' Auction Services, brought some fair prices. The district will feel the loss of this versatile Machine Shop and the services of the Risdons, a lathe to remain in the town was purchased by Wheatland Welding, but the majority of the machinery was transferred away. Pepper Brothers of Drumheller took the 'Big Lathe' to their machine shop for a price in excess of $5000.

EDITORIAL

How is it, that the farmer doesn't like anybody to know where he lives?

The pleasure of a drive in the country lacks something when you can't tell who is the owner of much and such a farm, or who owns the magnificent Herefords or horses.

The frustrations of following compass bearings are not over simplified if your mileometer happens to be working.

These points of view are expressed after having sat outside of the wrong farm home for an hour, waiting for the owners to return from church.

The beautiful names of the farms of Africa, England and Portugal, lend a pleasant break to the monotony of driving on gravel roads. Names that come to mind are Hereassee, high in the Welsh Mountains; Benter "Ole in the Africa Velde; Quigley San Antonio in Portugal.

I am sure the practice of staying incognito on the farm causes everybody concerned a lot of inconvenience and it could be fixed quickly by a little amateur art work on an old tractor tire or plough disc. The names of the owner would be enough, but farm names would be more colorful and interesting.

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

from "The Prairie Rattler" by J. Head

It is fifty-one years since the Armistice broke the First World War to an end, and to many that is a way back in history. Even the Second World War, that ended twenty-four years ago, seems remote to those who are too young to remember the years of conflict that led up to them. It is difficult to imagine the feelings of those who watched with horror the spread of aggression, and with reluctance and with a hatred of war in their hearts, decided to meet force with force; it is difficult to imagine these things unless you have experienced them.

Who then were these people whom we remember on Nov. 11? Were they some unimaginable heroes from another age, like those who fought the wars of the Romans, or took part on both sides in the siege of Quebec? No, these were people of our times, in fact many of us are survivors of the same group. They are those who set out in defense of freedom and did not return, those who paid the necessary price of victory.

So when we gather in yearly solemnity around the Cenotaph, it is to remember real people, old friends in many cases, with whom we shared the years of troubled peace, the anxieties and moral conflict as we saw we could no longer "put off the evil day and let the seat of destruction draw near"; and sometimes we shared the conflict, endurance and pain of armed service. Some of us did not come back and these are the ones whom we remember in these services, while renewing our pledge to continue the struggle, for justice for which they gave their lives.

"If ye break faith with us who died We shall not sleep though poppies grow in Flanders Field."

So it is not just a historical ceremony, but a fresh sharing of the resolve we made together, to do what we can to "end war and make the world safe for democracy"; for these were the words to which they committed themselves. In this spirit of active dedication let us say:

"We will remember them."

ESTATE PLANNING MEETING - STANDARD NOVEMBER 20TH

Last week we gave you the details regarding the Estate Planning meeting at Standard on Thursday afternoon, starting at 1:30 on Nov. 20th. We are sure you will enjoy Mr. C.S. Brandley, Lawyer and District Agriculturalist from Lethbridge. Mark down any questions you would like to ask him regarding farming and the law. There should be plenty of time for a question period.

FARM MANAGEMENT

The Alberta Dept. of Agriculture through the Extension Division and the Economics Division are co-operating to help farmers cope with their #1 problem - that of Management and wise decision making.

At the basis of good management is a good set of BUSINESS RECORDS. Several good systems are now available. They range from the use of a good account book through to a mail in Computerized monthly reporting program. You can select the system that meets your requirements.

Along with records, a farmer should be thinking of BUSINESS ANALYSIS. Again this can be obtained from a fairly wide selection of records. In the past, the Analysis Reports have been slow in being returned to the farmer and also been lacking in interpretation. Reports will be returned in a minimum amount of time and interpretation help will be available in the future.

The computerized mail in System or Can-Farm will also be an INCOME TAX reporting sheet with all the figures ready for the T1 General Form.

Stop in at the local Extension office and see the selection of record books later on this month.

CAN-FARM MEETING

We are planning to hold a meeting in early December in the County of Wheatland (location and date to be announced later) to discuss the choices of Bookkeeping Systems available to farmers. Some good systems with considerable flexibility are now available.

To help us locate this meeting at the right place, let us know if you are interested in attending. Call 382-3152 or call at the District Agricultural Office in Strathmore.

Have you ever considered...

...what you can learn from a "living" map?

Alberta Department of Industry and Tourism. Representatives from the Co-operatives Branch are always available to assist you in completing your initial application, arranging documentation and writing the necessary by-laws for any co-operative undertaking. Some people in co-operative provide their own natural gas or electric service - purchase propane, farm equipment, power machinery. Other co-ops are in such diversified fields as logging, housing, farming, fishing, owning retail stores and marketing their products for a more profitable and cost-saving operation. For the protection of all members and patrons, the Branch carries out a continuous program of supervision of all Co-operative activities.

...contributing to Alberta's school curriculum?

...learning how to preserve teeth?

The teeth you want most to preserve belong to you and your children, and you can learn the proper steps to be taken at one of the day-long seminars arranged by the Dental Health Services Branch of the Alberta Department of Health. Trained and experienced lecturers will show you new developments in prevention that could save you an unnecessary strain on the family budget. The seminars are just one of the many taken by the Dental Health Services Branch in its constant fight against dental problems and harmful orthodontic conditions in children. It also carries out a regular preventive educational program through a province-wide network of facilities. Beside the recruitment of needed group personnel for health units, the Branch supplies bursaries and grants to encourage training in dental technologies, and provides modern, transportable equipment for practicing dentists to serve rural areas where other training services are not available.

Friends and neighbors surprised Bud and Anne Hebbes and family by dropping in on them last Wednesday evening for a housewarming party in their new home. A hardly more than one person in four having a safety belt within reach will bother to put it on.

During October, the Alberta Safety Council contacted 43,000 people in this province and asked them if they were wearing the safety belts in their cars. Only 7,920 said yes.

Of more than 21,000 drivers contacted, only one in five had his belt on at the time. About 29% of all cars checked are still without safety belts.

These facts have come to light from an extensive survey conducted throughout the province by volunteer surveyors. The survey was held on four Saturdays, September 27, October 4, October 11 and October 18.

What it points out, the obvious. Safety belts are not a panacea for auto accident casualities - because people don't wear them. At least, not enough people wear them, and certainly not in the right times or places.

When do people wear their belts? The statistics make interesting reading. First of all, very few make use of safety belts while driving in town. Most safety belt usage is on the highway.

Also, the number of highway travellers contacted amounted to only about one third of the sample, more than 50 percent of those wearing safety belts were on highway trips.

People know they're in danger on high speed trips, and they tend to wear the belts in those situations. However, the results to be expected from the wearing of a safety belt in a high speed car may not be as beneficial as those more numerous, and can be very deadly.

Did the safety council campaign do any good? The survey showed some improvement was made in safety belt use. In the sample of 43,000 two percent or 860 people changed their minds, and began wearing safety belts. In the province's population this would mean that several thousand people are now wearing safety belts who weren't before.

F.U.A.

Form of assistance to farmers announced recently by Federal Agriculture Minister H.A. Olson fall far short of dealing with the realities of the situation according to Mr. R. Babey, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Mr. Babey said in Edmonton an immediate injection of cash through joint federal-provincial program such as some form of acreage payments is needed by some members of the farming community just to meet basic necessities this winter.

He agreed that cash advances on unharvested grain would give farmers some much needed cash but questioned the advisability of trying to meet the need by giving advances on grain that is rotting in the field.

"The advances will have to be repaid," said the F.U.A. President, "but with what?"

Mr. Babey also stressed the need for federal and provincial legislation deferring payments on land, machinery and buildings which farmers cannot make simply because they don't have the money.

"We have to get the money lenders off the farmers' backs," he stated, "whether they are the Farm Credit Corporation or private institutions." He also said funds would be needed in some areas to dry grain that was harvested in a damp condition.

STRATHMORE ANGLICAN CHURCH CELEBRATES 60th ANNIVERSARY

WEDDING REIMER - LANDON

On the 21st of November, 1909, at 7:30 p.m., the First Bishop of Calgary, the Rt. Rev'd. Cyprian Pinkham, dedicated the new Church of St. Michael & All Angels, Strathmore. On the 25th of November, 1969, at 7:30 p.m., the Fifth Bishop of Calgary, the Rt. Rev'd M.L. Goodman, pontificated at a Solemn High Eucharist marking the 60th Anniversary of that dedication. The Church, mellowed by time and hallowed by the prayers of thousands of faithful people, was filled to capacity by nearly two hundred people and many were forced to sit in the Memorial Porch and in the sacristy.

The Eucharist was celebrated by the Rector, the Rev'd J.C. Marlor, who was assisted by several former incumbents of the parish: The Very Rev'd D. D. Ford, Dean of Saskatoon (1943-1948) who offered the intercessions; the Rev'd D. Anderson (1958-1962) who read the Epistle and the Rev'd D. Houghton (1949-1951) who read the Holy Gospel.

The guest preacher was the Bishop of Calgary who also pronounced the Absolution and gave the final Blessing. His Chaplain for the evening was the Rev. J. J. Prince of the parish of St. John the Divine, Blackfoot Reserve. Mr. Eric Houghton of Calgary, son of the former rector, was the guest organist. The Bishop, his Chaplain, and the former incumbents joined the Rector in the Prayer of Consecration.

In his sermon the Bishop noted the blessings of the past and rejoiced in our affection for a building so filled with memories and inspiration.

STRATHMORE HOCKEY

On November 26th, the Strathmore Juventus played Bowness. This game ended in a 6-6 tie. The game got pretty rough and penalties were by far too plentiful.

Strathmore goal getters were: Desmet 2; Coldwell 1; Stevenson 2; C. Deeg 1. Assistants went to C. Deeg 1; Knight 1; Baker 1; Desmet 3.

He challenged the congregation to be ever aware of its priorities and duties in the present troubled times; the continual praise of God, regular participation in the Eucharist - the central act of Christian worship, and meaningful service to fellow man - through constant witness to the Truth and acts of love and self-giving.

Many people in the Church had travelled many miles for this "homecoming" and it was a moving experience to see coming forward to the altar people who had worshipped in the new Church sixty years ago. One such person was Mr. A. Lambert of Medicine Hat, son of Strathmore's first Pharmacist and in whose father's store, Bishop Pinkham administered the Sacrament of Confirmation before the Church was built. Also present were the Pastors and lay-representatives of the other three Strathmore Churches.

Following the service a reception was held in the Memorial Hall, beautifully decorated for the occasion. The official receiving line and social hour were followed by a luncheon. Several telegrams were read, including ones from the Rev'd P. Tennant (1952-56) and the Rev'd K. Collison (1956-59).

The highlight of the reception was the presentation of a corsage to Mrs. M.E. Freeman, who, in 1910, as a new bride, worshipped in the Church for the first time when Bishop Pinkham was again present to dedicate the new bell and tower and the chancel and sanctuary portions of the Church. Mrs. Freeman and Bishop Goodman then cut the anniversary cake. The rest of the evening was spent in happy reunion as long-separated friends cried hard (and successfully) to make up lost time.

When is the Sportsman Dinner? Don't forget. It's DECEMBER 10. Banquet at 7:00 p.m. SHARP.

We feel we have some good speakers, also a good M.C. The speakers are Granville Liggins, Stamper Football Player; Billy Hay, Fro Hockey Player; and a local boy Dave McDonald, a top all-round cowboy.

There will be two or three other speakers coming down to help us make a success of the night. Proceeds are for Minor Hockey. This dinner is open to everybody. The Executive of Minor Hockey are asking your support, especially those who have boys playing hockey. It's up to the people of Strathmore and district whether we can make this an annual event. Other towns do it - can we?

There will also be a trophy presentation and other prizes. Hope to see you there!

The Rockyford United Church was the scene of an evening wedding, when Donna Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I.H. Reimer, was united in marriage with Mr. Phillip James Landon, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Landon of Black Diamond, Alberta.

Rev. E. Morrison officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place November 8th, 1969.

Given away by her father, the bride looked lovely in a traditional fitted gown of white taffeta which featured a double overlay of net and white organza, white appliqued water lilies bordered the empire bodice, boat neckline, short sleeves and gown. The long train of same appliqued organza fell from gathering pleats at the back of the empire waistline. The matching bouffant shoulder length veil was held in place by a single satin rose and a band of pearlized leaves. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings, a gift from the groom. She carried a presentation bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and purple statice.

Mrs. Laura Dennis was matron of honour and looked lovely in a royal purple velvet gown, short purple veil headpiece and shocking pink accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of shocking pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Dan Dennis attended the groom as best man. Mr. John Stead and Mr. Ross Cheveaux acted as ushers.

Mrs. Laurence Roppel rendered the organ music and Mrs. John Wagemakers was soloist.

The mother of the bride chose a burgundy velvet dress, contrasting hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

The mother of the groom chose a jade green velvet dress ensemble, contrasting feathered hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of coral and gold sweetheart roses.

Following the wedding, an open house and dance were held in the Community Hall.

Mr. Bill Dennis proposed the toast to bride and groom, to which the groom capably responded. Mr. Stan Frayn was Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

For good luck, the bride chose a dark green suede suit, black milk pillow hat and black accessories. A yellow rose corsage complemented her outfit.

After a short honeymoon, the couple have taken up residence in Calgary.

ROCKYFORD

Saturday night, Nov. 22, was the night of the annual Cub Pancake Supper and show. By being present one couldn't help but notice the willing kitchen crew working tirelessly for the benefit of our boys in the community.

The show, "Gentle Giant", was an outstanding family film! A parent appreciates a movie like this so much when we all know how difficult it is these days to find a good wholesome film in which to take the children to. The Scout Jamboree Film was just great, also!

Our community owes a great debt to the many hours of work and time that our Cub Leaders give unselfishly to our boys. Many thanks leaders! We really do appreciate what you are doing!

Doctor Bradley and his wife Miriam will be staying in Strathmore.

There was some speculation by many people, not particularly the Bradley's, just the folks who know, that after the sale of John's interests in the Veterinary Clinic, they would move away. "Yain't so". John has joined Investors Syndicate Limited and now advises and sells Guaranteed Investments and Mutual Funds for that company.

John has long had a yearning to work normal hours and his knowledge of finance sets him up for this particular field of work.

Just to keep his hand in, John has some brood racing mares and their offspring at his farm west of Strathmore.

...who keeps industry healthy for you?

The investigation and control of occupational health hazards is the function of the Alberta Division of Health Services Division of the Alberta Department of Health. The Division has a team consisting of an occupational health physician and hygienists, chemists, an engineer, radiation health officers and an occupational health nurse consultant. The service is available on request to any employer who is concerned with maintaining a safe and healthy working environment. Work related to problems such as those connected with chemicals, dust, fumes, noise,

...who tells all about Alberta's government?

Keeping you and as many other people as possible fully informed on government activities and services is the responsibility of the Alberta Government Publicity

Bureau. Although a branch of the Alberta Department of Industry and Tourism the Bureau's scope of activity includes all departments and to keep the public informed, it utilizes many forms of communication. Advertisement, such as this, is a variety of free periodicals, all are employed to help keep you informed on the activities of your provincial government and the service it performs on your behalf.

Before houses can be built or roads started in any community subdivision, the land has to be measured and boundary markers set. To see that this is done properly is the job of the Survey Branch of the Alberta Department of Highways and Transport. In addition, the Branch is responsible for the establishment of base lines and survey of townships and highways and has direction over all legal surveying done within the province. The Director and staff also examine all survey plans to ensure their compliance with the Alberta Surveys Act. The results of this work are recorded on plans registered in the Land Titles Office and are subsequently reflected in the variety of maps produced by the Mapping Division of the Survey Branch.

...counting the wink for cents in Alberta?

The hundreds of primary producers who raise Alberta's annual two million dollar fur crop must be kept up to date on all technical improvements and changes if they are to keep their output up and their overhead down. The Fur Farms Branch of the Alberta Department of Agriculture keeps them informed by regular news bulletins as well as field days, shows and meetings. Regular check inspections by personnel of this Branch of the Veterinary Services Division also help maintain the industry. The Division exported mainly to North and European markets. An information service is available to the buying public on meat, chicken, fish and other raised-fur products through the Branch which completes statistics and keeps accurate record of fur bearing animals raised in the province.

It's not a widely known statistic but social workers in this province have estimated and will tell you the hard fact that vulnerable children make up almost half the entire welfare population. By far the greatest proportion of people receiving vital living assistance under our Social Allowances Program are handicapped persons who seldom meet, aged men and women out of the social mainstream and one-parent families involving mostly mothers with one or more dependent children with out support. Through 35 regional offices maintained by the Alberta Department of Social Development the officers and personnel of the Public Assistance Branch administer budgets, characterize, assess, process payments for food, shelter, clothing and expenses needed to keep up health, education and other standards. They also examine and analyze the effectiveness of active operating plans and trial projects in rehabilitation services offering guidance, training and counselling to help as many individuals and families as possible to get back on the track to self-support, self-determination and independence.

...fast action for accidental poisoning?

Immediate information about poisonous substances is available to your family doctor, hospital, nurse, and a quick reference directly to parents through the Poison Control Services maintained by the Alberta Department of Health. Every general hospital in the province has a poison control centre with a quick reference system which tells whether or not a substance is poisonous - what the active poisonous material is, and what can be done about it. In addition to these poison control centres, poison information centres are located in Calgary and Edmonton where information on special treatment of unusual poisons is immediately available to doctors or hospitals.

THE STRATHMORE STANDARD

Second Class Mail Reg. No. 0688

EDITORIAL

The article below was in the High River Times of December 4th and as we are in the same boat we publish, with the same sentiments High River has expressed, "misery loves company".

Paper Late Again

To many of our city subscribers to whom we have been able to offer little except sympathy during recent visits to The Times office about delivery service, we submit the following item from The Provoked Word on the grounds that misery loves company.

THERE IS NOTHING like the Canadian Post Office unless it's the British or the US post office. Any number of allures are thrown at the post office user when he is disappointed, exasperated and defeated.

Mr. Kierans says the only people who suffer because of the lack of Saturday mail service are the ones who mail letters Friday night. Quite a lot of voters mail letters Friday night.

Of course, there are the letters mailed late on Thursdays that miss Friday delivery and don't get sorted until Monday. Mr. Kierans has cheerfully advised about this problem. It is to mail early enough on Thursdays.

The enterprising publisher of the Fort Erie Times-Review recently decided to send his second class mail clearly marked but apparently that works only every other week. An issue of this weekly paper dated October 1st did not reach one subscriber until October 8th, when it arrived on the same delivery that brought the issue of Oct. 8th.

Mr. Kierans, the Postmaster General or Minister of Communications or whatever, maybe was trying to be funny. He certainly has achieved a great reputation for inefficiency.

DALUM

By I. Nygaard

Greetings to Arne Jacobson who was a patient in the Drumheller Hospital last week. He and Svend Andersen were room-mates and are both now doing fine.

Sympathy of the Dalum district is expressed to the Harold Lund family in the passing of Pauline's mother Mrs. Katherine Muester of Rosedale on Nov. 21st. The funeral was held on Nov. 23 in Drumheller.

We are also sorry to read of the passing of Mr. Ralph Dyer, an old timer of Rockyford. Mr. Dyer was the father of Mrs. Lillian Bruhn who was principal of Dalum School for two years. Mr. Dyer spent much of his time at Dalum with the Bruhn family so we became acquainted with this fine old gentleman.

Svend and Edna Mortensen and the boys and Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Mortensen were in Ennawatie on Nov. 15 to attend the Diamond Wedding Celebrations for Edna's grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Andersen and Kim were down from Edmonton last week-end to attend funeral services on Nov. 28 at Drumheller for Sheri's grandmother, Mrs. M. Eberhart who passed away in the Drumheller hospital.

The election for Councillor in this district was held on Nov. 26 with Mr. E. Detmer being re-elected on a close vote.

Greetings and get-well-wishes to our neighbors Mrs. Palmer Rasmussen in the Drumheller Hospital and to Mrs. Axel Ostergaard in Foothills Hospital, Calgary.

GLEICHEN

By Mrs. Olive Nicholas

Our best wishes go to Mrs. Dick Tower, a patient in Rockyview Hospital.

Congratulations to Gleichien Jr. High boys who won the South Central Volleyball Championship at Three Hills on Nov. 29th. The boys were undefeated at tournament, winning the final game against Three Hills. Team consists of Pat Burns, Gerry Warner, Gary Kouchach, Darrell Vermorel, Fred Gingras, Marcel Dubois, Ted Rougeau, Stan Hall and Stan Yule.

Friends will be sorry to hear of the death of a training flight of Captain C.J. (Jerry) Caracodan on Nov. 24 in Transvaal, East Africa. He was survived by his wife, the former Joy Stuemerle and two daughters. Funeral service was held in Transvaal with a Memorial Service at the Training Base at Trenton, Ontario.

Greetings to Gleichien Community and old friends come from Mrs. Alvina Carstensen (now Moss) of Abbotsford, B.C. who writes of enjoying our local news and the "Gleichen Call". She also writes of Miss Helen Bennett, in good spirits at Cottage Hospital, Abbotsford, who would no doubt enjoy hearing from old friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Ed Hoff and Christine and Peter and baby son Richard from New York, 24, will be staying with Regina's parents in Lethbridge while Ed attends FUA convention in Edmonton.

Past times are again recalled as we learn (courtesy of Mrs. Alvina Carstensen of Abbotsford) of the death of Rev. John Richard Davies on Nov. 16, 1969 at Surrey, B.C. at the age of seventy-seven years. The Rev. J. Davies was Vicar at Andrews's Church from 1928 until 1938. He is survived by his wife Betty, a son Trevor, North Vancouver and daughters Mrs. W. (Gwyneth) Hubley, Chilliwack, B.C. and Mrs. D. (Gwen) Hubbard, Vancouver. Funeral was Nov. 20 at St. Helen's Anglican Church, Surrey.

Gleichen F.W.U.A. met at Dec. 4th at the L. Nicol's home. There was considerable discussion on the proposed amalgamation with N.F.U. Guest speaker was Extension Agent Gerald W. Law, A.G. of Calgary. Men will again meet same time and place as F.W.U.A. - 2:00 p.m. Jan. 8th at the Art Prowse home.

The Activity Club consisting of about fifty members in Grades 3 to Jr. High, have been meeting each Thurs. evening in the United Church Basement. Starting off with four leaders, there are now close to ten and much enthusiasm is evident. These young folk have been extremely busy at various projects. Now, as a culmination of their first session, we will have a special afternoon Sat. Dec. 13 at the United Church Basement. From 2 to 3 p.m., there will be a display of all projects and during this time, tea will be served. Following this, there will be choral singing and finally the bazaar consisting of the many articles made by the Group. All are welcome. On Thurs. Dec. 18, the Activity Group will go out caroling. Sounds or blasting in this community indicate that Elmer Crum is busy at the job of demolishing the former "Evening Home" which he owns. At present, he is being assisted by Percy Talbot who is in charge of blasting operations. Mr. Talbot, formerly with P.F.R.A. at Arrowwood, has had many years experience in this area of work. Cam Evans big campfire is also being used by the team to pull down the walls and foundations in the basement and level off grounds. The old hospital, an annex of the Home, will house Mr. Crum's school business. The former laundry building, with an addition added, serves as a hangar for Elmer's plane and houses the school bus driven by Matt Murray. The south of where the home stood has been seeded to grass for a future landing strip. There will be some who will recall with nostalgia the day on Nov. 10, 1920, when the "Home" was a brand new impressive structure - a School of Agriculture, where both young men and women were schooled in Agriculture and Home Economics. In 1922, the school had to be closed due to low enrolment (The farmers were in grip of poor prices for their wheat and in need for warm, quality clothing).

Sci. Don Sports has developed a wind chill chart to assist in winter sports, and other who have to be out in winter weather, in knowing the exact wind chill temperature under given thermometer readings. Copies available at Sci. Don's (see small ad).

Gleichen U.C.W. held their 1969 meeting Tues. afternoon Dec. 2nd with the usual business successfully closed. People are asked to bring home baking to "Tea and Sale of Articles" of the Activity Club to be held Sat. afternoon Dec. 13th in the Church basement.

Meeting concluded with exchange of gifts. Next meeting to be Jan. 6th at 2:30 P.M. with the new slate of officers in the chair.

GLEICHEN F.W.U.A.

Gleichen F.W.U.A. met on Dec. 4th at the L. Nicol's home with twenty-two ladies on hand. Carol singing was enjoyed.

Members will participate in knitting afghans for the Red Cross.

The Sewing Course will be held in the Legion Hall Feb. 4-5, 10th and 11th from 10 to 4 p.m. Donations were voted to the Salvation Army and to Meadowbrook Hall Board for renovations to the dining room.

Christmas Program was in charge of Mrs. Vermorel and Mrs. E. Yule.

Southern engraved coffee spoons were presented to Mrs. F. Sammons and Mrs. G. Charrand who are making their homes in Calgary. Presentation was made by Mrs. N. McMillan who also presented Mrs. Bob Burne with an engraved spoon in token of her work as President. The Transvaal with a Memorial Service at the Training Base at Trenton, Ontario.

Presented little Christmas numbers and contests completed the afternoon's activities. Lunch and handing out of gifts from the tree concluded a happy Christmas meeting.

The next meeting will be on Jan. 8th at the home of Mrs. A. Prowse.

HUSAR

by Leda Jensen

Marion Clark spent a few days in Calgary with her mother Mrs. Annie Sanden.

Christmas programs are in the planning both in the Sunday school and in the community. Sunday school children are urged to bring gifts for their friends. Kids this year. The community concert will be on the 19 and the Sunday school program on the 21st. Candy bags will be given at the community concert and in order to defray expenses donations will be received at the stores.

Eileen Muller was hostess to the pot luck dinner held for the Jubilee local on Thursday. After the delicious meal a short business meeting was called to order by president Joan Madson. The Family Living Series Jan. 5-9 in the Husar Community Hall was encouraged and the Jubilee Local will serve the coffee on the evening of the 14th. Donations were made to the Husar library, and to the skating rink. Gifts were brought for mental health patients. A few games were played under direction of Marge Johansen. The next meeting will be in Feb. at Darlene Fandry.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Madson spent last week end in Edmonton visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Larsen.

Mrs. Taylor's parents and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turner, and Mr. Doug Wier from Milk River visited with the Taylors over the weekend.

Mrs. Mildred Simmons stayed with her daughter Cyra in Calgary for a week. Cyra and Bill Gwinn and family brought Mildred home and stayed over the week end.

Bill Willis entertained friends and relatives to a buffet supper on Saturday night when Doug and Ron were home from Walla Walla and Elaine was home from Portland, Ore. An evening of games and singing was enjoyed by all. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kofel and Tina from Calgary.

Mrs. Leonore Detmer flew to Vancouver to attend the funeral of a school friend's father.

FUA BAVARIAN NIGHT

The Husar Community Hall, set up in Cabaret style with gaily colored table cloths and candlelight, was filled to capacity for an evening of fun for all. Dancing was enjoyed with the very appropriate and pleasing music provided by Steve's Ranch House Ramblers, Calgary.

Mrs. Leda Jensen, FWA Sub-Dist. Director introduced the special guests, Mrs. Betty Pedersen, Provincial FWA 2nd Vice President; Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hasselmann, Pincher Creek, Hans in District 12 FWA Director; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marr, Pincher Creek, Mrs. Marr in District 12 FWA Director; Charlie Parrar, Penhold, Dist. 10 FWA Director; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gore, Mrs. Gore in Dist. 10 FWA Director. ROSEBUD

By Mrs. F. Biblow

We note with regret that one of Rosebud's old-time ranchers, Mr. Dick Cosgrave, has retired as Arena Director of the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. All of us who take in Calgary's Annual Show will really miss Mr. Cosgrave riding around in that arena to keep things on the bit. As the Stampede Board has given Mr. Cosgrave an Honorary Life Directorship, they will, no doubt, be consulting with him on many occasions. The sold belt buckle which Mr. Cosgrave received from the Stampede Board will be one of his most prized souvenirs and will bring back many fond memories of his Arena days.

Sorry that your reporter omitted two items from the program. Nancy Krabben's Bride Shower, namely: A Monologue - Betty VanLaar and The Reading of Letters from Collin's mother and grandmother in the presence of the Mistress of Ceremonies Mrs. Nicklaasen.

The usual Rosebud crowd Barr, Skibsted, Greenwald, Colberg and Biblow have taken in a number of the Miner's Hockey Games in the Drumheller Arena but have been able to cheer Drumheller on to too many victories. They report some good and exciting games though.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30th, Pamela Comstock, Gayle Comstock, Colleen Jensen and Debra Comstock took part in the musical which Mrs. J. Olhauer, Carbon, held in her home for all her pupils.

Get well wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen who have been on the sick list lately. Hope that both of you will soon be improving your health soon. Mrs. Rasmussen has spent a few days in Drumheller Hospital while Carl has been three weeks in Foot Hills Hospital, Calgary.

ROSEBUD DORCAS GROUP

The November meeting of the Rosebud Dorcas Group was held at the home of Marion Zorn. Mrs. Ken Gosh, Missionary home on furloigh from the Canary Islands, was guest speaker. Her devotion was based on Hebrews 12, 1-13. Devotions were closed with a prayer.

During the business portion of the meeting, it was decided to hold a cleaning day at the manse on Nov. 10th.

Used clothes will be collected for the Bethany Homes for children and sorted and packed at the Manse.

Dorothy Strom will be guest speaker at our next meeting to be held at the manse on Dec. 1st. Mrs. Strom is on furloigh from Japan. The roll call will be a money donation to be sent to Bethany Homes for the purchase of fruit for Christmas.

Full Conference is Nov. 12 at the Fundamental Baptist Church in Edmonton. A car has been offered for those wishing to attend. Special music, Missionary Guest Speakers and a pot luck dinner are on the agenda, as well as a panel discussion in the afternoon entitled "What the Missionary on the Field Expects of the Church at Home" and "What the Church at Home Expects of the Missionary in the Field."

A Library Committee will make a trip to Three Hills for the purchase of books as soon as a date can be arranged.

For the remainder of the meeting, the ladies worked on cards.

Folks are again reminded that the Community Christmas Card, sponsored by the Good Neighbor Club, is at the Rosebud Post Office with proceeds to be used for purchase of a coffee maker for the Rosebud Hall kitchen.

Please note that the date for the Annual Christmas Concert, by Rosebud Parent - Teacher Association, has been changed and will be held on Thursday, Dec. 18th, 1969 at 7:30 p.m. sharp in Rosebud Hall.

On Sat. night a large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered in the Namaka Hall honoring Andy and Edith Thomson who have sold their farm and are living in Calgary.

The evening started off at 6:30 with a delicious array of food in the form of a pot-luck supper.

After supper, Loy Wheeler on behalf of all the friends presented them with a purse and the well-wishes of everyone. Then everyone enjoyed well-wishes, the winners being ladies high - Ruth Anderson, Calgary, and ladies low - Vera Fawkes.

Gents high went to Edwin Hanson of Edmonton who was down visiting at the time, and the gents low went to Bob Biggar.

Coffee and bun-wiches brought a lovely evening to a close. The community will very much miss Andy and Edith as they were wonderful friends and neighbors and we wish them many years of happiness in their retirement.

G.L. Ford, by letter dated October 30th, 1969, asked the County to advise him as to its intentions with respect to his letter of September 3rd, 1969, in which he requested voluntary payment of the account.

Considering that no replies have been received from the Department of Education or the Department of Attorney General and after reviewing Section 421 of the School Act, the School Committee reached the following decision: Moved "That the School Committee hereby rescind the motion appearing on Page 1 of the September 8th, 1969 Minutes, reading as follows: 'That the County of Wheatland No. 16 pay MacKinnon, Mathews, Ford, etc. legal account in the amount of $1,336.68 incurred over the scrutiny of the bill on May 7th, 1969.'" Burne in his capacity of Returning Officer for the County of Wheatland No. 16, and the said County of Wheatland No. 16, the County of Wheatland pay to the Court the $200.00 as set out in the order of $7560 plus disbursements according to the bills submitted by G.L. Ford on Sept. 3rd, 1969 in the amount of $136.68." Carried.

HUSSAR PIANO INSTRUCTION: Committee Member Stewart reported on behalf of the Hussar School Committee and indicated that they had met in the Hussar School on October 21st, 1969, at 10:00 p.m. The Committee checked the rental level in piano in adjoining rooms as well as down stairs in the Hussar School. They also checked with the Principal and teachers and found no complaints from the staff. Mr. Stewart reported that the teachers are more receptive to this arrangement than students going outside of school for lessons. It was the unanimous decision of the Committee that there be no interruption in piano lessons at this time.

The acceptance of this report was moved and that music instruction be carried on in the Hussar School as present, for the 1969-70 school year and in private homes and studios to have this continue beyond June 30th, 1970, such application must be made in writing to the School Committee prior to commencement. Carried.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S MEDAL AWARD: Superintendent Holman reported that the County of Wheatland is now a separate jurisdiction insofar as the Governor-General's Award is concerned. Following is the winner and the runners-up on the award contest:

During the convention clinics were held on the proposed changes for a new School Act and also on the recent report from the committee set up by the Minister of Education for a study school finance. Moved "That the County of Wheatland write to the Department of Education and the Alberta School Trustees Association recommending that Section 82 of the proposed School Act be changed to allow auditors and Secretary-Treasurers up to February 28th to submit the complete Financial Statements to the Department of Education." Carried.

Student presently on bursary and at the Universities will be supported up to the 4th year University level. From a study conducted by a Superintendent in a neighboring county, it appears that most School Boards in the immediate surrounding area, have or are planning out their bursary program.

YOUTH VOYAGER PROGRAM: The Province of Alberta is continuing a Youth Voyager program similar to the Centennial Youth Exchange Program which the County of Wheatland participated in. Applications to participate are being invited by the Province and the School Committee feels that this program is very worthwhile. Moved "That the County of Wheatland advise the Province of Alberta that it is prepared to assemble a unit for dispatch to other Provinces and in return would be prepared to host a unit from another Province, under the Youth Voyager Program." TEEN CLUB MEETING

By Marilyn Mitzner Secretary

The meeting, held Dec. 4, 1969 at Primrose's, was brought to order by Mr. Davidson (Murray).

The main idea of this meeting was to set up a plan and policy and get the main objectives. We discussed who the adult advisors would be. Some voluntary adult advisors are as follows: Mrs. Vescorelli, Mrs. Primrose, Mrs. Esterbrook, Mr. Short, Mr. Farran.

Nominations for President were opened. Faith Primrose was nominated by L. Peterson and Marilyn Mitzner was nominated by L. Vescorelli. Moved nominations cease by Shirley Esterbrook. Seconded by M. Mitzner. Faith Primrose elected. Nominations for Vice-President were opened. Mason Blackley was nominated by J. Chavari and Donna Jones was nominated by Greg Koopman. Moved nominations cease by L. Vescorelli, seconded by G. Boche.

Nominations for Secretary - Marilyn Mitzner - unanimous because shorthand was needed. Nominations for Treasurer: Donna Jones - unanimous as bookkeeping was needed for this. After a brief interruption, the meeting was brought to order.

Advisor speaks - set up objectives were: 1) Bring kids off the street and give them some place to go - and possibly improve upon the community.

United Church was suggested for a regular meeting place if approved by the minister, Rev. Short until organization further developed. Our present organization will use a rotary system for meeting places.

We discussed membership fee, voted on it and it was unanimous. It was set at $1.00 per person membership fee annually.

Voting on age groups - age allowed for membership is thirteen and up - vote unanimous.

Visitors will be allowed up to a maximum of five times annually. If over five visits, visitors must pay membership fee.

Faith moved that our meetings be held twice a month unless otherwise stated. Seconded by Judy Chavari and carried.

It was moved that the money be stored in joint checking accounts in the bank. It was voted on, moved and carried.

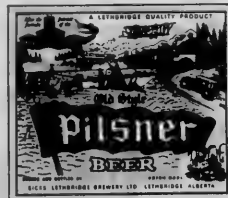

Faith made a motion that some kind of a drive be made to get a fund to get started on. This drive will be within the next month.

Judy Chavari adjourned the meeting. Seconded by M. Mitzner and carried.

Rocketing across the East Side of the Lethbridge Pilsner label is the hottest Hupmobile in town. That's them. The original Bunny and Clyde. And they've got trouble, see? 'Cause there's a shogun-totin' sheriff in that stagecoach. And if he doesn't nail them, the Mad Bomber in the biplane will. Unless Crazy Horse and the Seven Nations get there first.

It's a razzamatazz old world on our label. Happily though, things are much quieter inside the bottle. There you'll find Alberta's original Pil - brewed the slow, natural way for honest flavour's sake. No one can steal that.

Ornburn Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ornburn celebrated their Golden Wedding on Sunday, Nov. 30th with their six daughters and 22 grandchildren all in attendance. The weatherman cooperated with a sunny mild day, allowing many old-timers to drive back to the old home town.

The Community Hall ardently decorated for the happy occasion was the scene of a large gathering of relatives and friends for miles around. The hall was adorned to her place of honor by Grandma McGowan, and Floyd by Harold Niklassen, both good friends of long standing.

Capable M.C. was their neighbor Lionel Ricard, who called first upon Clark Christensen for the Civic Welcome. Congratulatory telegrams were from such dignitaries as Prime Minister Trudeau, Hon. Harry Strom, Gov. Gen. R. Mitchell, Reist, Stanfield, M.L.A. Gordon Taylor and Lunenburg, Gov. Grant McEwen.

Charlotte Jensen accompanied Susie Dankworth, Shirley and Loraine Grant who contributed a vocal number.

Peggy Thomson, of Calgary youngest daughter introduced lead table guests. Eli Westergaard with his guitar entertained with two songs. Margaret Larsen is her tribute to the couple reminiscence of the happy memories of the Long Beach School days and the active part the Ornburns played in the community.

Mina Elder, accompanied by Lyle Hansen sang an old favorite.

Pat Wheeler, of Torrington, spoken on behalf of the family. Mr. Chris Dahl of Strathmore told of the early associations with the couple in the years of the old threshing outfits and cook cars. Mr. Tom McGowan made the Community presentation of a lovely lamp and a purse. Pastor Abrahamson made a unique presentation of a "Gray Cap" to mark this special date after which he pronounced the happiest of all marriages.

A most enjoyable evening concluded with a delicious lunch and a friendly visit. Dennis Myrby, a former Standard boy, son of Mr. Myrby, was recently honored at a banquet in recognition for outstanding performance of duty by the Alberta Aviation Council. Dennis who is a department of Transport Controller at McCall Field is credited with saving the lives of two flyers, by his quick thinking when he located a weak turbine, marked it, and then he was able to guide the rescue pilot to the exact location of the crash.

Mr. and Mrs. C.V. Madson, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Reiffenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Larsen attended the Reiffenstein - Merchant wedding in Calgary last Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Kapunak upon the birth of a new daughter Tamara Joy, 3 lb. 8 oz. at Grace Hospital on Dec. 3rd. Very proud grandparents are the Bill Kapunaks and the Surge Larsens.

Mrs. Annie Reiffenstein underwent surgery in Calgary General on Friday. Best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Fraser have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Della and her husband Wally Farrook of Washington.

Scott and Kristen Madson have been guests of the Watt's while Glen and Arlene were in N. Vancouver where they are house hunting, as Glen has been transferred there.

Mrs. Ken Larsen and Emery spent a few days at Balzac with Eweby's folks there.

Mr. Elmer Wirt is again a patient in Bassano Hospital.

Allan Svederus is doing some work at Flat Lake, and in his absence Beryl is in Calgary with Ray and Winnie.

Recently Donna Peterson entertained her shower committee. Her mother and Gary's mother were also present.

The Glen Dick family of Wainwright were week end guests of the Firkus and enjoyed seeing their many friends in this community.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

A Trip to Calgary

On Nov. 27th, our Guide Company went to Calgary.

After a busy meal, we went on a hectic shopping spree. Now for the high-light and real purpose of our trip - the Husky Tour. This was an interesting building to visit, although unfortunately some were afraid of heights. But fear gave way to interest as we gazed down upon the many heights of the city, from the tower.

This trip was fun-to-us, and our co-operative leaders and drivers.

ARDENODE

by E. Groves

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Tom Paton, formerly of Ardenode. Mr. Paton had served faithfully with the Alberta Wheat Pool here and was a much-loved member of the community. Sympathy of the district goes out to his family.

Glen Groves is now employed by the North Hill News in Calgary.

Jerry Bazant is studying Chemical Engineering at the Calgary Tech.

The Strathmore representatives of the South-Central Jr. Volleyball won the coveted trophy in the Playoffs at Three Hills recently. Nice going girls!

Harvest operations have been going full speed and many have managed to get the crop in in fair condition, thus relieving fields for livestock. The unseasonable weather was welcomed by the farm people.

Mrs. Wm. McNeill Sr. was honored on her 74th Birthday by a family party at the home of her daughter and son-in-law Marge and Russ Morgan recently. She has resided in Alberta for 54 years, coming from the Reason and Pipestone districts of Manitoba as a young lady to teach in the little red schoolhouse of that time.

Don't forget the Annual Christmas Party for the district boys and girls at the Hall Friday, Dec. 19th. The children will entertain in their own style and good old Santa has promised to drop in.

Charlie and Mardelle Bazant were host and hostess Friday evening when the Annual Good Neighbor Christmas Supper and Social evening was held in their home. This is the occasion when the ladies entertain their husbands. After a delicious buffet supper the evening was spent with games, fun and good fellowship. Frank Bazant on behalf of the husbands thanked the ladies. This brings to a close two years of the club. The Jan. meeting will be held at the home of Mayme Martin on the 21st.

Mr. Frank Pavcek Sr. celebrated his 86th birthday on Friday, Dec. 5th by going out for the afternoon and to supper with Mr. and Mrs. Andy Pavcek and John.

SOME FRIENDLY ADVICE TO OUR PARENTS

SOME FRIENDLY ADVICE TO OUR PARENTS

KEEP YOUR COOL. We need the confidence that only a steady hand can offer.

DON'T GET HUNG UP ON ACTIVITIES that keep you too busy to establish good communications with us.

DON'T GET STIRRED OUT. Stay away from liquor and pills.

BUG US A LITTLE. Use strict but loving discipline. Show us you are wise and strong enough to be boss.

DON'T BLOW YOUR CLASS. Keep the dignity of parenthood. Kids need to know their parents are adults.

LIGHT US A CANDLE. Show us the way to faith. Be an example of faith at work.

TAKE THE WORLD OFF OUR SHOULDERS. Talk to us about morals, love, life, eternity, peace of mind and values. Let us know we can count on you when things get tight.

SCARE THE DAYLIGHTS OUT OF US. When you catch a child in his first encounter with wrong, punish him. Be sure he understands what he has done wrong and why it is wrong. Let him know you are punishing him because you love him and are concerned, not because you want to get even.

CALL OUR BLUFF. Stand firm and don't let us con you.

BE HONEST WITH US. Tell us the truth. Be generous in praise when it comes time to criticize us, we will then believe you and respect your judgment.

YOUR CHILDREN

FAR AWAY PLACES

There are times when I'm weary of life's usual things, And I'd fly to some far away place;

And I wish to escape from the grind of my work That keeps me tied down in one place.

So I dial a number and ask for details And for brochures and pictures sent free. Then I wait for the mail which will come in a week With its schedules of travel by sea.

It seems I must seek for the cheapest trip offered, And the one that will take the least time. Then I ready myself for the sight-seeing joy Of new places in far away clime.

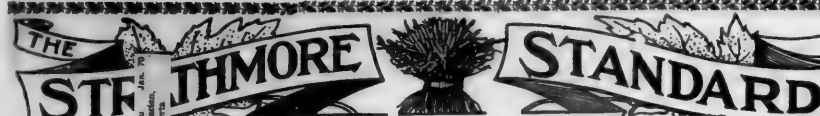

I pick cherry blossoms in Japanese gardens, And I rest by the sea in the sand, I take tours to the mountains and islands around Mid the courtesy shown in that land.

The peaks of the Alps give a strong invitation To ski in her bracing fresh breezes. The blue of the sea that laps Italy's shore line From my tensions and cares me releases.

In Westminster Abbey I sense the past's history. The jewels in Tower of London Are adornments for nobility and for their heirs. But for me, just to view and go on.

With a sigh of regret and a call from my wife That the coffee is just about brewed. I put down my folders and thank God for printers, And The brochures that help lift my mood.

COMMENT.

We have listened to the news on radio today with dismay. Someone has been lying.

Wheat, we have been told is a glut on the market and the whole world has enjoyed a bumper harvest, and our salesmen have been facing a hopeless sales job.

Now, Russia we are told, is short of ten million tons, owing to bad weather conditions spoiling their harvest and further, they will take delivery of 128 million bushels worth on a contract one year expired.

We on the American Continent, spend a lot of money - spying on Russia. It might be a good idea to recruit a few farmers into the ranks of Canada's M.I. 5 and then we would not have to rely on reports by economists, agronomists and all the other misty experts, and we would know where to sell our wheat.

We wish our friends and patrons a very merry Christmas... may your holidays ring with good cheer and plenty!

Salvation Army
Message

"Canada is in the throes of a triple epidemic - drug addiction, alcoholism and crime." Commissioner Clarence D. Wiseman, National Commander of The Salvation Army in Canada, stated recently. "This triple epidemic is fostered by the prevailing climate of permissiveness that scoffs at restraint and discipline and holds decency in slight regard."

In this Christmas message to the people of Canada, Commissioner Wiseman calls for renewed effort to uphold Christian values in government, business and day-to-day relationships not only by the integrity of their lives but also by their protest against debasement of such values.

"The day has come for Christians to be vocal, to stop sitting on the fence on vital issues, to speak up even if in the minority."

The Commissioner states that this is exactly what God did at Christmas. He came down from high Heaven, as it were, into the midst of human muddle, to identify Himself with man's struggle for decency, and to show through the life and sacrifice of Jesus the way of Salvation.

There are two major defects in modern thinking, the National Leader suggests, which are as far removed from the inner meaning of Christmas as anything could possibly be.

"The first major defect is the rejection of absolutes in the realm of morals. No longer is there absolute right or wrong, truth or falsehood. What we do depends on the situation, and how we are feeling at the moment, rather than on any permanent system of values. Thus morals have become highly subjective, rooted in man instead of God. This way leads to decadence and disintegration."

"The second major defect is the worship of material things. Anything that cannot be seen, felt, measured, or predicted is not worthy of human consideration. Thus spiritual values are ruled out altogether, and man becomes imprisoned within the walls of his own limited senses. This is the way to pygmy living and stymied soul!" Commissioner Wiseman challenges Salvationists particularly to get into the places where people are with the Christian witness, which involves not only testimony to their religious faith, but practical expression of their Christian love, and their sense of responsibility for the well-being of the whole world.

GREETINGS to ALL

Here's wishing that your Christmas holiday keeps rolling along with lots of merriment for everybody. And to our good customers go our thanks.

PICKLE PERFECT

I know everyone has their pickling done by now. Perhaps you are beginning to notice they don't look as nice as last years and are wondering why. Some ladies have asked me this question and Mrs. P. Atkins of Strathmore suggested I help you all through the paper.

1. Use only fresh, good quality fruits and vegetables. Cucumbers and green tomatoes should be picked within 24 hours of picking. Slightly underripe fruits are best. Maturity is important because if the cucumber is used when it is too old, the pickles will be hollow.

2. Use only fresh spices. For most cooked pickles, whole spices are best. Leaving spice bag in packed jars turns the pickles dark.

3. Vinegar must be good, clear, standard vinegar. Do not use it if there is sediment.

4. Make sure brine is of strength given in recipe. Too weak yields soft pickles; too strong makes the pickles shrivel.

5. Use only pure granulated salt.

6. Soft water is best for making brine. If your water is hard, boil it and let stand 24 hours. Skim. D.P. from container. To each gallon add one tablespoon of vinegar.

7. Remove any scum, otherwise spoilage will result.

8. Kettles and crocks are important too. NEVER use copper or galvanized materials (enamelware, aluminum, or stainless), are best to use. Crocks or stone jars should be used for brining. Don't use limestone as a weight.

9. Use only perfect jars and seals. Make sure the seal is perfect.

Hope this helps, at least for next year!

By Mrs. E.B.

The C.P.C.N. Coffee Party sponsored by the Friendship Club was well attended last Tuesday. The Bake Sale was sold out and the Club is grateful to all those who attended. Most everyone won a prize and several were lucky to win cash.

Howard Langdale, Marg Proe and the Roland Hanson family were guests of Mary Boschman and family for a turkey supper after the coffee party.

Scott Wheeler has been transferred to the Children's Hospital this past week. Scott has a broken thigh and will be in traction until the end of January.

Sandra and John Dyck and Willie and Yvonne Fawkes attended the Legion dance in Turner Valley Friday evening.

Janice Boschman and Linda Rolene Hanson are home from the University of Calgary for the Christmas holidays.

Many Namaka friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Mildred Wheeler in Strathmore last Friday. Mrs. Wheeler lived in this district for many years and we were all saddened to learn of her sudden passing. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Waldemar Ziehr and Josef Krapp of Bavaria Germany, arrived on Monday for a visit with their Aunt and Uncle, Namak and John Ziehr and family.

Combining was in full swing again on Sunday but was stopped by the rain at supper time. However, several more farmers were fortunate to get finished.

Get well wishes are in order for Dave Parker who is a patient in the Calgary General Hospital.

The young and older folks are busy preparing for the Annual Christmas Concert to be held on Dec. 22nd.

Dale Christensen is happy to be home for the Christmas holidays from Casper, Wyoming.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to former friends and neighbors who are in various parts of the West, and look forward to the local news each week.

It was decided to start the New Years Eve Dance at 9:00 P.M., supply noisemakers and hats, and lunch. The orchestra will be the 'Star Ramblers' and admission will be $7/couple and $4/singie.

The Lions will again sponsor a Community Christmas card, which will be located at Freddie Quong's Store. The proceeds from this project are earmarked for the Cluny Park.

A work bee was held on December 11 at the hall to start on the recommendations put forth by the hall committee. One coat of paint was put on the entry and both cloakrooms. A second work bee was planned for Saturday to put the second coat on.

Larry has started to flood the rink and has built up about one inch of ice. It is pretty slow going in this warm weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorensen entertained Mr. and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keal at a family dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Keal Sr. who have been visiting from North Battleford, Sask.

We are happy, even though a little late, to say "Welcome to our District" to Mr. and Mrs. Tim Rose and girls who have recently moved into their lovely new home.

Dale Christensen is happy to be home for the Christmas holidays from Casper, Wyoming.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to former friends and neighbors who are in various parts of the West, and look forward to the local news each week.

SPRIT OF CHRISTMAS

By A.E. Bridges,
Alberta Fire Commissioner

The fire services are to high degree a cheerful and helpful service. They can be said to bring safety all times and to bring good tidings at this season of the year.

It is well known that fire fighters are warm hearted and quick to render service to the community both before the alarm and after the alarm. Alberta fire departments have been prominent in community endeavours, particularly helping those in need. For example, they are strong supporters of research into the cure and abatement of suffering from muscular dystrophy. Traditionally, firemen have identification with the young by operating toy repair depots and supporting various youth activities. They have built an attractive and heroic image so as to deserve the admiration of children and ready support of all adults.

The fire services of Alberta have demonstrated throughout the year their concern about safety and goodwill to us all. Our response now in return ought to be to assist them to celebrate Christmas with no fires.

Glen, Ann and Scott Whitehead of Camrose were recent week end visitors of the Mikkelsen's.

Dorothy Brand was hostess to Nurses who were in her graduating class for a Fire-Christmas Get-Together.

Congratulations to Donna Wenstrom and Sandra Garrow who have passed their swimming test into the intermediate class and to Louise Peterson who has passed into the senior class.

Christmas should be a happy time for children. Yet, for many Christmas is a time of sadness. Perhaps it's because their dreams haven't come true. They feel that maybe Christmas is only for others, not for them. But their dream CAN come true - for the Salvation Army, through you, can bring a measure of happiness to less fortunate children. So join in the true spirit of Christmas and send a generous donation to The Salvation Army. You'll be glad you did.

Fair enough. Because the crows could have sworn they saw two dogs. And if you look closer, you'll probably think you see four Indians. Or is it six?

No two people in our brewery agree on just how many there are of what on the Lethbridge Pilsner label. But we're all together on one thing. How to brew the great beer behind it - Alberta's original Pils. That's done the slow, natural, old-time way. For a flavour you can always count on.

Dear Editor:
I would like to take this opportunity to compliment Mr. Kratz, Grade IX teacher at Samuel Crowther School for the work and effort he put into the production of the Drama Night last Saturday at the school.

This is another instance whereby a teacher works above and beyond the call of duty to help our children.

We as parents may sometimes fail to express our appreciation for these efforts. On behalf of all the parents of the children who took part, I would like to say "Thank You very much Mr. Kratz". A great time was had by all, performers and audience alike.

Sincerely,
A Parent.

WOLF CUBS

The above picture of the Standard Cub Pack was taken at their Christmas Program on Dec. 12th. At the program, the Cubs had a few presentations, an investiture of one of their cubs, and the highlight of the evening was a puppet show and a "tag-in" put on by the Cubs themselves. The evening was enjoyed much by all the parents of the Cubs.

A look at the other side of the classroom showed Fat Flaila vainly trying to live through another season with her lively class in "An Apple For a Teacher." LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Strathmore Standard,
Strathmore, Alberta.
RE: Wheat and Canadian Agriculture

Dear Sir:
My first identify myself as a student of Agriculture, attending the University of Alberta, who would like to express his opinions on the current wheat crisis in Canadian Agriculture. You will probably find some of my ideas not only incomplete, but quite possibly incorrect; nevertheless, they are ideas that I have been able to gather and stand open to criticism.

To me, the problem fits into two categories which are simultaneously separate and interdependent. They are: 1) the production phase and, 2) the marketing phase.

With respect to the production phase, we are presently in a state of excessive surplus or over production and a little relief from the situation is soon to change. Why has over production occurred? One reason is that world production of wheat has been high the last few years, resulting in decreased demand for our product in a number of countries which previously were sizeable importers. This is beyond our control. At the same time, Canada has also been producing at a record pace which further magnifies the problem. Then why did Canadian farmers continue to produce so much? Possibly they thought they could sell it. Why did they think wheat would sell? No one warned them of the disaster into which they were walking or literally flying.

This brings us to the marketing phase. Perhaps our marketing system is to blame. It is a sad history that Canadian Wheat Marketers have been failing. During the price war of a few months ago, Canada's share of the world market declined, although Mr. Laing (Minister in charge of the Canadian Wheat Board) tells us we have since regained these markets. We no longer have the large exports to China and Russia and this is in fact what the Russians said would happen when they signed the temporary agreement. The people in charge of wheat marketing should have been able to see that the Russian sales served only to postpone the crisis we now face. From listening to a few of the speakers who have recently been at the U of A, and who are knowledgeable people on the subject of wheat, I have come to the conclusion that Canada's wheat marketing system is at best disorganized. It seems there is a great deal of uncertainty in the division of responsibilities within the Canadian Wheat Board (C.W.B.) and between the C.W.B. and the Canadian Government. For example, Canada is not actively selling wheat. Sure, we have a few trade missions in foreign countries but they work for the Foreign Office and can hardly be counted on to sell wheat. The C.W.B. lacks international trading houses peddle wheat and if wheat is not profitable for them to sell, they are not going to sell it. Some countries haven't even seen one of their wheat agents in years. Let alone someone who is actively pursuing potential markets. Perhaps, as Mr. McWilliam (President of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange) suggests, salesmen with the incentive to sell Canadian wheat could do a more effective job. But at the best, a policy of active selling could ease the current situation only slightly.

The fact is our wheat economy is in trouble and I know of no short-run solutions. I am convinced that the answer to future problems, which will surely occur under the present system, lies in the realm of a complete marketing policy. We need an organization actively engaged in marketing, not only wheat but most agricultural products and I would stress this need not be a government agency (they seem to have fouled things up pretty well now so why not give someone else a chance). This agency could have as its responsibilities the promotion and selling of farm products, research into marketing opportunities and the gathering and dissemination of market information to producers. Areas of paramount importance is the one market information. If someone had been in charge of this, Canada would not be in its current predicament. They informed about the market conditions and if a crisis occurred he would have at least been forewarned.

In summary, I would like to say that production seems to be at a satisfactory level while marketing activities are lacking and need to be remedied without delay.

Yours sincerely,
Bruce Walker,
Gleichen, Alberta.

THERE WAS NO ROOM

In telling the story of Christ's entry into the world, Luke briefly states, "There was no room for them in the inn." This is a haunting observation - that the people of Bethlehem should miss the great event that was taking place. Of course they were busy. There was a census taking place in the Empire. Families were forced to come back to their place of birth. Many family reunions and festivities were taking place. The business people had to contend with a greater demand on their services. The hotel people had to provide room and occupy the bustling crowd. The streets and businesses and homes of Bethlehem were too occupied to become involved with this birth that took place down at the barn.

A few weeks ago while returning from a speaking engagement in the city, I picked up a newspaper along the road late on a Sunday evening. The night was cold, and the two huddled close together for warmth. George had been recently released from jail for a drug charge and subsequently his family had disowned him. He had tried to work in logging camps, but because of an epileptic condition could not retain a job. Although coming from a very affluent family in Vancouver, he had been a school dropout and had been in and out of difficulty ever since.

Jack, the other young man, was from a farm near Hamilton. He, too, had spent time in jail and had since his release been working for Good Aid, a helping group to aid hippie-type youth. He had met George at a center in Vancouver and had intervened with George's parents to accept the son back. Finding no possibility of this, he invited George to hitchhike out to Hamilton so that he could meet some people who would accept him despite his record, his personal appearance, and his handicap. There was room.

The conversation drifted to many things. They related how truck drivers often attempted to run them down while they thumbed rides along the road and yet they were extremely grateful to the many people who offered rides, who gave them lodging or food or money. We began to talk of drugs and the hippie movement. The boys volunteered that they were presently on "acid." When queried as to why, George offered, "Man, it's so beautiful." When asked, "I am at peace and try to fight. I don't walk away, because even then he would be my friend. It's so beautiful."

We talked of the various drugs and who should use them. They suggested some drugs were right and others were wrong; that some people should use them and some ought not. "But who is to be the judge in these difficult decisions?" I asked. They could not respond. I went on, "It seems to me that when you're on drugs you don't have room for anyone else. That taking drugs is very selfish. You want to escape from the difficulties of life and use drugs to do so."

Finding no argument to this exploratory probing, I continued, "I suppose all of us want to be turned on. People use different means to gain that. As a Christian I want to be turned on as well. I believe that the Spirit of God within each of us can turn us on to this world, but not for selfish reasons to escape it. I believe that God can use us in making this world a better place. When God entered our world, he did so to become involved in the lives of ordinary people in everyday circumstances. He wanted this world to be a better place and that's why he entered it. And if we let him turn us on, we could face these difficulties and not escape, but attempt to overcome them and work them out. "You know, man, you may be right!" retorted Jack. "So many times when I'm caught on the road, I pray to God that a ride might come along and it's never failed yet."

But isn't that using God for your own selfish reasons? Perhaps He has answered your prayers. You in this world to bring about better goals than simply a ride from here to there." The boys were quiet at this. There was no room within them for this. Refusing to leave the highway to stay overnight in Standard, we drove on the road where arrangements were made to stay overnight at the Gleichen United Church. "But man, we've never slept in a church before."

"There's room there for you. It's warm and you'll be out of the cold. After all, isn't that what the church is for? To provide room not only for the presence of God - that He might turn people on to His purposes?" I left them that night in the care of Pastor Bill Toner who provided breakfast and blessings in the name of the Lord as they continued on their way to Hamilton.

And lights for the Vespertine trees.
If He is the Child still there?
I haven't had the chance
What with parties and pageants, and all,
And arranging the office dance
Tell me is the Child still there?
I've come at last to call;
But the shepherds I can barely see,
And the wee babe not at all.

For Bethlehem, there was no room. For the hippies on the road, there was little room. When Christ came, He received only a stable. And He still comes to us, often in the only room we will allow. For many that may be at the Christmas season, when we attempt with our family activities and community programs to practise, "Good will to men."

From that stable, His impact on the world continues. From the stable of our lives, may God's impact continue - in us and through us.

CHRISTMAS IN DEPTH

Rev. G. S. Smith
Strathmore Alliance Church

If every man could envision godlessness in its true form, he would fearfully denounce it. In any age and at any place, godlessness forms the basis for the deepest problems of society.

In its disguise, godlessness makes advancements, filling the minds of people with earthly ambitions; blinding them of time, age, and the full meaning of life; and enticing them deeper into the vortex of evil until finally the victims find themselves enslaved by the ruthless taskmaster of godlessness. More than this, they discover often too late, that the wages at best for their godless living is a black and hopeless slavery.

When godlessness creeps into a nation and a society, it often comes in unawares. Like a serpent in the marshes, blending in its environment, it inches towards its prey. It takes advantage of its victim's ignorance; lack of insight; its proneness to get curiously taken up with something new and different; and of course the victim's general weakness. Then suddenly - the lash of death - and silence.

Stand back for a moment and watch the motions of humanity. Is it not enveloped in the spin and whirl of change? Does it not grow steadily more weary, more tense and unhappy? Purpose and ambition begin to decline in almost any bracket of life, and finally through weaker individuals, humanity begins to collapse under the stress of morbidity, or depression, insanity and often suicide.

Perhaps all may not appear so bleak at the moment, however veiled beneath the appearance of pleasant living, the potential for despair is surprisingly near. More people at best, tolerate life than one may realize. More people are searching for peace, happiness ... some answer, than appears on the surface. You may be one.

Whenever man is swept into the horrible consequences of godless living, it is indicative of one of two things: first, that the depth of Christmas has not been discovered; or second, that the answer in Christmas has not been applied.

The very express purpose of Christmas was to provide the human race with an answer ... "the answer to the very deepest problems man could possibly face. Surely the fables of godlessness would try to smother even this. Still its primary aim in the sphere of life is to undermine every intent of God, and through the choices of people, he often appears to be gaining territory. But some people have resolved that Christmas will never die, in that its impact must be always shared wherever possible.

Stop for a moment and ponder a thought. The subject of Christmas is one you remember from your earliest recollections. Every year it no doubt, in one way or another, has been an annual highlight. But have you ever stopped to wonder about the real meaning of Christmas? Have you? Something wonderful will begin to happen to you if you let yourself understand the very depth of Christmas. In a very brief and simple statement, I quote the whole essence of Christmas: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (The Bible). That short message, my friend, is enough. Study the full meaning of that little text, and you have the answer to man's very deepest needs. Read it again and again. Read it every day. Get the value of every word until you see that it is truly effective.

I propose that if every individual would solemnly probe and utilize the depth of the Christmas meaning, that true peace would exist in every person. It holds the answer for every one ... the whole world. Its answer is permanent, all-inclusive, and totally satisfying. No Christmas can be truly "Merry" without it, and with that I say in closing, may you have a truly "Merry Christmas and a future year of blessing."

Merry Christmas

SMILING CHILDREN

What is sweeter than a candy cane?
What is brighter than a Christmas tree?
What welcomes more warmly than a holly wreath?
What remains when Christmas ends?

The smile of a child receiving a new toy and a stockenful of Christmas treats — provided.

through The Salvation Army because her parents could not afford them — is sweeter than any candy.

The light shining in the eyes of the ill and elderly — because The Salvation Army remembered them — is brighter than the lights twinkling on the tree.

The sincere "Merry Christmas and God bless you" of Salvation Army officers who open the doors of their centers to the lonely and homeless is a warmer welcome than the biggest holly wreath.

And, when all the decorations are packed away, the faith, hope, and love that comes of sharing with others remain to strengthen us for the new year. Let us share with the less fortunate of our community by supporting The Salvation Army so that it may continue to bring the joy and true meaning of Christmas to those in need.

F.U.A. CRITICIZED

National Farmers Union president Roy Atkinson of Saskatoon on Monday condemned the inaction of the Farmers Union of Alberta in deciding their future in farm organization.

Endeavouring to convince the annual meeting delegates at the Macdonald hotel that the NFU was the route to go in farm organization he said, "The F.U.A. for the past two years has used the NFU as a lever to coerce the farm organizations of Alberta into forming an amalgamated organization within the province".

In pressing delegates to decide in favor of joining the NFU, Mr. Atkinson claimed that amalgamation within the province would further isolate farmers.

"We're unfarming farmers from coast to coast," he said, "Let's stop wasting time because its not on our side."

Demonstrating his claim that people power only will effect change he noted the success of the farmers marches in Saskatchewan last summer to arrange a meeting with the Prime Minister. He said, "The FUA were not as successful in this province."

Mr. Atkinson displayed his dislike of agribusness once again by criticizing the NFU approach of organizing the farmers in a separate body and then bargaining with the agribusness establishment.

The national president refused to divulge the membership figures of his organization saying that the number of memberships was not the determining factor in the strength of an organization but rather how active they were in pursuing objectives.

Mr. Atkinson vehemently attacked the two speakers to follow him, Mr. Lionel Sorel, past president of L'Union Catholique des Cultivateurs and Sister Thomas More.

Mr. Atkinson claimed the UCC would use an organization when it could and when it could not they would retaliate against you. He said the NFU would support organizations when they felt the principle was correct but would make no deals. Of Sister Thomas More he said she was knowledgeable when it came to academic or religious matters but did not possess the experience to talk about solutions to organization problems.

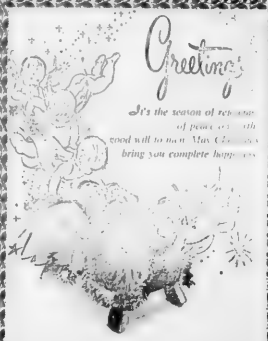

In answering a question from the floor Mr. Atkinson suggested only national marketing boards, not provincial, could be effective in helping solve farmers marketing problems.

The NFU president said regardless of the action taken by the FUA on farm organization, the farmers in the country would decide themselves which organizations they wished to support. He said memberships in the NFU are now available for anyone interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neff flew to Vancouver to attend the funeral of Mr. Neff's niece who was killed in an accident.

The major prize winners of the Grey Cup tickets sponsored by the Lions Club were Mrs. Fred Newall - half time score and Mr. Jim Sangster - full time score. Congratulations.

Mr. Dick Koester is in hospital. He was kicked by a steer and suffered torn legaments around the knee. Hope to see you around soon.

Holiday Greetings
Warm and hearty good wishes to our friends and neighbors. As you deck the halls with boughs of holly...as you hark to joyful carols...may the season bring you much happiness.

MERRY ? CHRISTMAS

Christmas can be a joyous time of year. It can cause heartache to share in the eyes of a little boy or girl. It can bring great joy into a child's life. It can awaken faith. But unfortunately for some children, Christmas this year may be a disappointment. It may be looking in store windows at toys their parents can't afford to buy -- or suffering for lack of adequate clothing -- or simply experiencing a feeling of utter loneliness.

This need not be; for the Salvation Army, on your behalf reaches out to such children and makes possible for them the thrill of opening gifts, the treat of enjoying a special holiday dinner, the warm feeling of wearing new clothes.

Yes, The Salvation Army knows many, many troubled people, both young and old. It tries to make Christmas happy and meaningful by providing friendship and material assistance for the less fortunate in communities -- all across Canada -- fathers who will spend their Christmas behind prison bars -- for mothers whose children lie ill and cold in a substandard dwelling -- for penniless hospitalized veterans -- for many needy youngsters who know little of comfort and joy.

The Salvation Army has been spreading joy and happiness at Christmastime -- and throughout the year -- for more than a century, and it plans to keep on doing it.

Share YOUR blessings this Christmas.

Greetings

On this joyous Christmas we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of our patrons and business associates for their friendship -- and their cooperation -- their loyalty during the past year. A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone.

DRAMATIC MOMENTS

Rev. Jim Shortz,
Strathmore United Church

The year 1969 will surely be remembered as the year of many dramatic moments. Two men walked where never walked before. A few weeks later, two men walked where only the first two had walked. The first dramatic step was watched by excited people in every part of the world. A man's foot could be seen on the television screen. It seemed suspended for a moment, hesitating to drop the final few inches. Then a man set foot on the moon. Before a second step was taken, we heard the words that are now historic: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." These words may have been planned and rehearsed or spontaneous, we don't know, and it doesn't matter very much. This was the climax of a great achievement and suggests that even greater feats may be accomplished in the future.

The moments when man first set foot on the moon were dramatic. What if something went wrong? A slight miscalculation? An unpredictable solar ray upsetting delicate equipment? Two creatures would be doomed to death on an empty planet! Then we recall the words of the Psalmist: "When I look at the heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast established, what is man that thou art mindful of him?" The story of the two journeys to the moon says something to us about God's highest created creature. The Psalmist continues: "Thou hast made him a little less than God, and dost crown him with glory and honour. Thou hast given him dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet." God has permitted man to walk even on the moon. This is a marvel.

The Christmas story tells of an even greater marvel — not that man has walked upon the moon, but that God has walked upon earth. That evening, nearly two thousand years ago, happened in a very unspectacular way. Simply, lowly, humbly, God chose to enter our race and be cradled in a manger, attended by his peasant mother who saw "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my saviour".

Ever since that unique event, that dramatic moment in history, man has rejoiced and said and chorused "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men". With this thought in mind I send you, on behalf of all at the Manse and the United Church Congregation, our heartiest good wishes for a truly joyous Christmas and a glad and prosperous New Year.

NO SUPPORT FOR N.F.U. SAYS BABEY

The presidents of the Farmers' Union of Alberta and the Farm Women's Union of Alberta have shared the concept of a national farm organization, believing that the latter group's isolation policy would alienate much of the farm support here.

Paul Babe, speaking to a record 625 delegates in opening day of the FUA's 21st annual convention in Edmonton, said NFU support in other provinces has ranged as low as 10 per cent because of its desire to work independently of long established farm groups. "In view of this I cannot, in good conscience, support the idea of a national farm organization completely separated from other farm organizations."

Mrs. Pauline Jaaman endorsed Mr. Babe's reply to the NFU proposal and added that the outgoing group was also unacceptable because it did not intend to provide a suitable role for farm women. A present FWUA is concentrating on the areas of health, education and social welfare.

Mr. Babe suggested that the only logic of course for farmers to follow is to press for finalization of trends toward unity in Alberta before seeking unity on a national scale. "A general farm organization which would enable all farmers to participate in decision making to deal with social and economic problems is the best answer to the crisis facing the industry," the 41-year-old president said. "Amalgamation of farm organizations now in existence in Alberta could allow farmers to become a powerful force in spite of their relatively small numbers."

Delegates will determine the future of farm organization in this province when they render a final decision probably on Tuesday. They are faced with the choice of combining with the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, becoming a part of the NFU or retaining the current FUA structure. The third possibility appears to be an extremely remote one.

The Salvation Army tries to make sure that each youngster finds something nice in his stocking on Christmas morning. Sometimes it even provides the stocking.

To each and every valued friend, we wish good fortune without end. Here's to your happiness, health and good cheer, at this joyous season and throughout the New Year. May your holiday time be merry and bright, and may all your dearest wishes turn out just right.

BOY SCOUTS

The November meeting of the Wheatview District Council was held in the Anglican Church Parish Hall in Strathmore.

The meeting was called to order by outgoing Chairman, Scotty Woodrow at 8:00 p.m. John Haslin, Senior Scout Executive of the Chibougamau Region was present. Most of the groups in the District were represented.

It is interesting to note that this year, a new Cub Pack was formed in Corbach and a Cub Pack is being formed in Carleton Place. They plan to start meeting on a regular basis early in the New Year.

The Executive for the coming Scout Year is as follows: Chairman - Hans Flata, Strathmore; Secretary-Treasurer - Bill Harvey, Calgary; Vice-President - Howard Rasmussen, Stansbury; Camping Chairman - Clark Christensen, Standard; Finance Chairman - Scotty Woodrow, Langdon.

The District Commissioner position will be in the capable hands of Jorgen Hvenegaard of Chancellors again this year with Mrs. Carl Mervel also of Chancellors, continuing in the position as Assistant District Commissioner.

A special vote of thanks to Scotty Woodrow, outgoing president. He has served in this position since the Wheatview District was formed, four years ago. We are happy that you could remain on Council as Finance Chairman, Scotty.

We would like to have another volunteer to serve as Assistant District Commissioner. Our District is very large and it is hard for the existing Executive Scouters to get around, willing as they are. Anyone interested, please contact Dr. H.E. Flata, Box 180, Strathmore.

The next meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m. on January 14, 1970 at the Anglican Church Hall. A Sincere Christmas Wish is extended to all.

The Brownies, under the direction of Brown Owl Rosemary Comstock, Guide Captain Nadine Hymas and Tawny Owl Phyllis Zachariasen entertained all the girls attending Severn Creek School, a total of thirty six girls in all and all of them had a most enjoyable afternoon with lots of treats. The party wouldn't have been complete without the big help given by four "jacksies" from the First Rosebud Guides.

Among the first to arrive home for the Christmas vacation is Miss Judy Head of Oregon State University whose plane lands at Calgary Thursday evening Dec. 18. Judy is being met by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Beckley, sister Lynda and brother Doug.

Friday evening, Dec. 12, the Rosebud Teen Club held another dance in the Rosebud Hall.

by Mourtiz Castella's.

Mr. and Mrs. Mourtiz Castella highly esteemed couple who have resided in the Community since 1926, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Dec. 5th.

During the opening open house was held in the spacious and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rasmussen, where some 125 well wishers gathered to honor Mourtiz and Elizabeth. The grandchildren, Marcia and Michael Rasmussen were in charge of the guest book, while Mrs. Carla Sander, Mrs. Agnes Jensen and Mrs. Mehta Laursen presided at the coffee table. The bounteous luncheon was traditionally Danish in style featuring the Danish Wedding Cake, open face sandwiches and pastries.

In the evening the couple were honored by a Program in the Community Hall. The decor featured a unique backdrop of the golden wedding bands and silhouettes complemented by juniper sprayed gold and red velvet bows. The head table was centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake carrying the symbolic Gold Cross of the Church and the 50th Anniversary emblem. Continuing the theme all of the tables were enhanced with golden candelabras of double bells with gold sprayed white candles.

Linda Federszen and Terri Knapp were in charge of the Guest Book.

HOCKEY NEWS

STRATHMORE JUVENILES:

On December 7th, Strathmore Juveniles played University of Calgary Arts Faculty. This game was very fast and exciting.

The last period ended all in the second period. Strathmore went ahead, only to have Calgary tie at the end of the second. In the third period, Calgary scored four unanswered goals. One of the main reasons was three lines against two; Strathmore players tiring and as a result, picking up cheap penalties.

Point getters for Strathmore were C. Deeg one goal and one assist; Desmit one goal and one assist.

On December 15, the Strathmore Juveniles played Winsor Park. This also was a fast game with the score see-sawing back and forth until late in the game. Again, Calgary had sixteen players against Strathmore's twelve, again tiring players and cheap penalties being costly. The final score was Calgary 6, Strathmore 4.

Point getters were Desmit 3 goals, Jones 1 goal; Assists - Stephenson 2, Fapp - 1.

The Strathmore Juveniles play West Hillhurst on December 17th at 8:30 p.m. On December 21st Strathmore plays Forest Lawn at 3:30 p.m.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING

On Monday, November 10th, the Education Committee sponsored a program in the Crowfoot Hall for students and parents of the Provincial Schools to discuss the Glue and Gas Line Sniffing situation on the Blackfoot Reserve.

The evening began with a film "Circle of the Sun" for the purpose of entertainment. The program consisted of a presentation of facts about Solvent-Sniffing by Marie Falding, Public Health Nurse for the Sarcee Reserve, and one of the Blackfoot Public Health Nurses, Mrs. Mary Maza. This was followed by buzz groups of parents and students. The main part of the agenda was a panel of two Blackfoot parents and two Blackfoot students.

Some two hundred people attended the program. The program has caused people to do some thinking and they are aware of the problems and the dangers.

SANTAS ANONYMOUS
A few citizens have come up with a wonderful Christmas idea and have called it "Santa's Anonymous". This is the way it will work. Those of us who have the Christmas spirit will find toys that are in fairly reasonable shape, that their own kids don't want. Gift wrap them and leave them at the Strathmore Shopping Centre. The gifts will be distributed to needy children under the age of 13 years in and around Strathmore. If the spirit should move you and you do not have abandoned toys, there will also be a Christmas Hamper for canned goods only. So join the Season's Best idea and drop something in at "Santa's Anonymous".

The Panel, chaired by one of the Counselling Aides, Mr. Matthew Many Guns indicated the concerns of the people. There were lots of questions and participation.

One thing that was emphasized by the young people and some of the parents was the need for activities, especially recreational activities so that they won't look for their kicks in solvent sniffing. The Community has a responsibility to supply these needs.

The Education Committee hopes some follow-up work can be done in this area.

Joy to the World
As on that Holy Night of blessed memory, may the message of Christmas enter the hearts of mankind. May peace and good will be with you and yours.

ARDENODE POST OFFICE CLOSURES

With the closing of the Ardenode Post Office on Friday, November 28, 1969, may I tell you a true little story.

With the completion of the C.N.R. Railway near David, his wife and their son had vision of establishing a thriving business in this new land. The Post Office was established in 1914.

The David was a successful fisherman and brought with them a great deal of family heirloom silver. Tragically he died the David twin boys, Tony and John, were born. One of the boys died shortly of an apparent reason - the family thought of a broken heart. All very upsetting to the family.

Soon after this tragedy Mrs. Sharnan and her family took over the Ardenode store and Post Office. These very good and kind people have moved the building to its present site. On the banks of the Serviceberry Creek they created one of the most beautiful places. Ken Liddell and others have written about it.

Mrs. Freeman, living only four or five miles away from the Post Office, had a great territory. She raised 5,000 turkeys without brooders of any kind except the old turkey hen herself.

Mr. Freeman, living only four or five miles away from the Post Office, had a great territory. She raised 5,000 turkeys without brooders of any kind except the old turkey hen herself.

To a great many homesteaders and settlers with team and wagon, this store and Post Office were "God's ends".

STRATHMORE MINOR HOCKEY SPORTSMEN'S DINNER

The Head Table L/R Dave McDonald, Mrs. McDonald, Billy (Red) Hays, M.C. Bob Peltier, Mayor and Mrs. Rowe Martin.

The Strathmore Minor Hockey Association held a "Sportman's Dinner" last week and the evening has to be rated as a success.

At $10.00 per plate the sports enthusiasts turned up in numbers of approximately 160 to listen to three speakers.

The M.C. for the evening Mr. Peltier introduced first a local hockey star Brian Carlon who plays for the Calgary Centennials. Brian conducted a question and answer type of speech and cleared up a few queries on the "Draft" system in hockey. Dave McDonald was the next speaker and Dave is getting pretty experienced in public speaking and his theme was of course Rodeo, the largest spectator sport in the world, and the only sport in which competitors play to compete. Dave McDonald has to be one of the best speakers on this subject, and is always a pleasure to listen to.

The third and final speaker was Billy (Red) Hays of Chicago Black Hawks. He spoke of the major league hockey and of experiences on the ice and in the dressing rooms, with team mates and other hockey players. Bob Peltier M.C. played his Minor Hockey with the Buffalo Organization till 1950. He then went to refereeing and turned pro in the W.H.L. in 1952 to 1962. He semi-retired in the year of 1962 and worked the Jr. League and Sr. League in Calgary and area. He was vice-chairman of the Referees Assoc. for Alta. last year and is now Pres. of the Calgary Oldtimers Benevolent Hockey Assoc. Mr. Peltier is now retired from refereeing.

M.C. Peltier closed the evening with a quote "A man never stands so tall as when, he stoops to help a child" and the three speakers and the M.C. all who gave their time free gratis stood extremely tall in the eyes of their audience and the Minor Hockey Assoc.
